

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

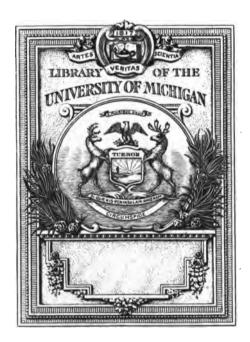

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at http://books.google.com/

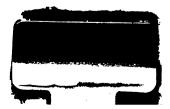

Theological Sectamiest Bookseller, No. 22 South 4th St. Philadelphia.

r.

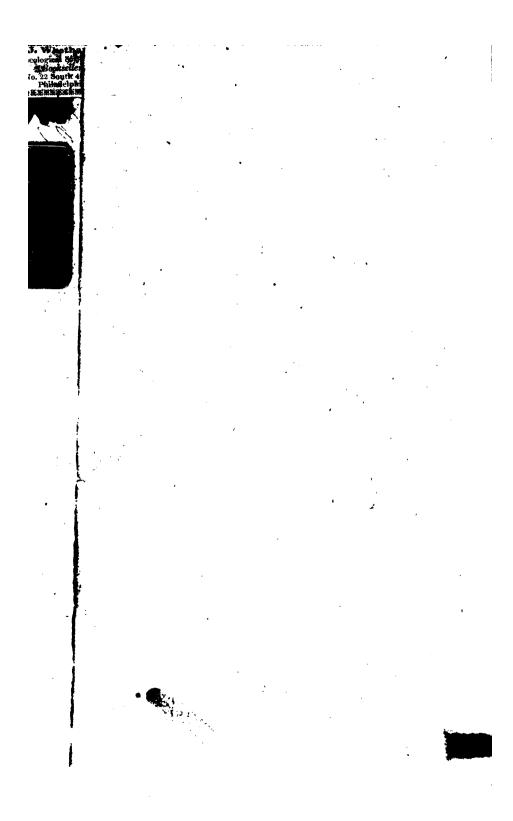

Da

Alexandria de la constanta de

4

• .

THE

HISTORY

O F

NADIR SHAH,

Formerly called

Thamas Kuli Khan,

The Present Emperor of PERSIA.

To which is prefix'd A short HISTORY of the Moghol Emperors.

At the End is inserted,

A CATALOGUE of about Two Hundred MANUSCRIPTS in the Persic and other Oriental Languages, collected in the East.

By JAMES FRASER.

LONDON:

Printed by W. Straban, for the AUTHOR:

And fold by G. STRAHAN, and J. BROTHERTON, in Cornbill; J. Oswald, and J. Davidson, in the Poulty; S. Austin, in St. Paul's Church-Yard; T. Longman, and C. Hitch, in Pater-nofter-row; A. Millar, in the Strand; J. Stagg, in Westminster-Hall; J. Hodges, and T. Harris, on London-Bridge; J. Palairet, in Piccadilly; and Mary Senex, in Floristreet. 1742.

.

G.L. New East Carner 8.10.55 94228

ТО

Dr. Richard Mead,

Physician to the KING,

Fellow of the College of

PHYSICIANS in LONDON,

And of the

ROYAL SOCIETY,

These Sheets (as a grateful Acknowledgment of the Favours received) are, with great Submission, dedicated by

His most obliged

Humble Servant,

JAMES FRASER.

٠. . : . . ٠.

THE

PREFACE.

S the Public is ever favourable to Works of this Nature, I fhall make no Apology for the present Undertaking. But to satisfy my Readers what Pains

I have been at not to impose upon them, and what Opportunities I have had of being informed, I beg leave to present them with a short Account of the following Sheets.

The Abstract of the Moghol History is extracted from the 6th Vol. of Tarîkh Rozit al Suffa, Vakeat Babri, Maçir Jehanguîry, Padîhanama, and Tarîkh Alumguîri, &c. A particular Account of which will be found in the Catalogue of Manuscripts at the End of the

iv The PREFACE.

the Book. As I have so large and choice a Collection of Eastern Histories for that Purpose, the Authenticness of it will not be disputed.

As to that Part which gives an Account of the State of Affairs in the Moghol Empire before the Persian Invasion, with the Springs that effected the same, I have translated it from a Persian Manuscript sent to Dr. Mead, by Humsties Cole Esq; Chief of the English Factory at Patna in the East-Indies. That the Facts therein are true, I am well assured; having myself lived in India above Ten Years, the last Three of which, I held a constant Correspondence with some Persians and Moghols there, and that frequently on the Subject of Nadir Shah's Expedition.

The Account of Nadir Shah's first Exploits I have been favoured with from a Gentleman now in England, who resided several Years in Persia, speaks that Language, and has been frequently in Company with that Conqueror.

The fournal of his Transactions in India, with the Letters and Cession of the Provinces, were transmitted from Dehli, by the Secretary of Sirbullind Khan (whom Nadir Shah had appointed to be one of the Commissioners for

for levying the Contributions) to Mirza Moghol, Son to Ali Mahommed Khan at Ahmedabad, who being my intimate Friend, gave it to me.

I bave been as full in the Notes as possible, and ex plained whatever Terms I thought required it: Several proper Names and Words I have expressed in the Original Characters, which I thought would be entertaining to those who know any Thing of the Arabic or Persic, and not disagreeable even to those who do not, as they are immediately after set down in Roman Characters, with a proper Explanation. As several of those Terms have occured more than once, I have annexed an Index of them, referring to the Page in which they are particularly explained.

In the Abstract of the Moghol History, I have reduced the Dates of the Hegira to the Year of our Lord, but in the remaining Part I have kept the Original Dates, and put ours in the Notes.

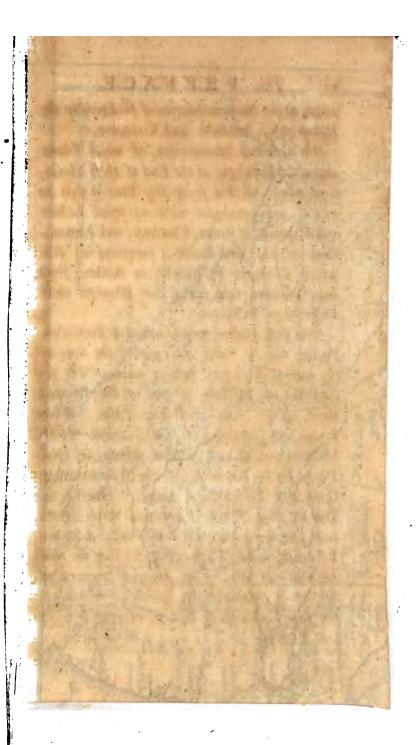

The learned Reader will please to observe, that in two or three Persic Words, I have been obliged to make use of the Letter B. instead of P. there being no such Letter in the Arabic Types, which I have been favoured with by the Society for propagating Christian Knowledge, vi The PREFACE.

ledge, at the Recommendation of bis Lordship the Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry.

The Oriental Manuscripts, of which I have annexed a Catalogue at the End of these Sheets, have been collected from the Year 1730 to 1740, and purchased with no small Labour and Expence, at Surat, Cambay, and Ahmedabad in the East-Indies; excepting a sew which I bought at Mocha in Arabia, from some Persians who passed that Way on their Pilgrimage to Mecca.

The first Master under whom I studied the Perfic, was a Parsi, (or one of the Race of the ancient Persians) now at Surat. The second was a Multah of one of the Mosques there, whose Name is Fakhr o'dîn. I was at Cambay, I studied under Shekh Mahommed Morad, a Man famous in those Parts for his Knowledge of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclefiastical Laws. During my Stay in that Place, I employed three Hours each Day with one Srî Nât Veaz, a learned Brahmin, whom I allowed a Sallary on that Account; it was by his Means I procured my Sanskerrit Manuscripts, which (I believe) is the first Collection of that Kind ever brought into Europe.

A SHORT

HISTORY

OF THE

HINDOSTAN Emperors of the Maghal Race, beginning with TEMUR.

E. M. U.R., * the Son of Emîr Targhai Khan and Takina Khatun, was born on the 6th of April, 1336. during the Government of Kazan Khan, in the City of Keish, (commonly call'd Shehr-B solve,

Temur is known in Europe by the Name of Tamerlane, a Corruption of تبمور لنك Temur Lung, which fignifies Lame Temur, an Appellative feldom or never given him by the Eaftern Historians. His Name and Titles at Length are قطب الدنبا و الدبن امبر Koteb al Dunia v'al din Emir Temur Gourgan Sabeb é Kéran, which is to say, distant from Samarcand: And on the 8th of April, 1370, then aged 35 ‡ Lunar Years and 17 Days, sat on the Throne in the City of Balkb. From which Time until his Death, which was Thirty-five Years Eleven Months and Five Days, he subdued the better Part of the Earth, and obtain'd Victories that might eclipse the Glory of all the Exploits before his Time. He conquered Mawaralnabr (or Trans-oxane Tartary) Biddukhshan, Khuarism, Turkestan, Zabulistan, Kabul, Gbor and Hin-

The Axis of (or on whom turns round) the World and Religion, Prince Temur of Gourgan, Lord of the Conjunction; it being faid, there was a fortunate Conjunction of the Planets at his Birth. Koteb literally fignifies the Pole or Extreme of the Axis; a Part being put to fignify the Whole. Temur fignifies hardy, and strong, being deriv'd from the Tartar Word Temr, Iron, which the modern Turks by Corruption write Demr.

+ The Stages, which in Tartary and Persia they call with Manzel, are from 25 to 30 English Miles.

† The Lunar Year they reckon 354 Days, 22 Gurris, 1 Pull. The Solar Year they reckon 365 Days, 15 Gurris 30 Pulls, 22½ Peels; 60 Peels making 1 Pull, 60 Pulls 1 Gurri, and 60 Gurris 1 Day. This is according to the Bramim's or Indian Priest's Calculation, and what the Moghols and other Mahommedans in India chiesty go by.

dostan

dostan * as far as Debli, all Afia Minor, Syria and Egypt.

In the Year 1398, he set out on his Expedition to India; and on the 16th of December the same Year, he took the Capital Debli, having then an Army of near 100,000 But finding a general Conquest of India would be attended with much Difficulty, and the keeping it afterwards impracticable. he bent his Thoughts on an Expedition against the Turks; and Three Years Eight Months after the taking of Debli, in the latter End of 1401, with an Army of near 200,000 Horse he set out against Eildirm || Baiazed, the Son of Sultan Morad Khan (corruply call'd Amurath); and on the 18th of July, 1402, on the Plains of Angoria in Galatia, defeated him and his numerous Army. On the 19th at Night Baiazed.

إلدرس Eildirm, which in the Turkish Language fignifies Lightning, was Baiazéd's Sirname.

^{*} India in the East is known by the Name of Mindostan, which signifies the Country of the Hindu's or swarthy People, هندو Hindu being swarthy or black. The Capital thereof is معلى Debli, which since Shab Jehan removed thither from Agra, is as often known by the Name of معلى الماد Shab Jehanabad, or Shab Jehan's Habitation.

with his Son Moufa, were taken Prisoners, and presented to him.

After this Victory, all Afia Minor submitted to him, and the Khotbab * was read at Mecca and Medina in his Name.

On Wednesday the 8th of February, 1405, while on his Expedition to Khata +, he died at the Village Arrar, which is distant from Samarcand Seventy-six Farsangs ‡. His Body was brought to Samarcand, and buried in a Tomb, which he himself had caused to be erected for that Purpose, having lived Seventy Years, Eleven Months and Twenty-two Days.

His Sons were,

- 1. Jehanguir Mirza, who died in 1374, at Samarcand, in Temur's Life-time, aged Twenty Years.
- 2. Shekh Aumar Mirze, who was kill'd in Temur's Life-time, in January 1394. being Forty Years old.

3. Mirza

^{*} Khotbah is the Harangue read by the Mullehs on Fridays in the Mosques, in which the Prince who then governs is mention'd and pray'd for.

⁺ lbs Khata or China.

[#] Farfang is about four English Miles.

5

3. Mirza Miran Shah, born in 1367-8, and kill'd the 9th of April, 1408.

4. Shahrokh Mirza, who reigned after his Father for the Space of Forty-three Lunar Years and Four Months, and died in March, 1447, having lived Seventy-two Years.

Sultan MAHOMMED MIRZA

Was the Son of Mirza Miran Shah, who with his Brother Mirza Khulil lived at Samarcand, and in the Reign of their Uncle Shahrokh they both died. The precise Times of their Birth and Death are not recorded in any authentic History.

Sultan ABUSEYD MIRZA,

The Son of Sultan Mahommed Mirza, was born in 1427. Iat on the Throne at the Age of Twenty-five, and on the 18th of May 1469, was kill'd, having reigned Eighteen Lunar Years, and lived Forty-three.

AUMAR SHEKH MIRZA,

The Fourth Son of Sultan Abuseyd Mirza, was born at Samarcand in 1456. After his Father's Father's Death he held Possession of Fargbana, Kbogend and Auratia (anciently call'd Astrushna) and died on the 7th of June, 1494, having lived Thirty-nine Lunar Years.

Zehîr ‡ o'dîn Mahommed Babr,

The Son of Aumar Shekh Mirza. The best History of his Actions, is the Commentaries wrote by himself, call'd Vakeat Bahri ||. He was born the 12th of February, 1483. and on the the 8th of June, 1494, aged Eleven Lunar Years, Seven Months, and Twenty-nine Days sat on the Throne at Andjan. While he governed in Mawaralnahr, he had frequent Conslicts with Shahan Khan Oushek. After conquering Cabul, Kan-

† Formerly the Khalifs gave Titles to the Mahommedan Princes; such as Desender of Religion, the Champion of Religion, &c. And fince the Destruction of their Empire, the Princes have assumed such as they liked best. ملطان بابر Sultan Babr took the Title of Sultan Babr took the Title of and the Name عليه Mahommed, which signifies prais'd, is prefix'd (or understood to be so) to almost every Mussulman's Name.

Vakeat Babri, fignifies Babr's Oc-currences.

dabar,

dabar, Biddukbshan, Gboznavi, and the Places dependant on them, he made five different Expeditions into Hindostan. In the first Four he was unsuccessful; but in the Fifth, on the 1st of May, 1526, near the Village Maltia, he gave Battle to Sultan Ibrahim Loudi, who had 100,000 Afghans*, and 1000 armed Elephants, and totally defeated him, and that numerous Army, tho' he had scarcely 12,000 effective Men.

He afterwards subdued all that Empire, excepting the Kingdoms of Deccan, Guzerat, and Bengal. Eleven Months and Five Days after this Battle, he engaged Rana Sanga, the most powerful of the Indian Princes; and tho' the Army of the latter was incredibly numerous, and had many armed Elephants, he got the Victory.

He died on the 25th of December, 1530, in Charbaghi near Agra, on the Banks of the River Chun +, from whence his Body was carried to be interred in Cabul, having lived hommedans, who inhabit the Northern Parts of India; there are fome of them spread all over India, known often by the Name of Pattans; they are esteem'd the best Soldiers in the Country.

[†] The River Chun, is often call'd Jumna.

Forty-nine Lunar Years, Four Months, and One Day; and reigned Thirty-feven Years, Eight Months, and Two Days: Thirty-two Years Ten Months and Three Days before the Conquest of India; and Four Years Nine Months and Twenty-nine Days after the Conquest thereof.

Nessîr ‡ o'dîn Mahommed Hemaiun,

Son to Zebir o'din Mahammed Bahr, was born in the Castle of Cabul, on the 4th of March, 1508; and on the 28th of December, 1530, sat on the Throne at Agra.

In November, 1534, he set out to conquer Malva and Guzerat. Sultan Babadr, who had engaged with him, and was deseated, sled to Mundou; and being pursued, went from thence to Chanpanere; from Chanpanere to Canbaet (or Cambay); and from Canbaet to Diu. Hemaiun after staying some Time at Canbaet, return'd.

Having, in the Year 1535, subdued Makva and Guzerat, in 1538 he conquer'd Bengal; but in 1540, being forsaken by his good ئصبر الدين Hemaiûn took the Title of المابون بالانتان Nessir o'dîn, the Affister of Religion.

Fortune,

Fortune, he was driven out of his Country by the Usurper Sher Khan the Afghan, from which he was absent five Years five Months and fifteen Days. The Particulars of which. with his Reception in Perfia, and the Affistance given him by Shah Thamas, Son to Shah Ismael is fully set forth in Akbarnama !. Padshahnama, Tebcat Akbarshahi, Tarikhalum Arai, and Montékbeb al Tuarikh Bedeuvni, being too prolix to insert here. last, on the 1st of September, 1545, he took Kandahar from Mirza Askeri, who govern'd it as Mirza Camean's Deputy; and on the 16th of November, 1545, he took Cabul from Mirza Camran; and in the Spring 1546, conquer'd Biddukbshan from Mirza Suliman, who had revolted and taken the Government thereof into his own Hands. the Beginning of December, 1554, he set out from Cabul for Hindostan; and on the 22d of February, 1555, came to Labor. On the 27th of May, the same Year, he came to Serbind; and on the 20th of June, encounter'd and defeated Secandir Sour.

These are five Histories; the first Three and the Fifth of the Moghol Emperors, and the Fourth of the Persian Kings of the Seffi Race.

Secandir was Son-in-Law to the Usurper Sher Khan. His first Name was Abmed, and he governed Panjab * under Selim Khan, after whose Death he took the Government into his own Hands, calling himself Secandir, and possessing all from the River Scind + to the Ganges.

On the 24th of January, 1556, Hemaium departed this Life, and was buried in a Monument erected on the Banks of the River Chun, having lived Forty-nine Lunar Years, Four Months and Ten Days, and reigned Twenty-five Years Ten Months and Five Days.

" Jilal‡o'dîn Mahommed Akbar,

Son to Neffir o'din Mahommed Hemaiun, was born in the Fort of Amrkowt on the 12th of October,

^{*} Panjab is the ancient Name of the Province of Labor; it fignifies the five Waters or Rivers, fo many running through that Province and falling into the River Scind.

[†] The River www Scind, is that known by the Name of the Indus.

أكبر Abbar took to himself the Title of الدين Jilal o'din, which fignifies, the Aggrandizer of Religion.

October, 1542; and on the 12th of February, 1556, being then Thirteen Solar Years and Four Months old, was proclaimed Emperor at Calanore in the Province of Labor. was reckon'd a great and good Prince, and was very fortunate, having in his Reign made several Conquests, and reduced almost all India to Obedience. The Particulars of which are to be seen in Akbarnama, a History compos'd by his Secretary and Vizir Abul Fazl *, and in Tebcat Akbar Shabi, and Montekbeb Tuarikh Bedauwi. As he was professedly fixed to no Religion himself, so he was a Persecutor of none. In 1582 he wrote a Letter to the King of Portugal, desiring ho would fend to him a Translation of the Scriptures into Arabic or Perfian, and at the same ايو الغفيل Abul Fazl was the Title given to this Great Man, and fignifies, the Father of Excellence. His Writings testify him to be the most learned, and the bost Writer then in the East. He was murder'd by Order of سلطان سلم Sultan Selim, on Suspicion of being the Occasion of a Misunderstanding that was betwist him and the Emperor his Father. Akbar greatly lamented his Death, and so did all who had any Regard for Letters, he having left feveral Things unfinish'd. His History of the Moghol Emperors, he carried on to the 38th Year of Akbar's Reign,

Time a learned Person to explain the Christian Religion. One Geronimo Xavier, a Relation of the famous St. Francis Xavier, was sent; who having learned the Person, in the Year 1602, presented the Mogbol with the Gospels translated into that Language, entirely intermix'd with their Legends, which he imagin'd would make it the more acceptable to Akbar. As I thought the Letter would not be disagreeable to some of the Readers, I have inserted a Translation of it, in which I have kept as close to the Original as possible.

A Letter from the King of Kings to the Ruler * of the Franks.

" LORY † inconceivable to the TRUE

"KING, whose Dominions are safe

"from the Disaster of Decay, and his King-

As the Portuguese had made several Conquests on the Coasts of India, it is probable Akbar imagin'd their King was the most powerful Prince in Europe, and so calls him فرمان مواحد فرناه Firman revai Farang, or the Ruler of the Franks or Europeans.

† It is customary with the Mahommedans to begin, not only their Letters, but also most of their other Writings; first, with the Praise of God, and then with the Praise of the Prophet.

" dom

of dom secure from the Calamity of shifting. The wonderful Extent of the Heavens and Earth is but a minute Part of the World of his Creation, and infinite Space " but a small Corner of his Production. " A GOVERNOR who has regulated the Order of the Universe, and the Management " of the Sons of Adam, by the Understanding of Kings who exercise Justice. A De-" creer, who by the Ties of Love and Bonds " of Affection, has implanted in the various "Beings and feveral Creatures the Passion " of Inclination and Union, and the Affec-"tions of mutual Tendency and Society. "And Praises unbounded, an Offering to " the pure Souls of the Company of Pro-" phets' and Apostles, who walked in the and directed the rightest " truest Paths, " Ways, in general and particular. " It is well known that (with those who " have stored themselves with Knowledge " and studied Nature) nothing in this lower World, which is a Mirror of the spiritual one, is preferable to Love, or more sacred than Friendship. In that they ascribe the

[†] As Akbar was no found Mussulman he makes no particular Mention of Mahammed.

"Oeconomy and right Difposition of the "World to Affection and Harmony." " whatever Heart the Sun of Love thines on, " it clears the whole Soul from the Darkness " of Mortality; and how much more is this " requisite in Princes, the good Correspon-"dence of whom is the Cause of Happi-" ness to the World and the People therein, " For which Reason it has been my earnest « and entire Endeavour to promote and con-" firm the Ties of Friendship and Bonds of " Union among God's Creatures, especially " among the high Rank of Kings, whom "God by his Favour has peculiarly distin-" guished from the rest of Mankind; par-" ticularly with his * Royal Majesty, who is " endowed with intellectual Knowledge, is " the Reviver of the Ordinances of Jesus, and " stands in no Need of Praise or Description. " Our Neighbourhood + with that renown'd " Prince making an Alliance and Friendship " more indispensibly necessary; and as a " personal Conference is impracticable on

^{*} By his Royal Majesty, he means the King of Portugal.

⁺ The Portuguese Conquests on the Coast of India, made them Neighbours.

[&]quot; account

" account of many Obstacles and several weighty Reasons, the want thereof can only be supplied by Embassies, and a mutual Correspondence. Since it is certain that these only can make up the Loss of a personal Conversation and Interviews; we hope they will be mutually carried on, without any Interruption, that the Affairs and Desires of each may be manifested to the other.

"Your Majesty knows that the Learned and Divines of all Nations and Times, in "their Opinions concerning the World of " Appearance and the Intellectual, agree in "this, that the Former ought to be of no "Confideration in Respect to the Latter; 44 yet the wife Men of the Times, and the reat ones of all Nations, toil much in " perfecting themselves, as to this perish-"ing and showy State, and consume the " best of their Lives, and the choicest of "their Time, in procuring apparent De-" lights, being swallowed up and dissolved " in fleeting Pleasures and transitory Joys. "The most High God, merely thro' his " eternal Favour and perpetual Grace, notwithstanding so many Obstacles, and such Titures .

" a World of Bufiness and Employment, " has disposed my Heart so as always to " feek him: And tho' he has subjected the " Dominions of fo many powerful Princes " to me, which to the best of my Judgment I endeavour to manage and govern 66 fo, as that all my Subjects are contented " and happy; yet Praise be to God, his " Will and my Duty to him, is the End I " propose in all my Actions and Desires. " And as most People being enchained by "the Bonds of Constraint and Fashion, " and regarding the Customs of their An-" cestors, Relations and Acquaintances, with-" out examining the Arguments or Reasons " for it, give an implicit Faith to that Re-" ligion, in which they have been bred up, " and remain deprived of the Excellency of "Truth, the finding of which is the pro-" per End of Reason; therefore at Times "I converse with the Learned of all Reli-"gions, * and Profit by the Discourses of each:

* Abdallah Khan, Prince of Tartary, in his Letters to Akbar (of which I have got Copies) calls him to a fevere Account, for being fo fond of the Brabmins or Indian Priests, and so indifferent as to the Mahommedan Religion.

" each. As the Vail of a Language inter-" poses betwixt us, it would be expedient " you would oblige me with fuch a Per-" fon as could distinctly relate and explain " the above Affair. It has also reached my " fortunate Ears, that the Heavenly * Books, " fuch as the Pentateuch, Psalms, and Gos-" pels, are put into Arabic and Perfic: Should " a Translation of these, or any other Books, " which might be of general Benefit, be " procurable in your Country, let them be " fent. For a further Confirmation of our " Friendship, and securing the Foundation " of Affection and Unity, I have fent my " trusty Friend the Learned and Honour-" able Seyd Mazuffer, + whom I have par-

† I am not certain if this Letter, and the Embassiador went any further than Goa; but it is well known, that upon this Occasion, one Geronimo Xavier, a Jesuit, was directed to learn the Persian Language, and sent to the Moghol's Court. This Letter I translated from the 1st Tome of Abul Fazl's Collection of Letters.

D "ticularly

communicate feveral Things personally

"to you, in which confide. Always keep

" open the Doors of Correspondence and

"Embassy; and Peace to him who follows the Guide.

"Written in the Month * Ribbi al"avul, 990.

Akbar died at Agra on Tuesday, 13 October 1605, aged Sixty-three Solar Years and one Day; having reigned Forty-nine Solar Years, eight Months, and one Day. His Body was interr'd in the Burying-place of Secandra, near that City,

He had three Sons,

Sultan Selim; + afterwards Jehangutr.
Sultan Morad, + who died by excessive
Drinking in the Year 1598, in Deccan.

* April, 1582.

المابع Selim, which is a proper Name for Men, fignifies, peaceful, fafe, fecure; and سلبعه Selima is a proper Name for Women, of the fame Signification.

† مراد به Morad fignifies wifhed for, defired; being derived from اراده Eradih, the Will.

Sultan

of the Moghol Emperors. 19
Sultan Daniel, who died by the like Debauch in the said Province in the Year 1604.

And three Daughters,

Shahzadah Khanum.* Shakr Nisja Begum.+ Aram Banu Begum.‡

Nour | o'dîn Mahommed Jehanguîr,

Son to Jilal o'din Mahommed Akbar, was born at Fattehpour  (formerly called Sikri) شاهزاده خانم * Shahzada Khanum, the Royal Lady; شاهزاده 8hahzada fignifying royally born, and خانم Khanum, Lady.

† المكرنسا Shakrniffa, the sweetest of Women, with the Addition of يبك Begum, which signifies, Princess.

أرام بانو بيكم Aram Banu Begum, fignifies the calm and peaceful Princess.

أور الدين Nour o'din, the Light of Religion, and خور الدين Fehanguir, the Conqueror of the World, which Titles Sultan Selim assumed, when he became Emperor.

Fattehpour, fignifies the Place of Victory.

which

which is twelve Coss * distant from Agra, on the 19th August 1569, and called Sultan Selim. On the 21st October 1605, being then aged about 36 Solar Years, he sat on the Throne at Agra, and took to himself the Title and Name of Nour o'din Mahommed Jehanguir.

After a Reign of twenty two Solar Years and fix Days (the last eight of which he had been afflicted with an Asthma) he died at Chingarhisti, being then on his Return from Cashmar to Labor, on the 27th of October 1627, aged fifty eight Solar Years, one Month, and twenty nine Days. His Body was carried to Labor, and there interr'd.

He was a weak Prince, and too much overruled by the beautiful Nour Jehan + (or Nour Mahl) which made the last ten Years of his Reign

^{*} A Coss is the Measure they commonly go by in India, in computing Distances; they are of two Sorts. Jeribi, or measured, which are 4000 English Yards each; and Rismi or computed, which are from 2000 to 2500 Yards, according to the different Provinces. Those mentioned here, are the measured Coss.

^{*} نور جهان Nour Jehan, fignifies, the Light of the World. She was also called نور تحل Nour Mahl, or the Light of the Seraglio. She was Wife to one Sher Afkan Khan, of a Turkoman Family, who came from Persia Reign very uneasy to him, and unfortunate to the Empire. The Omras, who knew her Original, were resolved to oppose all her Schemes; but she persuaded the Emperor to break thro' all Rules, in Order to advance her Father, Brother, and other Relations to the highest Employments.

After his Death she endeavoured to secure the Empire for Shebriar, who was Jebanguir's Son by a Slave, and married to her Daughter by her First Husband Sher Afkan Khan*. But Asof Khan and Eradet Khan, as Sultan Khourm (who was Son-in-law to the former) was far off, and that the three Persia to Hindostan in very indifferent Circumstances. As she was exquisitely beautiful, of great Wit, and an elegant Poetes, Jehanguir was resolved to take her to himself. He sent her Husband, who was esteemed the bravest Man in the Service, with some Troops to command a Place in Bengal, and afterwards sent another with a greater Force to cut him off. When he was killed, Nour Jehan was soon prevailed upon to be an Empress. The Coins struck in Jehanguir's Reign, with the Signs of the Zediack, were not, as is generally thought in Europe, done by his Empress's Order, nor did she reign one Day, as the common Opinion is; but she ruled the Person who reigned, for above twelve Years.

[†] شبر افكي Sher Afkan fignifies, the Lyon Over-thrower.

young Princes his Sons, Dara Shekewh, Sultan Sujah, and Auringzehe, were in Naur Jehan's Hands, in order to disconcert her Scheme, and protrect the Time until he came, immediately proclaimed Sultan Davr Bukhsh (alias Bolaki) Son to Khofro, Emperor.

Jehanguir had Three Sons and Two Daughters by the following Empresses:

By the Daughter of Rajab Bovandass,* who poisoned herself in 1601. because the Emperor-did not take the same Notice of her Son as he did of Sultan Khourm, Sultana Nissa Begum, +born in 1586.

Sultan Khofro, ‡ Father to Sultan Davr Bukhsh or Bolaki, || born in 1587, He died in Confinement in the Year 1622.

- * Rajab, fignifies, Prince, in the Indian Language, and Rani, Princess.
- † المالند نسا Sukana Niffa, the Queen of Wo-
- Khosro, is the Name of one of the Persian Kings of the Kaian Dynasty, who was great and powerful, and has been since generally applied to any great or powerful Prince, and used as a proper Name in some Royal Families.

ارر بخش ا Davr Bukhfb, fignifies, Ged's Gift.

of the Moghol Emperors. 23 By the Daughter of Khojah Hossan, Sultan Parvéz*, born in the Year 1589.

By the Daughter of Rajab Kessoudass Rattor, Babar Banu Begum +, born in 1590.

By the Daughter of Rajab Oudefung, Sultan Khourm ‡, born in 1592, who succeeded his Father, and took to himself the Name of Shab Jehan.

Jehanguir had also Sultan Jehandar | and Sultan Shebriar § Twins by a Concubine, born in 1605; which last being Nour Jehan's Son-in-law, she endeavoured to secure the Empire to him: But on Shab Jehan's Accession to the Throne in 1627, he and Bolaki, with Sultan Daniel's Three Sons, Persians, it fignifies victorious. In the Pebluvi Language, it signifies Fish, and some imagine its added to Khosro's Name, because he had a great liking to Fish. Others say, that Khosro Parvez signifies the powerful and victorious King.

† بهام باتو Bahar Banu, the blooming Princess. عبار باتو Sultan Khourm, the joyful Prince.

آجهان دار الم Jehandar, the Possessor of the World.

$ مهان دار الم Shehriar, the Friend of the City.

A Short History Gurstasp*, Teyomars, and Hoishung were put to Death.

Shahabo'dîn Mahommed Shahjehan ||

Third Son to Nour o'din Mahommed, Jehanguir was born on Wednesday, the 5th January, 1502, and fat on the Throne in Agra, the 1st February, 1628, being then Thirty fix Solar Years and Twenty-eight Days Old. On the 29th March, 1647, being the 20th Year of his Reign, he removed the Seat of his Empire from Agra + to Debli, calling it Shabjebanabad; where on the Banks of the River Chun he built a noble Castle and Palace, with Gardens and other Conveniencies.

* Gurstasp, Teyomars, and Hoisbung, are ancient Persic proper Names of Men.

Shahab o'din, the bright Star of شهاب الدبي ∥ Religion, and شاة جهان Shab Jehan, the King of the World, were the Titles Sultan Khourm assumed on his Accession to the Throne.

† اکبر اباد Agra, is often called اکبر الباد Akbarabad or Akbar's Habitation, he having kept his Court there, as دهلي Debli, is called دهلي Sbab Jeban abad, or Shah Jehan's Habitation.

which

which cost above fifty Lacks ‡ of Rupees. After a successful, and, till then, happy Reign of Thirty Solar Years, Four Months and Eighteen Days, he was first confined by his eldest Son Sultan Dara Shekowh, and at last deposed by his Third Son Sultan Auringzebe, and confined in the Castle of Agra, where he died on Sunday the 21st of January, 1666, aged Seventy-sour Solar Years and sixteen Days; being, all the Time of his Confinement, attended by his beloved Daughter Jehan Ara Begum. His Body was interred at Agra, in the magnificent Monument he caused to be erected for his Empress Mebd Alia, ‡ and which had cost Sixty

† A Lack of Rupees is 12,500 L. and 50 Lacks is 625,000 L. A Rupee is the Silver Coin struck in the Moghol's Mints, with an Inscription of his Name and Titles, the Year of his Reign, and the Place it was Brack at. It weighs from 7 dw. 10½gr. to 7 dw. 11gr. and has from 1 to 2 Parts in 100 Allay. 100,000 is one Lack, 100 Lacks are one Crore, and 100 Crores are one Arrib.

* Some People suspected he had a cri minal Converlation with his own Daughter, long before his Confinement.

Taage Mabl, or the Crown of the Seraglio.

Lacks tof Rupees. The Empire flourished exceedingly in his Time, comprehending no less than Twenty-three Provinces, the Names and Yearly Revenues of each as follows:

				Ĺ.
$oldsymbol{Debli}$	100 K	rores of	Dams*a	are 3,125000
Agra	90	-	-	2,812500
Lahor	90	-	-	2,812500
Ajmîr	60	`	_	1,875000
Dowlataba	ad 55	-	-	1,718750
Berar	55	-		1,718750
Guzerat	5 3	-	-	1,656250
Bengal	50	-	-	1,562500
Alebabad	40	-	•	1,250000
Bahar	40	-	-	1,250000
Malva	40	-	-	1,250000
Khandeish	40	-	-	1,250000
Audib	30	-	-	937500
Multan	28	-	-	875000
				-
	7 7 I			24,093750

^{‡ 60} Lacks of Rupees are 750,000 L.

Odissea.

^{*} A Dam, which is the fortieth Part of a Rupee, and only imaginary, is what the Land Revenues are computed by. A Rupee is 2 s. 6 d. Sterling.

The Five last Provinces were added to the Empire by him.

Buglana

880

The Number of his Forces, as they were paid out of the Revenues in 1647, amounted to 911,400, Horse and Foot.

He had several Children, as follows:

By the Empress Mebd Alia, Daughter of Asof Khan, whose First Name was Arjumund Banu Begum, Seven Sons and Four Daughters.

Hur

62500

1. 27,500,000-

^{*} ارجمند بانو Arjumund Banu, the noble Puincesis

1612
1614
1615
1616
1617
1618
1620 1622
1624
1627
1628

Those mark'd with an Asterism died before their Father was deposed.

- ^a حور النسا Hur al nissa, the most angelick of Women.
 - b إدا على Jehan ara, the Ornament of the World.
 - " Lara Shekowh, in Pomp like Darins. دارا شعكوة
 - Sujah, Valiant, endued with Fortitude.
 - Roishin rai, of an enlightned Mind.
- أورنك زبيب Auring-zebe, the Ornament of the Throne.
 - امبد بخش Amead Bukhfh, the Giver of Hopes.
- أثريا بانو Suria Bana, the fining Princess. Suria literally fignifies the Pleiades.
- ا مراد بخش Morad Bukh/h, the Giver of Defires or Wishes.
 - k اطف الله Loutf Allah, the Favour of God.
 - Dowlat Afra, Increase of Fortune.

of the Moghol Emperors.

By a Daughter of Maxuffer Hossein Mirza, Grandson to Shah Ismuel, King of Perfia, One Daughter, Parbéz Banu Begum * born in 1611.

Mohy to'Dîn Mahommed Aurinzebe, Third Son to Shah Jehan, was born the 22d of October, 1618. In the latter End of 1656, Sultan Dara Shekowh, endeavouring to posses himself of the Empire, confined his Father Shah Jehan, which Auringzehe having Notice of, begun to make Preparations; and giving out that it was with a Design of securing the Throne to his Brother Morad Bukhsh, then at Ahmedahad, the wrote to him to set out with his Forces and join him at Eugene, which is the Capital of the Province of Malva.

پرهيز بانو * Parhez banu, signifies the abstinent Princesi.

† When Auring-zebe became Emperor, he assumed the Titles of عني الدبن Mohy o' din, the Reviver of Religion, and عناه عناه عناه المالية Alumguir, the Conqueror of the World.

f sujerat, fo called from Sultan Abmed, who was King of that Province, and kept his Court in that City. It is 244 measured Coss distant from Debli.

ارجين ال Eugene is 126 measured Coss from Agra.

On the 4th of February, 1658, he marched from Auringabad* in Deccan, with 25000 Horse, his Son Sultan Mabommed, having set out before him, the 24th of January the preceeding Month. Both the Brothers join'd at Eugene, near which Place they encounter'd and defeated the Mabarajab + Fessiont Sung, and Kaffum Khan, who were fent by Dara Shekowh to oppose them. After which they marched towards Debli, and in the Fields of Kejoub, near Agra, gave a total Overthrow to the Army of Sultan Dara Shekowh, who fled towards Lahor; upon which Auringzebe enter'd the Castle of Agra. and on the 20th of July, 1658, he fat on the Throne, and was proclaim'd Emperor اورند اياد المائي Auringahad, the Capital of the Province of Dowlat Abad, which is 265 measured Coss distant from Debli. Auring-zebe had it so called after his own Name.

[†] Maharajah signisses the great Prince; Maha being great or mighty in the Sanskerrit or Bramin's Language. This Title is given by the Moghol to the Rajahs of Marwar of the Rattor Family. The Capital of their Country is Juhapore, which is 176 Coss distant from Dehli. The Rajpouts of Marwar are esteemed the best Soldiers in India.

fined his Brother Morad Bukbsh, notwithstanding he had swore by the Koran to be true to him.

Having taken Possession of Debli, he sent his Father from thence to be confined at Agra; + and on Sunday the 2d of January, 1659, he set out for Bengal, where, at a Place called Kuvra, he deseated his Brother Sultan Sujah, and obliged him to sly.

On the 15th of May, 1659, being then aged Forty Solar Years, Six Months, and 23 Days, he sat on the Throne, and was proclaimed a Second Time, and ordered that for the suture, the Beginning of his Reign should be dated from the first Ramazan, in the Year 1069 of the Hegira, or the 12th of May, 1659.

Sultan Dara Shekowh being taken Prisoner, was brought in Triumph to Debli, and sent to Khesrahad, ‡ where he was murder'd by Auringzehe's Order, the Night of the 28th of August, 1659.

^{*} عزاباد Eazabad is 2½ measured Coss distant from Debli.

[†] Agra is 44 measured Coss distant from Debli. ‡ غضر Khefrabad is 52 measured Coss from Debli.

The 14th of fanuary, 1661, he fent his own Son Sultan Mahommed, and Suliman Shekowb, Son to Dara Shekowb, to be confined in the Castle of Gualiar. †

In 1664, going against the Rajpouts, ‡ his Son Sultan Mahommed Akbar revolted from him, and joined them. Auringzebe pursued him to Deccan, from whence he found Means to get by Sea to Persia.

During his Reign, which was about 50 Lunar Years, he was constantly in the Field. He conquered Vijapore, from Secander and Hyderabad, from Sultan Abul Hossan, besides several other Territories and strong Holds in Deccan; having twice taken the + واليار Gualiar is 28 Coss from Agra.

| Vijapore, or Bijapore, as pronounced by the Moghols, is 357 measured Coss from Dehli.

famous

^{*} المبان شكوة Suliman Shekowh fignifies, august as Solomon.

[†] The Rajpouts are the most warlike of the Indians. There are several Tribes of them, all Subjects to those Rajahs or Indian Princes, who are in a manner independent of the Moghol.

[§] Hyderabad, which was formerly called Bhagnagur, is 371 Miles distant from Debli. There is a Castle in this Province, called Golconda, by which Name the whole Province is chiefly known in Europe.

of the Moghol Emperors. 33 famous Seva Rajab,* who as often found Means to make his Escape.

The Revenues of the Empire were greatly increased in his Time, for excluding Balkb, Kandabar and Biddukhshan, which Shah Jehan possess'd, and were afterwards lost, there was a Revenue of 12071876840 Dams, which (at 320 Dams to a Pound Sterling is 37,724,615 l. i from the Twenty-one following Provinces:

* The present Sahou Rajah, who keeps his Court at Settana in Deccan, is a Descendant of this Seva Rajah. He is Prince of the Maharattas, or Ganims, who have of late Years acquired a surprizing Power, making great Inroads into the Moghol's Territories, and levying a Tribute from several Provinces. They have lately taken the Island of Salset, the Castle and Town of Baraim, with other Places, from the Portugueze. They have above 200,000 Horse in the Northern, Southern, and Inland Provinces.

The

The Nineteen old Soubahs 9 or Provinces.

		-
Names.	Capital.	Revenue in Dams.
Debli	Debli	1221950137
Agra	Agra	1146760157
Ajmîr	Ajmîr	652345362
Alebabad	Alebabad	456543248
Panjab	Labor	826132107
Audib	Audib	322327829
Multan	Multan	214442936
Cabul	Cabul	161039354
Cashmîr	Srinagr	229911397
Guzerat	Abmedabad	607849135
Babar	Patna	407161000
Scind	Tatta	91816810
Dowlatabad	Auringabad	1034945100
Makva	Eugene	403901658
Berar	_	614025000
K handeish	Brampore	448630000
Bedr	Zafferabad	372974370
Bengall	Dacca	524636240
Odissea		142820000
		9880211840

الموبع دار Soubah fignifies a Province, and سوبع دار Soubah dar, the Lord Lieutenant of a Province.

The

of the Moghol Emperors. 35 Carried over 9880211840 The Two New Soubahs,

Hyderabad Hyderabad F113360000 Vijapore Vijapore 1078305000

At 320 Dams per l. are 37,724,615 l. 2s. 6d.

On Friday, the 21st of February, 1707, Auringzebe died at Abmednagur, in the Province of Dowlatabad, aged Ninety Lunar Years and 14 Days, having reign'd about Fifty Lunar Years. He was buried there in the Place of Shab Zen al din.+

* Ahmednagur is distant from Dehli 280 measured Coss.

fignifies the Ornament of Religion; and Shah, which fignifies King, is a Title frequently given to Derveishes. This Zen al din was a remarkable Santon, who kept his Cell near that City, and was buried there; which being reckoned a fanctified Place, Auring-zebe, in his Will, directed he should be interred there. As this Prince was very zealous, or at least pretended to be so, for Mahommedanism, those of that Religion make a great Merit of visiting his Tomb, especially on the 28th of the Month Zeecadib, which was the Day he died on.

2 At

At the Time of his Death, his Third Son Azem Shab was with him, and his Second Son Mahommed Mauzm, at Cabul.* He had left a shortWill; of which, for the Satisfaction of the Curious, I shall here give a Translation.

A Translation of Auringzebe's last Will.

- " I Came empty-handed into the World, and empty-handed I quit it. Who-
- " ever of my fortunate Children shall
- " chance to rule the Empire, let him not
- " molest Mahommed Kambukbsh, + should he
- " rest contented with the Two New Sou-
- " bahs ‡.
 - "There cannot be a better Vizir than Emir
- " al Omra.
 - " Let all the King's Servants be true and
- " faithful to Mahommed Azem Shab.
 - * Cabul is 266 measured Coss from Debli.
 - + Mahommed Kambukhsh, Auring-zebe's fifth Son.
- † The two new Soubabs are Vijapere and Heyderabads fo called, as being lately conquered by Auring. zebe.
- I low Emîr al Omra, which fignifies the Princes of Princes, is the Title generally given to the Mir. Bukhhi, or Paymaster-General and Treasurer.

" Whoever

of the Moghel Emperors. 37

"Whoever shall chance to have the " Empire, let him not turn out or molest

" those born or bred up in my House.

" If the Division I formerly made proves

" agreeable to my Children, it will prevent

" a great deal of Confusion and Bloodshed.

"There are two imperial Seats, Agra and

" Delbi; whoever settles in Agra may

" have the Province thereof, Deccan, Malva

" and Guzerat.

" And who resides at Debli may have

" Cabul and the other Provinces.

" I came naked into the World, and naked?

" I go out of it. Let no Enfigns or Royal

" Pomp accompany my Funeral; let Ha-

" mid o'din Khan, who is faithful and trusty,

" convey my Corps to the Place of Shah

" Zen al din, and make a Tomb for it, in

" the fame Manner as is done for Derveishes:

" let not my fortunate Children give them-

" felves any Concern about a Monument,

"There is in my private Treasury 57382

"Rupees, t let a 1000 Rupees & be distri-?

" buted among the Poor at my Funeral.

* The Tombs for Derveishes are made low and plain, without any manner of Ornament.

† 7172 l. 15 s § 125 l.

Auringzebe

Auringzebe had Five Sons:

Sultan Mahommed,

Mahommed Mauzm, who succeeded his Father in the Empire,

Mahommed Azem, b

Mahommed Akhar, c

Mahommed Kambukhsh.d

Dara Shekowb had Two Sons:

Suliman Shekowh, 9

Sepeb Shekowb. f

Sultan Sujab had Two Sons:

Zen al din Mahommed, 8. Bullind Akhter, h

Morad Bukhsh had one Son:

Iesd Bukbsh. i

- معظم Mauzm signifies great, glorious.
- b Azem signifies the fame,
- أكبر Akbar, is the Comparative Mood of اكبر Kobîr, great.
 - d Kambukhsh, the Giver of Desires or Wishes.
- ود ع Suliman Shekowb, august or in Pomp like Solomon.
 - sepeh Shekowh, of military Pomp.
 - قرين الدين Zen al din, the Ornament of Religion.
- h بلند اختر Bullind Akhter, of high Stars, or great
 - برد بخش Iesd Bukhsh, God's Gift.

KOTEB,

Koteb * o'dîn Bahadr Shah,

Upon Auringzebe's Death, Azem Shab, with his Father's Troops, fet out from Deccan towards the Capital, as did also Mahommed Mauzm from Cabul, in order to decide their Fortunes in Battle. On the Banks of the River Chun, near Agra, both Armies encountered. They were by far the most numerous that for feveral Ages had come together in India. Mahommed Mauzm having 150,000 Horse and 178,000 Foot, exclufive of the Auxiliaries furnished by the Rajabs; and the other Brother nigh as many. In short, Azem Shah's Forces were defeated, and himself killed. Mahommed Mauzm was proclaimed Emperor, taking to himself the Title of Koteb o'din Bahadr Shab. and Shah Alum. He made Mahommed Khan his

Vizir;

^{*} Sultan Mahommed Mauzm, on his Accession to the Throne, assumed the Titles of قطب الدبن Koteb al din, the Axis of Religion, قطب Bahadr Shah, the valiant King, and شاء عالي Shah Alum, the King of the World. Notwithstanding قطب Koteb signifies only the Pole or Extreme Part of the Axis, yet it is used here to signify the Whole.

Vizir; Zulfecar Khan his Mir Bukhshi, or Paymaster-General; Daud Khan, Sonbahdar, or Lord-Lieutenant of the Provinces of Deccan; and Assau Absolute Agent, whom leaving to take Care of the Capital, he went himself against his Brother Kambukhsh, who had left Vijapore, and settled at Hyderabad; where, after some little Resistance, he was taken Prisoner, and died that same Night of of his Wounds.

Bahadr Shab went afterwards to Lahor to fuppress some religious Riots, and died shortly after, having reign'd about Six Years.

He had Four Sons,

Mauz o'din,² called also Jehandar Shah.b Mahommed Azîm,^c Azîm Al Shan.d Raffeeih al Kaddr,^c Raffeeih al Shan.f Khojista Akhter, ^g Jehan Shah.h

- مع الدين " Mauz o'din, fignifies the Honour or Glory of Religion.
- - د ميلت Azim, signifies great.
 - طيم الشأن المان مظيم الشأن الشأن الشأن الشأن الشأن الشأن المان الشأن المان الشأن المان ال
 - e رقبع القدر, Raffeeih al Kadr, of exalted Power.
 - f رفيع الشان Raffeeih al Shan, of exalted Rank.
 - لانتر اختر Khojista Akhter, of happy Stars.
 - أ جهان شاء على أله على أله الله Jehan Shab, King of the World.

His

His Brother Sultan Mahommed Azem had Two Sons,

Mahommed Bedår Bukht, a

Mahommed Wallah Jah. b

His Brother Sultan Mahommed Kambuksh had One Son.

Iesdan Bukhsh, c called also Rahman Bukhsh, whose Daughter has been lately married to. Nesr allah Mirza, e Nadir Shah's Son.

JEHANDAR SHAH.

Jehandar Shab, Jehan Shab, and Raffeeib. al Shan, Sons to Bahadr Shab, having joined against their Brother Azim al Shan, defeated and killed him. His Treasure falling into the Hands of Zulfecar Khan, who was in Jehandar Shah's Interest, they marched against the other two Brothers, Jehan Shab and Raffeeib al Shan, and having overcome them, put them to Death. Their Deaths عبداء خت Bedâr Bukht, whose Fortune is awake.

ألا جاء Wallah Jah, of august Rank.

د بندان بخش lesdan Bukhsh, God's Gift.

Rahman Bukhsh, the Gift of the Merciful.

أصر الله " Nefr Allab, fignifies, affifted by God.

secured the Empire to Jehandar Shah, and Zulfecar Khan became his Vizir.

He was a weak Prince, and so foolishly fond of one of his Wives, called Lal Koar, who was of an obscure mean Parentage, and a Singer by Profession, that he endeavoured to fill the Places of the greatest Trust and Honour in the Empire with her base Relations, which so disgusted Seyd Abdallah Khan and Seyd Hossan Khan, two Brothers of great Authority in the Empire, and who had a Body of choice Troops, that they resolved to place Mahommed Furrukhsir (Son to Azim al Shan, then at Bengal) on the Throne. This Prince, notwithstanding he had but little Treasure, got Numbers to join him. At first he defeated Eaz o'din, * Jehandar Shab's Son; and afterwards Jehandar Shab himself (thro' his People's Treachery and. Cowardice) was defeated near Agra, and obliged to fly, tho' he had near 100,000 Horse and Foot.

Jehandar Shah had one Son: Eaz o' din.
Azim al Shan had one Son:

Mahommed Furrukhsir. ||

^{*} قري الدين Eaz o' dîn, fignifies the Glory of Religion فرخسير ا Furrukhsîr, fignifies of happy Disposition.

Raffeeib

of the Moghol Emperors.

43

Raffeeib al Shan had Three Sons:

Raffeeib al Dirjat,*

Raffeeib al Dowlat, + and Sultan Ibrahim.

Jehan Shah had One Son:

Mahommed Shab, who is the present Emperor.

MAHOMMED FURRUKHSIR,

Son to Azîm al Shan, being settled on the Throne, Seyd Abdallah Khan was made Vizir, with the Title of Koteb al Muluck ‡ and Iar ba Vafa. And Hossan Ali Khan made Mîr Bukhshi or Paymaster-General, with the Title of Emir al Omra.

The Emperor was only so by Name; for these two had the absolute Management of every Thing. Furrukhsir, at last, with the Advice, and at the Instigation of Khandoran and Mir Jumla, began to contrive Means to ^{*} ونبع الدرجان Raffeeih al Dirjat, of exalted Degree.

[†] رفبع الدو لت Raffeeib al Dowlat, of exalted Fortune.

[‡] قطسياللله تطمياللله Koteb al Muluck, the Axis of the Empire, and إرياونا Iar ba vafa, the grateful Friend.

[|] Imir al Omra, the Prince of Princes.

cut off the two Brothers. They, on the other Hand, were intent on nothing so much as enriching themselves. They turned out Nizam al Muluck* (Ghazi o' din Khan's + Son) from his Government of Deccan, and Hossan Ali Khan went thither himself. At last, the two Brothers finding the Emperor grew jealous of their Power, resolved to remove him, and put a more passive Prince in his Stead. Having got Ajeet Sang the Maha Rajah (whose Daughter § was married

- * نظام اللك Nizam al Muluck, is a Title fignifying be who arranges and puts in Order the Empire. His first Name was جين قلبے خات Chin Kuleejb Khan, which in the Tartar Language, fignifies, the Sword-drawing Lord. Some People, by Corruption, pronounce it Chucklas Caun.
- † غاري الدين Ghazi o' din, fignifies the Champion of Religion. Nizam has also a Son called by the Grandfather's Name Ghazi o' din Khan, who has lately got the Title of ناصر جنالت Nasr Jing, which signifies victorious in War.
- § It is a Custom with the Moghol Emperors to make Alliances with the Indian Rajahs or Princes, by marrying their Daughters, who, as soon as they are taken into the Harram or Seraglio, are converted to Mahommedanism, by pronouncing in Arabic these Words, There is but One God, and Mahommed his Prophet, and learning a sew Prayers.

on the 16th of February, 1719, offering him a Thousand Indignities and Insults, put him to Death, after a Reign of Seven Years.

"Twas in this Emperor's Reign that the English East-India Company obtained a Firmân * exempting them from paying any Duties in his Dominions, of which I have here subjoined a Translation.

- 'ALL GOVERNORS, People in 'Offices, Jaguirdars, + Fojhdars, ‡ Croris,
- * فرمان Firmân, signifies literally an Order, but it is used for a Patent or Grant from the Emperor.
- the one is preferred to be a manfubdar, or Commissioned Officer, by the Moghol, he cither pays him out of the Treasury, or else allots him as much Lands in some of the Provinces, as the Salary and Wages of his man Mansub, or Post, comes to. The Lands so alloted are called the faguir, and the Officer who receives the Revenues as his Pay, is called the faguirdar.

‡ Fajhdars are Officers who have the Command of a Body of Horse, and take Care of the Suburbs of a City, and the Out-parts.

| Croris are those Officers who collect the Revenues of the several Villages, and often farm them of the Lord Lieutenant of the Province, or of the Jaguirdar.

Rahadars,

- · Rahadars,* Gouzirbans, + and Zemidars, ‡
- ' who are at present and shall be hereafter in
- the Soubab || of Ahmedabad, and in the
- ' fortunate Port of Surat, and Cambay, being
- ' in hopes of the Royal Favour. KNOW,
- ' That at this Time of Conquest which
- carrys the Enfign of Victory, Mr John
- Surman and Khojab Serbad, Factors to the
- " English, have represented, by the Means
- of those who stand on the Steps of the high
- 'Throne, "That Customs on English
- "Goods all over the Empire are pardoned,
- " except at the Port of Surat; and that at
- " the faid Port, from the Time of the
- * Rabadars are those who have the Charge of the High-ways.
- + Gouzirbans are they who collect Duties on the High-roads.
- أرمين أرمين Zemidars, are the Rajahs or Indian Princes, &c. who have free Estates, and a Tract of Land at their own Command, only paying a small Acknowledgement to the Great Moghol. This Name is composed of جمين Zemin, Land, and دار Dar, a Possessor.
 - Soubah fignifies a Province.
- § Mr. John Surman, an English Gentleman, and Khojah Serhad, an Armenian, were the principal Perfons sent from Bengal to the Moghol's Court, to sollicit for this Grant,

" Emperor

" Emperor who is pardoned t, whose Place " of Rest is Eternal, Shahab o' din Shah " Jehan, 2 per Cent was settled as Customs, " From the Time of him who has approach, " ed the Most Merciful, whose Place is " everlasting, Moby o' din Mahommed Au-" ringzebe Alumguîr, 3 per Cent. was apopinted, and in other Places none molested "them on this Account. And in the Time " of the Emperor who is pardoned, whose " Place of Repose is Heaven, surrounded " with the Favour of the Almighty, whose " Rank is most Sacred, Abul Mazuffer * " Bahadr Shah, 22 per Cent. was settled, " and is in Force until now: By Reason of " the Oppressions the Muttefiddis + there, 'tis three Years fince they have withdrawn " their Factory. In the Soubabs of Bahan " and Odiffea, this Nation pays no Customs, " and in the Port of Hugly, in the Province

† This is a fofter Kind of Expression used by the Mahommodans in mentioning deceased Persons.

" of Bengal, they Yearly give Three || Thou-

* ابو الظفر Abul Mazuffer, fignifies the Father of Victory.

† Muttesiddis are the King's Officers.

| 375 /.

" fand

" fand Rupees Peishcush sin Lieu of Customs &

" they are in hopes that, according to the "Custom of other Ports, in the Port of

" Surat likewise, a Yearly Peishcush may be

" fettled in Lieu of Customs; they agree to

a Yearly Peishcush of Ten || Thousand

" Rupees.

'The ORDER that subjects the World

· to obey it, and which must be strictly follow'd, is iffued forth: That fince they

' agree to Ten Thousand Rupees Peishcush

e at the Port of Surat, take it Yearly, and besides that molest them on no Account:

And what Goods or Effects their Factors

bring or carry away by Land or Water, to and from the Ports of the Provinces, and other Parts, looking upon them to be

'Custom-free, let them buy and sell at

' their Pleasure; and if in a Place any of ومن Peiscush, which literally signifies, presented, or drawn before, is the Term for a Present from an Inserior to a Superior; as are also these Words, افظر Nazr, presented to View, خران Gouzran, laid before, &c. And whatever Superiors give to their Inseriors, which is generally Robes, Arms, Horses, Elephants, &c. is called a Khalaet and Sirrapah; and if Money, an Enam.

| 1250 l.

" their

- their Effects should be stol'n, use your
- utmost Endeavours to recover them, de-
- ' livering the Robbers to Punishment, and
- the Goods to the Owner; and wherever
- they fettle a Factory, or buy and fell
- Goods, be affifting to them on all just Oc-
- casions: and whomsoever of the Mer-
- ' chants, &c. they may have a just De-
- mand on by Accounts; according to Equity,
- ' give the English their Due, and let no
- ' Person injure their Factors. They have
- ' likewise humbly represented, " That the
- " Duans * in the Provinces may demand the
- " Original Sinnid, t or a Copy with the
- " Nazem or Duan's ! Seal affixed; to pro-
- "duce the Original in every Place is im-
- " practicable; they are in hopes that a Copy
- " under the Kazzi's || Seal shall be credited,
- * The Duans are the Seconds or Deputies to the Lord Lieutenants of Provinces, and Governors of Cities. They are the General Accomptants, and the Revenues go through their Hands.
 - + wim Sinnid, fignifies, a Grant or Patent.
- 1 Nazem is the Governor, or Person who acts for him.
- Kazzi, or, as some pronounce it, Cadi, is the judge, who, among the Mahommedans, decides

" and they not demand the original Sinnid, or molest them on Account of a Copy with the Nazem or Duan's Seal: And in the Island of Bombay, belonging to the English, where Portugueze* Coins are Current, that according to the Custom of Chinapattan, † the fortunate § Coins all Causes; he being generally a Person of the greatest Repute and Learning, a Copy attested by him is thought sufficiently authentick.

* As the Island of Bombay (which was made over to the English in King Charles the Second's Time) belonged first to the Portugueze, their Coins passed surrent there, until the English Enst India Company had the Privilege of coining Rupees.

† Chinapattan is Madrass, or Fort St. George, on the Cormandel Coast, where the English did coin Rupees.

Shy the Fortunate Coins (which they call Asia Sakeh Mobarek) are meant Silver and Gold Rupees, which last they call About Mehr, or Sun, and ought to weigh 7 dw. 3½ gr. and are in Value equal to 12 Silver Rupees weighing 7 dw. 10½ gr. each. The Infeription on this present Emperor's Money is, The Fortunate Coins of the valiant Emperor Mahommed Shah, in the Year struck at in the Year of the glorious Reign. The first and last Blank are for the Year of the Hegira and Reign, and the Second for the Name of the Place.

 may be firuck; and that whoever of the " Company's Servants being in Debt, runs

" away, may be fent to the Chief of the " Factory; and that on Account of the

" Fojhdari," and the other forbidden Arti" cles (by which Means the Company's

Factors and Servants are vex'd and dif-

" couraged) they be not molested.

'The strict and high ORDER is isfued forth that a Copy under the Kazzi's Seal be credited, and that in the Island of 6 Bombay, fortunate Coins, struck according to the Custom of the Empire, be current;

and whoever of the Company's Servants, being indebted, runs away, let him be taken and delivered to the Chief of the Factory, and let them not be molested on

* As the Fojbdar is the Person who has the Command of the Suburbs and Out-parts, where it is chiefly that intoxicating Liquors are allowed to be sold, and disorderly Houses kept, he used to take up Sailors, and other Europeans, whom he found there, and not release them without a Sum of Money, which created the Chiefs of the Factories, and the Company's Servants, a deal of Trouble. This Article in the Firmân is to redress that Grievance, and suffer them to pass Wines, and other Liquors and Necessaries, without any Molessaries.

H 2 'Account

' Account of the forbidden Articles. " They " have likewise represented, that in Bengal, " Bahar and Odissea, the Company have "Factories, and that they are willing to " fettle in other Places. They are in hopes " that wherever they fettle, Forty Vingas | " of Ground may be graciously bestowed on " them by the Emperor; and that their " Ships fometimes, by Reason of Tempests, " run ashore, and are wreck'd, the Governors " of the Ports do in an oppressive Manner " feize the Goods, and in some Places de-" mand a quarter Part." ' The Royal Ogder is issued forth, that they act according to the Customs of the Factories in other Provinces, in regard to this Nation (who have Factories in the Imperial Ports, and ' Dealings at Court, and have miraculously obtained a Firman exempting them from " Customs.) Take Care in a just Manner of · the Goods of their Ships that are wreck'd or have lost their Passage, and in all Assairs ' act according to this Great Order, and demand not a new Grant Yearly.

' this

¹ A Vinga is somewhat less than the third Part of an Acre.

of the Moghol Emperors. 53
5 this be punctual, written on the 4th of 6 Safer * in the 5th Year of this Glorious 6 Reign.

On the back Part of the Firmân is the Vizir's Seal, with his Titles, as follows:

The Security of Fortune, and trust-worthy of the Empire,

Chief of the Omras of exalted Rank, Chosen among the Khans of the High Court,

Manager of the Empire and its Riches,
Director of its Fortune and Grandeur,
Master of the Sword and Pen,
Exalter of the Standard and Ensign,
Vizir of a true Judgment,
Of One Colour, (i. e. Ingenuous and Sincere)
Prop of the Empire,
Supreme Manager of its Affairs,
The Victorious General,
The grateful Friend, and Pattern for all Vizirs.

RAFFEEIH

^{*} January the 6th, 1716-7.

RAFFEEIH AL DIRJAT.

The Seyds after having made away with Furrukbfir, took Raffeeib al Dirjat, Son to Raffeeib al Shan, out of the Castle of Selimgur + where the Royal Family are confined, and placed him on the Throne. He had not reigned above Three Months, before they murdered him, and fending for his Brother

RAFFEEIH AL DOWLAT,

Placed him on the Throne, who in a few Days afterwards died a natural Death, and was succeeded by the present Emperor

Nasr o'dîn Mahommed Shah,

Son to Jehan Shah, who being raised to that Dignity by the Seyds, Hossan Ali Khan and + Selimgur, fignifies Selim's Castle, being built by a Prince of that Name.

Mahommed Shah, on being made Emperor, took to himself the Title of ناصر الدين Nasr o' din, which fignifies, the Supporter and Assister of Religion.

Abdallab

of the Moghol Emperors. 55
Abdallah Khan, they kept the Power so much in their own Hands, that he had nothing, except the Name of Emperor, which made him eagerly wish for an Opportunity of making himself independent, and revenging the Death of his Uncle's Son, Furrukhsar.

In October, 1720, Mahommed Shah, accompanied by Hossan Ali Khan, and several Omras*, set out from Agra with a numerous Army, in order to reduce Nizam al Muluck, who had grown very powerful in Deccan.

Having marched Nine measured Coss the First Day, the Emperor called a Divan that Night, and after a short Stay withdrew. As soon as he was gone, Mahommed Amin Khan, Heydr Kuli Khan, & Master of the Ordnance, Khandoran, and several others of the Omras, who were most attached to the Royal Family,

^{*} I Omra, is the Plural of Emir, which fignifies, Prince, and is a Title given to all the Nobility of the first Rank, in the Magbal's Empire, and in Tartary.

أولان المالية المالية Heydr Kuli, fignifies, the Slave of the Lion, حيدر قلي Heydr, which fignifies, a Lion, being one of the Appellatives given to Ali Mortifa, and قلي Kuli, in the Turkifb Language, fignifies, a Slave.

mily, drawing their Swords, fell on Hollan Ali Khan, and killed him with two or three of his Friends. Upon this Mabommed Shab laid afide that Expedition, and returned towards Debli, in order to cut off Seyd Abdallab Khan, the other Brother, who was in that Capital with a great Force; and who hearing of his Brother's Murder, had taken out Sultan Ibrabim, Son to Raffeeib al Shan, and proclaimed him Emperor. Gathering together what Treasure he could, and having broke to Pieces the famous Throne, (which cost Shab Jehan nine Crores & of Rupees) in order to pay his Soldiers, he foon compleated an Army of 50,000 Horfe, and marched out to engage Mahommed Shah, who had encamp'd at Serkad, which is Twelve Coss from Mbetra.

On the 2d of November, 1720, both Armies engaged; and after an obstinate and bloody Battle, Abdallab Kban's Forces were defeated, and himself desperately wounded and taken Prisoner.

The

[§] One Crore is Ten Millions. So that Nine Crores of Rupees, at 2 s. 6 d. each, amounts to 11,250000 l. Sterling.

The young Sultan, whom he had brought with him to countenance his Rebellion, being taken, had no other Punishment inflicted on him, but being fent back to his old Quarters the Castle of Selimgur.

Upon this Victory the Emperor made great Rejoicings, and appointing Mahommed Amin Khan Vizir: returned to Debli.

Abdallab 'Khan being brought before him, the Emperor faid to him, 'Traitor, fee " what thou hast done." To which he answered, 'I took you out of a Prison, and ' gave you an Empire. My Brother being murdered by your Order, as I was at the * Head of an Army, Self-prefervation directed me to make use of it; Providence decreed you the Victory, use it as you think proper, by treating this Clay as your Refentment or Interest may prompt you. Then the Emperor faid to him, 'What Harm had Furrukhsir done to you?' To which he answered: 'He grew jealous of mine and my Brother's Power, and as it was inconfishent with our Interest to resign it into his Hands, we thought it dangerous to lose any Time in removing him. Had Providence permitted us to have been fo prudent rudent hitherto, we should not have come to this tragical End. But when Fate defines one to Ruin, it begins by blinding

I

' the Eyes of his Understanding.' Then the King ordered him to be confined, and four Servants allowed to attend him, and faid,

As for the young Sultan he is not to blame;

' were he to be punished, it would distract

' his poor Mother; let him remain with

'her.'

Heydr Kuli Khan was in great Favour, and afterwards made Soubahdar * of Ahmedahad. Noufrit Ear Khan was made Soubahdar of Ajmir, Sir Bullind Khan was fent for from Cabul to be one of the Vizirs; and Khandoran was made Mir Bukhshi; with the Title of Emir al Omra §.

Furrukhsir's Mother desired that Abdallab Khan, the Murderer of her Son, might be delivered to her. Mahommed Shah sent her Word that it was unlawful to kill two Perfons for the Murder of one, and that Hossan Ali Khan was killed in Retaliation. He then ordered that Abdallah Khan should lodge in ^{*} Soubahdar is Lord Lieutenant of a Province.

[‡] Mir Bukhshi is Paymaster-General and Treasurer.

[§] Emir al Omra signifies the Prince of Princes.

the Palace of Afof al Dowlat, have a Pension of 3000 Rupees Monthly, thirty Houshold-Servants, seventy Menial Ones, with Provisions of all Kinds from the Royal Kitchen, sive Women to attend him, and proper Guards over him. He did not live long to enjoy this generous Allowance, dying a few Months afterwards of his Wounds. Five and Forty Women, most of them his Wives and Concubines, and some his near Relatitions, burnt ‡ themselves in one Room the Night after he died.

I 2

In

‡ In ancient Times, none but the Wives of the Brabmins (or Indian Priests) had the Privilege of burning themselves with their deceased Husbands: But since the Government fell into the Hands of the Rajpouts, 'tis customary, when any of their Princes die, for one or more of his Wives to be burnt with him. no Compulsion to this Sacrifice, as some People wrongly imagine; 'tis entirely of their own accord, and often they are diffuaded from it. Sometimes indeed, when a vain-glorious Passion prevails over natural Affection, the Widow's Relations would gladly have her burn, as it raises the Character of their Family, by making it remarkable for virtuous and loving Women. Yet, according to their Religion, 'tis more meritorious to behave chaftly and decently in their Widowhood, until Death, than burning; because one is but a short Pain, and the other a State of Trial. The Moghols have endeavoured.

In the Year 1721-2, the Emperor wrote to Nizam al Muluck, then at Descan, defiring his Presence at Court, and that he would appoint him Vizir; but if he declined it, he should nominate whomsoever he should judge to be the most deserving. To which he answer'd: "I am a Der-"veish, and not ambitious of so high a "Station. I was contented with the Pro-"vince of Malva, when the Seyds intending " to distress me, I was obliged to take Arms. "By the Divine Affistance I baffled their "Defigns, and fecured myself. " your Majesty, by their Instigation, set out " against me with a mighty Army. "the Almighty protected me likewise. In "the Beginning one of the Brothers was " killed; and as you knew me to be a deavoured to discourage this Custom as much as possible a but since Money is omnipotent in that Country, as well as in many others, a small Bribe generally purchases the Consent of the Governor, or Commanding Officer. Lately, the Seyd and Pattan Families, in several Parts of India, have, thro' their excessive Pride, got into this Custom; and as it is strictly forbidden by their Religion (which is the Mahommedan) they do it privately, by setting an Apartment on size about their Ears.

" faithful

"faithful Servant, you laid aside that Ex"pedition, and returned to Debli, where,
"being settled to the Satisfaction of all "People, you have now condescended to "distinguish me, the meanest of your Slaves,
"with this extraordinary Mark of your Fa"your which Longy decline as browning.

" vour; which I only decline, as knowing myself unequal thereto, and that there are " many about your Court more capable and

" defirous of fuch an Employment than I."

As Nizam would not come to Court, Mahommed Amîn Khan was continued Vizir, and after his Death, his Son Kummir o' aîn Khan * succeeded him in that Office, and enjoys it now.

Nizam continued at Deccan, as Soubadar of Vijapore, Hyderabad, Auringabad, &c. and tho' he acknowledged himself a Subject, yet made no Remittances to Court, but appropriated the Revenues to the maintaining of an Army, which he said was to keep in aw the Mabarattas or Ganims, the Sabou Rajab's Subjects in Deccan; whom notwithstanding he permitted to plunder and lay waste several of the King's Provinces. They imposed a Tribute of one quarter Part of the Revenues, which they call Chot, in many Places, and some Parts they have taken entirely to themselves. He well knew, that with the Mabarattas Assistance, he could defy any Attempts that could be made against him from Court. At last, in the Year 1738, the Mabarattas becoming very formidable, and Nadir Shab having besieged Kandahar, he was prevailed on to come to Court, as shall appear more particularly in the Sequel.

^{*} قور الدين Kummir o' dîn, signifies the Moon of Religion.

لندهار الله Kandahar, is distant from Dehli 358 meafured Cos, and from Isfahan 463. The State of Affairs in India before the Persian Invasion, with the Motives that induced Nadir Shah to undertake that Expedition.

daily in a worse Situation, and that thro' the Indolence of the Vizir, and his being entirely taken up with his Diversions, there was no Prospect of a Remedy; His Majesty resolved to send for Nizam al Muluck, who being one of Auringzebe's old Emirs +, and of great Experience, his Presence might give a new Turn to Affairs. Accordingly Orders were issued forth for his Appearance; in Compliance with which, leaving his Son Ghazi o'din Khan to command in Deccan, he came to Debli, where he met with a gracious Reception, was made Absolute Agent, which

^{*} The Great Moghol.

⁺ Emîr fignifies Prince or Commander, being the Name that the Nobility are distinguished by, the Plural of which is Omra.

64 The State of Affairs

is greater than Vizir, and honoured with the Title of Afof Jab . Khanderan, who is Bukhshi, or Paymaster-General, had the Emperor's Ear so much, that whatever he requested was granted, His Majesty being entirely governed in all His Actions by him. As Nizam al Muluck was for fettling Affairs upon the same Footing as they were in Auringzebe's Time, and proceeding in Regard to the Administration of Justice, according to Law, and as was done in the Reigns of former Emperors; whatever he requested on that Score was denied him, and all his new Schemes opposed and laugh'd at by the Om-He observing the Weakness of the Emperor, and the Diffoluteness of his Courtiers, who employed their Time in the Company of loose Women and Buffoons, waited on His Majesty, and framing an Excuse, told him the Affairs of his Province required his Prefence. On his Arrival at Deccan he entered into a Concert with Rajab Sabou, and contrived

[†] Afof Jah is a Title commonly given to Vizirs. It fignifies, in Place and Rank as Afof, whom, they fay, was Solomon's Vizir. At the fame Time that they homour their Vizirs with this Title, they flatter their own Vanity, by comparing themselves to Solomon.

trived it so, that Bajeerau | should march as far as Debli, and plunder and lay waste all before him; that, at length, the Emperor, and those about him, might be roused out of their Indolence, and be fenfible of their ill Conduct. The Mabarattas foon overrun the Province of Malva, killed Guerdir Babadr, the Governor thereof, and feized all his Treafure and Effects. After having laid waste and destroyed all the Country around, they returned to Deccan. As no Notice was taken at Court of these Inroads, next Year they marched towards Guzerat, where, notwithstanding the Inhabitants agreed to pay a quarter Part, " they plundered and distressed them in a fevere Manner: They also ravaged the Country round about Gualiar, which being near the Capital, the Court was alarmed, and Khandoran, with Kummir o'din Khan and other Omras, sent with a powerful - Army to chastise them; but these great Officers thought Peace the safest Measure,

A famous General of the Maharattas or Ganims, who is lately dead.

4

^{*} A Quarter Part of the Reyenues, which they call Chot, is the Tribute the Maharattas have endeavoured to impose on several Parts of India.

agreed to pay the Quarter Part, and returned Notwithstanding this Agreement, and the Money being paid, the Mabarattas did not spare those Places from being plundered, but even resolved to march as far as Agra to receive the Quarter Part for Dehli. aforesaid Officers set out again, and came to the City of Agra: A little before their Arival, the Mabarattas had croffed the River Jumna, with an Intent to march into Audib. the Province governed by Saadit Khan, who having Notice of their Design, march'd against them with a strong Body, and after an obstinate Engagement defeated them. took two of their principal Officers, and killed 5000 of their Men. With the Remains of their Army they marched to Feridabad, which is Ten Coss from Debli. Upon which Khandoran and the Vizir, being joined by Saadit Khan, went in pursuit of them: The Maharattas had left that Place Three Hours before the Omras Arrival, and marched towards Kalka, near Debli; which being a Place of Worship for that Day, the greatest Part of the Inhabitants had affembled there: They robb'd them of all they had, but spared their Lives; and knowing the City

City had but few Forces therein, they intended to plunder it; of which the Emperor being informed, he ordered Emir Khan and Hossan, with all the Companies belonging to the Train of Artillery, to go and op-They accordingly marched out, pose them. and after an Engagement of a few Hours, Hollan Khan was killed, and Emir Khan, with the rest of his Army, almost routed, and the Maharattas on the Point of entering the City, when the Vizir, who had outmarched the other two Omras, came to his Affistance; the Enemy was soon defeated. and put to Flight: The Vizir purfued them to Allaverdi Khan's Serai, + which is Seven Coss from Dehli, where coming up with them, and having no Inclination to fight, he fecretly made up Matters: Upon which they marched back to Deccan. Saadit Khan being somewhat puffed up with his own good Services, and incenfed at this shameful Compremise with the Ganims, marched towards

⁺ Serai, or Sera, fignifies any great Building or Palace. 'Tis the fame that, by Corruption, is in Europe called Seraglio, which may as properly be applied to any other Palace, as to that where the King's Family live. By prefixing the Word Caravan, it fignifies, a Building for the Reception of Travellers and Passengers. K 2 towards his own Province, without waiting on his Majesty; but the other Omras enter'de the City, and paid their Respects to him,

The Emperor was again inclined to fend for Nizam al Muluck, thinking that while he continued in Deccan he should be always in Fear of (or actually disturbed by) these Excursions of the Mabarattas. Mehr Parvir, his Grandmother, who had great Interest with Nizam, at his Request, wrote him a Letter, full of Affurances that he should have the entire Management of Affairs at Court, provided he came without Delay. He complied with her Request; but met with a worse Treatment than formerly, The Omras not only difregarded him, but took all Opportunities of affronting him, especially Khandoran and his Creatures, who, when he came to pay his Respects at Court, used to ridicule him, saying to each other, Observe bow the Deccan Monkey dances. This Usage having wrought him up to the highest Pitch of Resentment, he was resolved to revenge himself by distressing the Empire, and destroying Khandoran and his Creatures. Heimparted his Design to the Vizir, Kummir e'din Khan, imagining he would join with him.

him. But notwithstanding the Alliance between them (Nizam's Son being married tothe Vizir's Daughter, and the Vizir's Son to Nizam's Daughter) he could not engage him. to join in any Plot detrimental to the public Interest; on the contrary, he used his Endeavours to disfuade him therefrom, by representing to him the Infamy of sacrificing his Country to private Resentment. When Nizam perceived he would not come into his Measures, he applied himself to Saadit Khan, the Soubabdar of Audib, who then had a great Body of Men, was an Officer of Experience, and had lately raised his Reputation by his Action with the Maharattas; and, what was still more to his Purpose, had, since that Time, stood ill-affected towards the Emperor and Khanderan. Having entered into an Agreement, it was resolved that Nadir Shab, Ruler of Perfia, who then was besieging Kandabar, should be the Instrument to distress the Emperor, and remove Khandoran from amongst them.

But before I relate the treacherous Correspondence carried on between Nizam, Saadit Rhan and Nadir Shah, with the Invitation they

70 The State of Affairs

they gave bim to march towards Hindostan, which was the principal Motive thut encouraged bim to undertake that Expedition, I shall give a brief Account of the Life and Actions of this Famous Conqueror, who of late has made so much Noise in the World, which I had from a Gentleman who knew him personally, and was in Perfia during the Time of the Great Revolution which happened there; that is, from the Time the Afghans invaded Persia, and Mahmud Khan, the Son of Mîr Vaez, took the Capital thereof Isfahan, making Shah Sultan Hossein Prisoner, with all bis Sons, which were Twenty-three, excepting Thamas Mirza (afterwards Shah Thamas, who made bis Escape during the Siege) until Nadir Shah fet out for Kandahar to reduce to Obedience Hossein Khan, a Brother of the said Mahmud Khan.

THE

HISTORY

O F

NADIR SHAH.

ADIR SHAH; known in Europe by the Name of Kuli Khan, was born at Calot in the Province of Khorafan. His Father was Chief

This first Name was Lie Nadir Kuli, which fignifies, God's Slave, or literally, the Slave of the Wonderful. It is composed of Louis Nadir, wenderful, which, with the Mahommedans, is one of God's Attributes, and Lie Kuli, which, in the Turkish Language, signifies Slave. In this Manner the Arabs, and other Mahommedans, compose most of their proper Names, by prefixing the Word Land Abd, Slave, to God's Name, or any of his Attributes, thus: Abd allah, the Slave of God, Land Abd a' Rahman, the Slave of the Merciful, &c.

| Khorasan is one of the most eastern Provinces of Persia, which its Name imports, signifying, towards the

72 The History of

Chief of a Clan of the Affbar * Tribe and Governor of a Fortress belonging to that Place, wherein a sufficient Guard was kept to prevent the Oulbeg Tartars from making Incursions into Kboralan. It commanded one of the Passes, and was so situated by Nature that a Handful of Men might casily defend it against a numerous Army. The Father of Nadir Kuli (for that was his first Name) dying during his Minority, his Uncle took the Command of that Fortress. which had been Hereditary in the Family for many Years, under Pretence of keeping it until Nadir Kuli was of Age; but when he was grown up, the Uncle pretended he was still too, young to take such a Charge; and infinuated to the Clan, he was a Youth of a fierce and tyrannical Disposition, not fit to command them, unless, instead the Sun; Shor, fignifying, the Sun, in the ancient Perfic. The Perfians generally pronounce it Khorasun, making an 1 a, before an m, or an n, sound like an n, which, they think, gives the Words a sweeter and softer Sound. But in Tartary, and all over the Moghol's Empire, the Words are pronounced as they are wrote.

* The Affbars are a Turcoman Tribe, divided into two or three Clans.

of

Ė

ï

of mild Treatment, they chose to be sway'd with a Rod of Iron. The Affbars being well fatisfied with the Uncle, defired him to continue their Chief, declaring that as they already had fufficient Experience of his Capacity and Humanity, they would not run any Risque by submitting to his Nephew. Nadir Kuli being thus thrust out of his Right by the Cunning of his Uncle, and being of too great a Spirit to live in a State of Subferviency among his Relations, went to Mufbad,* a City famous for the Sepulchre of Imam Ali Reza, and there enter'd into the Beglerbeg's + Service, as one of the under Masters of Ceremonies; in which Office he behaved so well, that the Prince soon gave him the Command of a Troop of Horse, frequent Skirmishes he had with the Tartars he gave such Proofs of his Conduct and Courage, that in a few Years he was made Min Balbi, or Commander of 1000 Horse, ^{*} Mushad is a City in Khorasan, which, fince Shah Abass's Intention of making it a Place of Pilgrimage, has been of more Note than Herat, the ancient Capital thereof.

⁺ Beglerbeg is a Title signifying, in the Turkish Language, Lord of Lords.

in which Station he continued till he was about thirty-two Years of Age, behaving on all Occasions with the greatest Gallantry He was effeemed and and Resolution. respected by those whom he chose to be familiar with; but others who were not so intimate with him, and to whom he behaved with Referve, made little Account of him. He so well disguised his Ambition, that, altho' determined to push his Fortune to the utmost, when a proper Oppositionity should offer, he took the greatest Care to smother whatever might give the least fealousy or Offence to his Superiors, feeming perfectly happy in the Station he had obtained until the Year 1720. when the Oufbeg Tartars, by Surprize, entered Khorasan with a Body of 12000 Horse, and began to commit Hostilities. The Beglerbeg not having above 4000 Horse. and 2000 Foot in Readiness to march against them, called a Council of his Officers, and told them if an immediate Stop was not put to the Progress of the Tartars, they would lay waste and plunder the whole Province. and, according to their Custom, carry off Man, Woman, and Child, with every Thing of Value they could lay their Hands on; in Consequence of which he must lose his Head. The General Officers declared the Force his Highness could then muster was not near sufficient to encounter the Enemy with any Probability of Success, and that the King would blame him should he attempt it, and thereby only throw away the Lives of so many brave Men. Beglerber perceiving their timorous Disposition, declared he would put himself at the Head of what Troops he had, and try his Fortune, it being better to run any Hazard than fit down tamely, and be idle Spectators, while the Tartars ravaged the Country, and carried away the Inhabitants to a perpetual Slavery, Nadir Kuli, who was present at this Council, (but whose Station did not entitle him to speak until the Opinion of those of the same Rank was asked) got up, and defired that he might be indulged to offer fomething on this Occasion: Which being granted, he faid, It was then no Time to deliberate; that the Enemy were advancing towards them, and in a few Days would force the Generals to do what at present they feem'd to have no Inclination to; that he could not enough commend the brave Resolution L 2 lution of the Prince in offering to go in Perfon, and give them Battle, tho', at the fame Time, there was no Necessity for His Highness to run so great a Risque, since if any Accident happened to him the whole Province would be loft; that it would be more advisable to remain in the City Mushad to take Care thereof with what Forces he could gather from the adjacent Parts, and let the Army fet out immediately, in order to give the Enemy Battle, or to fecure some Defiles and narrow Passes to prevent the Tartars advancing until his Highness could fend Succours: That, for his Part, he affured him he was, by Experience, so well fatisfied of the Bravery of the Troops they then had, that if he would honour him with the Command of this Expedition, he was fo well affured of Success, that in Case he miscarried he was willing to forfeit his Head. The Prince was so pleased with an Offer of this Kind, that he did not wait for any of the Generals Opinions; but immediately told him, You have, in your present Station, when Occasion offered, given such Proofs of your Conduct and personal Valour, as leaves me no Room to doubt of your future Behaviour; I do therefore therefore give you the Title of General, with the Command of all the Troops now here, and order you to march with them, as foon as possible, against the Tartars, and either give them Battle, or take such Measures as may feem to you most proper, in order to put a Check to their Progress. Accordingly a Commission pro tempore was prepared and figned for Nadir Kuli to command in this Expedition as General, and the Prince affured him, if he succeeded, he would use all his Interest at Court to get him confirmed. Altho' the Common-Soldiers were well fatisfied to have Nadir Kuli to command them, yet all the General Officers, and most of the Mim Balbis, his Seniors, refused to act under him, which the Prince being informed of, defired they would flay with him, and that others, whom Nadir Kuli appointed, should act in their Stead. Accordingly several Officers were promoted in order to supply the Places of those who staid; and the Troops fet out with Nadir Kuli at their Head, with the same Resolution that he did, to conquer or die. The Tartar General, who lay about four Days Journey from Mulkad, hearing the Persians were in quest of them, called called together all his Forces, who were our a marranding in different Parts. Nadir, who bent his March directly towards him, on his Arrival, found the Tartar at the Head of his Troops ready to give him Battle; upon which he drew up his little Army on an Eminence, and told thom, that half the Turtars at least were a foraging, and left to guard the Captives and Plunder; that he was affured they had not above 6 or 7000 Men, tho' they were drawn up loofe in order to make the greater Show; and that he should not doubt of Victory had they been twice as numerous, from the Experience he often had of their Courage on other Occasions, which he was affured they would then exert to the utmost, as thereon entirely depended the Lives, Liberties, and Estates of their Coun-The Tartars charged with their usual Fury, which the Persians, animated by the Example of their young Leader, fustained with all the Intrepidity imaginable. Both Parties being brave, and equally resolute, a bloody and obstinate Action ensued, in which the Victory for a long Time feemed doubtful: At last Nadir's Fortune prevailed; for having flain the General with his own Hand, the the Tartars were immediately put to Flight, the Persons pursuing and slaughtering them for several Miles. In this Buttle upwards of 6000 Tarturs were killed, and of the Remainder not half returned to their own Country, being either killed or taken Prisoners by the Peasants.

This Victory gained Nadir Kuli immortal Honour; and the Beglerbeg affured him, on his Arrival at Mulbad, that he had wrote to the King to make him General under him. that is, Lieutenant General of Khorasan. But Shah Sultan Hoffein, who was then King of Persia, being a weak and indolent Prince, never regarded the Services Nadir had done him, but appointed in that very Post, which he ought to have, a young Nobleman who had never feen any Action. This Affair was managed by the great Interest the other General Officers had at Court, who (tho) afraid to undertake it themselves) were highly chagrin'd at Nadir Kuli's having had the Command of the Tartar Expedition: The King's Weakness giving them a fair Opportunity of indulging their Resentment, by procuring the Difgrace of this brave Man, who had no Friends at Court to follicit for him. Being

Being highly incenfed at this Treatment, he waited on the Prince, and told him, he had depended on his Promise to no Purpose, for instead of being confirmed in his Post, he was degraded and difgraced for his good Services, and a young Fellow appointed to Command the Army, who was only fit to be shut up in a Seraglio with Women; that he observed, he was a Person nearly related to his Highness, whence he concluded he was raised to that Station by the very Interest promised him: The Prince assured him of the contrary, and as he had endeavoured to ferve him, was highly displeased at his daring to tax him with a Breach of Promife. Nadir, by infifting on what he had faid, and dropping some other unguarded Expreffions, so far trespassed on the Prince's good Nature, that he ordered him to be bastinadoed on the Soles of the Feet, till his Toe-Nails dropt off, and turned him out of The Reader must not be furthe Service. prized at this Sort of Punishment to a Field Officer, for it is frequently inflicted on those in the highest Stations, if they incur the King's Displeasure, and all the Nobility are liable to undergo it, if they disobey the Commands of their Superiors in a Post subordinate to them. Nadir was now fet adrift, and having no Friends at Court, had no Hopes of being re-instated, this made him turn his Thoughts On retiring to the Place of his Nativity, and endeavour to recover his paternal Inheritance. on his Arrival there, his Uncle received him very kindly, and he lived with him and his other Relations some Time; but on his endeavouring to recover the Command of the Tribe, by first infinuating privately, and then infifting upon it that it was his Right. his Uncle let him know he would not refign it, and treated him in a most contemptuous and flighting Manner. His other Relations did the same, which was Usage Nadir's high Spirit could not bear, notwithstanding the State of Poverty he was reduced to, which was so very hard, that he was forced to borrow small Matters of any that would lend him, to procure the common Necessaries of Life. This was enough to beget desperate Resolutions in a Man who had deserved great Things from his Prince and Country, for the good Services he had done them; instead of which, as I have already observed, he was degraded and punished: And when he fled into the

the Arms of his Relations for Relief, and claimed his Birth-right, found that withheld from him by his Uncle; and all those who, by Ties of Blood, ought to have been his Friends, turned his Enemies, for no other Reason that I could ever learn, but that they found him a bold enterprizing Man, and fuperior to themselves in Point of Genius and every other Respect: Nadir, in this melancholy Situation, determined to get that by Force, which he could not obtain by any other Method; and having affociated with a Couple of stout Fellows of desperate Fortune, went upon the Highway, and robb'd a small Caravan of Three or Four Mules laden with Merchandize, and found Means to dispose of them, the Produce of which (fetting afide what they wanted for present Expences) he laid out in Arms and Ammunition, and enlifted privately in his Gang all the desperate Fellows he could pick up. He set out a second Time with about 20 or 25, and robb'd a large Caravan of 30 Mules and Camels, laden with Merchandize and Provisions, which he carried to the Mountains, where Persons came fecretly to him with Arms, &c. and exchanged them for Goods, much to their Advantage.

In this Manner he frequently robb'd, traded, and enlifted fresh Men into his Gang, most of whom were Soldiers who had formerly ferved under him, until he had got near 500 flout Fellows well mounted, with which Force he kept the Country in aw, and laid them under a Contribution, which they would not comply with, till he had first threatned, and afterwards performed his Resolution of carrying away their Cattle. and plundering and burning their Houses. But it will be proper here to take Notice, that he could not have reigned long in this Manner, but would have been purfued and overpower'd by the King's Forces, if the Empire had not been involved in War. The Afghans under Mir Vaez's Son, had taken Isfaban, and reduced the South-East Parts of Persia to their Obedience; the Turks had entered the Western Parts, and taken most of them; and the Muscovites had taken Possession of Gilan (the ancient Hyrcania) aud other Places bordering on the Caspian Sea; fo that Shah Thamas having but two or three Provinces left, which were furrounded by Enemies on all Sides, he could not spare any Forces to reduce Nadir Kuli; the M 2 Country

Country People were afraid to attack him. so that he lived on them, and exacted what he thought proper for the Support of himself and his Followers. At this Time, one Sef o' din Beg, a General in Shah Thamas's Army, and Chief of a great Tribe, called the Bayots, having offended the King, his Perhan Majesty was determined to take away his Life, which Sef o'din Beg being privately informed of, he fled from the Camp in the Night with 1500 of his own Men, and not knowing where to take Sanctuary, he went to Nadir Kuli, and joined him. By this Addition to his Force, he had now got upwards of 2000 Men, and was become very formidable and expensive to the Neighbourhood. Nadir's Uncle began to dread the Strength of his Nephew, who being not above 100 Miles off, might come and attack him whenever he pleased: He therefore wrote him a Letter. wherein he affured him, he was of Opinion, that if he would submit, and go into the King's Service, his Majesty would grant a Pardon to him and all his People. Nadir feemed very well pleafed with this Propofal, and wrote his Uncle, that if he could procure the Pardon he mentioned, he should be glad to accept of it. Accordingly his Uncle sent a Petition to Shah Thamas, in behalf of his Nephew. His Majesty at first seemed not inclined to pardon a Man who had been guilty of fuch notorious Crimes; but being told the ill Treatment he had formerly met with, forced him to take fuch Measures in order to support himself, that he was a gallant Officer, and that his Troops might be of great Service to his Majesty, who was in want of such Men, the King comply'd, and sent a free Pardon figned to his Uncle, which he immediately forwarded to Nadir Kuli, who, upon the Receipt thereof, set out with Sef o'din Beg, and 100 chosen Men for Calot. On his Arival there, his Uncle received him very kindly. Next Day he made a grand Entertainment for him and his Followers, which he intended to have continued for three Days, far from apprehending any Treachery from his Nephew, who now meditated Revenge for the Injury done him in withholding his Right, and flighting him when reduced to the greatest Necessity. He had concerted with his Followers how to put it in Execution before he left the Mountains, and had ordered 500 more of his Men to set out the next Day after him, and to lay concealed near the Castle of Calot (which they might easily do, it being a mountainous Place,) Accordingly having that very Night made proper Preparations, about two in the Morning, at a Signal given, those within fell on the Centries, killed fome, and seized the rest, whilst Nadir Kuli went to his Uncle's Chamber, whom having killed, he took the Keys of the Castle, and opened the Gates, in order to let in the coo Men, who were ready at his Signal. Uncle's Men, who were about 160, befides the Centries, had taken the Alarm; but Nadir's People having secured the Doors of the Barracks where they lay, they could make no Refish ance, so that they surrendered; and, being difarm'd were fet at Liberty the next Morning: there was not much Blood shed on this Occasion. not above fifteen or twenty being killed in all. Nadir immediately dispatched Messengers to those remaining in the Mountains, who came to him in a few Days. This happened about the Year 1726-7, upwards of fix Years after he had been turned out of the King's Service in Mulhad, as before-mentioned.

Nadir, by this Action, not at all to his Credit, had gratified his Revenge on his Uncle,

Uncle, and had all his Relations (who lived mostly in the Town, and the adjacent Villages near Calot) in his Power; but he shewed no Refentment to any of them: On the contrary, he treated them with Civility and Respect; several of them entered voluntarily into his-Service, and are now with him in great Posts. He continued in this Place for some Months ruling in an absolute Manner, and raising Contributions, for fifty Miles round, to what Amount he pleased. Shah Thamas was fully apprized of all that Nadir had done, and was highly displeased at the ill Use he made of the Pardon sent him, which was to destroy his Uncle, and get Posfession of a strong Place, whence nothing but a great Force could dislodge him; but as his Affairs were in a declining Condition, every Day feeming to threaten his Ruin more and more, being hemm'd in by the Turks on one Side, and the Afgbans on the other, he judged it better to make use of the Rebel Nadir's Affistance, than to weaken his own Force by attempting to destroy him. therefore let him know, if he would fubmit and come to him, he should be graciously received, and admitted into the Service as a Mim Mîm Bashi, and that Sef o' din Beg should likewise be pardoned, and entertained in the fame Station. Nadir accepted this Offer, and having left one of his own Officers, with 500 of his Men, to command the Castle, he fet out with the rest, and waited on the King, who at first rebuked him for what he had done, but told him and his People, that he had forgiven them, and did not doubt but their future Behaviour would make Amends for their past Offences. Nadir excused himfelf as well as he could, by telling the King the ill Treatment he had met with from the Prince of Khorasan, in being turned out of the Service at a Time when he ought to have been rewarded for his fuccessful Expedition against the Tartars; and that the injurious Usage he received from his Uncle and Relations had forced him into the Measures he had taken to support himself; but as his Majesty had now generously pardoned him, he should endeavour to render himself deserving of the Clemency which had been shewn him.

As he had now frequent Occasions, he signalized himself by his Courage and Conduct, and was the Admiration of the King and the whole Army. The Turks (who before Nadir Kuli's coming into Shah Thamas's Army. were always victorious, and feem'd determined to extirpate the Perfian Race, and divide the Empire between the Afghans and themselves, with whom they had made Peace, and entered into an Alliance) were now frequently repulfed with Loss, tho' their Numbers were vastly superior to the Persians; and in all these Actions and Skirmishes, Nadir, tho' he had but an inferior Command, yet he shared the most Honour; till at length the King made him a Lieutenant-General, having removed two of his principal Officers to make Way for him. As Nadir had, by his Station, frequent Opportunities of waiting on the King, he foon infinuated himfelf into his Favour. He had but one Rival to deal with, who was of any Consequence, namely, Fatteh allah Khan Kajar, with whom, in Appearance, he kept a strict Friendship; but the very Moment the King (being fet on by his Creatures) had called that General to an Account for his Management, in Regard to the Army, Nadir Kuli affured His Majesty he had been a long Time sensible of the Abuses committed, and unless there was a Reformation in the Manner of paying and N and disciplining the Army, the Troops would desert; that they already began to murmur at not receiving their Pay regularly, and complained of the exorbitant Deductions made out of it for Cloaths, &c. The King, on hearing this, was highly incenfed against the General, and declared, if what was alledged against him was true, he would order his Head to be cut off. He having nothing to fay in his own Justification, but pleading it as a Custom which his Predecessors had always done. His Majesty ordered him to be executed on the Spot, and appointed Nadir Kuli General, who readily accepted of it, without the Formality of desiring to be excused on Account of his Inability to acquit himself as he ought in such a Post. This was in the Year 1727-8, and not above one Year fince he was pardoned, and taken into the King's Service. Nadir having obtained that high Station, began to display Talents vastly superior to what he had discovered hitherto, and the King had so great a Dependance on his Management, that he feldom or never interfered in any Thing relating to the Military. Nadir, being sensible of the Trust reposed in him, was resolved to improve prove it to his own Advantage, by removing those in the Army whom he had Reason to. believe were not attached to him, and putting in those who were. He gain'd the Affection of the Common-Soldiers, by paying them with his own Hand the Moment he received the Money, and letting them have Cloaths at the first Cost. Finding himself in this happy Situation, he wished for nothing more than Action, but his Forces (being no more than 15 or 20000) were notfufficient to act offensively against the Turks: However, he annoyed them fo much by Means of flying Parties, that they were glad to fit still in their Quarters; they fent to acquaint Sbah Thamas, that if he would relinguish to them the Right of those Places they had already in Possession, they would make Peace with him, and leave him to recoverthe rest of his Dominions from the Afghans. Shah Thamas let them know he would confider of it, and defired a Truce till he could get an Answer from the Grand Signior to some Proposals he had to make him; to which the Turks agreed, promising to commit no Hostilities until they received Orders from the Port, and so their Confines were

dir

were fixed to Hamadan on one Side, and Tabriz and Ardebil on the other. Shab Thamas fent a Messenger to Constantinople with Offers of an Accommodation, but on Terms which he knew would not be granted; he gave private Orders to the faid Messenger to pretend Sickness on the Road, and to delay his getting thither as long as possible, so as not to give the Turks any Cause of Suspicion. Shah Thamas's Design was only to gain Time, that he might go and subdue Meluck Mahmud, Governor of Mulhad, who had rebelled during the late Revolution, and fet up as King. Having, thro' the Bravery of his General Nadir, taken the faid Governor Prisoner, and feized his Effects, he set out with 12000 Horse to chastise the Abdollees, a Tribe of Afghans, who had taken Possession of Herat in Shab Sultan Hossein's Time, and were now preparing a grand Army to invade Khorasan, and lay Seige to Mushad. The Abdollee Afghans met him about three Days Journey from Herat, with an Army of near 30000 Horse. As they were reckoned better Soldiers than the Kandahar Afghans, who had taken Isfahan, the King seem'd to dread the Event of the Battle; but Nadir, whose Courage was invincible, invincible, affured the King he did not doubt of Success; that Victory depended more on Resolution and Conduct than on Numbers. and that he was satisfied his Majesty's Troops had both. Having drawn up his Army in order of Battle, he harangued them in the fame Manner, telling them withal, that the Loss of that Battle would be the Ruin of Perfia, and that they and their Generations would be made Slaves for ever if they did not conquer that Day; after which a general Shout was given. The Abdollee Afghans, who were drawn up at some Distance, hearing their Shout, returned it, and advanced with great Fury to charge the Perfians. kept his Men close, and being posted upon a rifing Ground, he played upon them with fome small Field-pieces, which did great Execution, not fuffering any of his People to discharge their small Arms until the Enemy was within thirty or forty Yards, when they made a general Fire, which made such Havock among the Abdollees, that they were obliged to retire, and give the Perfians Time to load again. In short, after several desperate Attacks, which the Perfians sustain'd with an uncommon Valour, a general Engagement gagement enfued, in which Nadir behaved with a most surprising Conduct; for, tho his Personal Bravery naturally carried him too far, his Vigilance was fuch, that he always fent timely Assistance wherever it was required; at last, the Abdollees were entirely routed, 5000 were taken Prisoners, and near 15000 killed and wounded. The Loss on the Perhans Side amounted to no more than 1500. After this he marched to Herat, and besieged it for some Months, until the Enemy submitted, and had agreed to pay down a certain Sum, and give an annual Tribute on Condition they might have a Governor appointed by the King out of their own Tribe; which being granted, they swore Obedience to Shah Thamas, by whom they were to be treated in future as natural Subects. The King, who was in the Army, but did not command, set out for Musbad. Nadir Kuli having Orders to follow him as foon as possible, arrived there in August 1729. About this Time the King received News that Afbruff, the Afghan (who fucceeded Mahmud, the Son of Mir Vaez, and was then in Poffession of Isfaban) was preparing to come and attack him with a powerful Army.

Army. The faid Afbruff, hearing of Nadir Kuli's Success, thought it dangerous to give such a Man Time to augment his Forces; he therefore determined to crush him in the Beginning: For which Purpose, having compleated an Army of 30000 Men, he set out from Isfaban in September, 1729, and march'd towards Khorasan. This News alarmed Shah Thamas, and likewise his General Nadir; but his Troops, being flush'd with their late Victory, feem'd eager to be led against the Enemy. He was glad to find them in this Disposition, especially as he had but little Hopes of raising any great Number of Recruits, few People caring to enlift as they. knew they were immediately to enter upon a desperate Action; however, he augmented his Army to near 16000 Men, exclusive of the Troops left in Garrison: Having set out from Mulbad, by flow Marches he came to a Place called Damgoon, where, posting himself advantageously, he waited the Enemy's Arrival. When Ashruff came there, finding Nadir Kuli so well situated, he was unwilling to attack him, but was over-ruled in Opinion by his Officers: They told him, that by his declining to come to Action, the Enemy

Enemy would obtain a cheap Victory; as the Country People (on hearing the Afghans were afraid to encounter the Perhans) would rebel, and stop all Provisions from coming to the Army. Ashruff then proposed to march directly to Mushad without attacking Nadir Kuli; which being rejected, the Signal was given for Battle. The Event convinced the Afgban Officers of their Error; for attacking them at that Disadvantage gave the Perhans a compleat Victory. 'Tis true it cost them dear, having lost above 4000 Men. The Loss sustained by the Afgbans was about 12000, among whom were some of their best Officers.

After this Defeat Ashruff retired towards Isfahan, having scarcely a third Part of the Troops he set out with, a great Number of his Men (especially the Persians he had taken into his Service) having deserted after the Battle.

Shab Thamas, who was present in this Action, and an Eye-witness to the Conduct and Valour of his General, told him he had nothing to present him, worthy his Acceptance, but his own Name, and ordered that, for the future, he should be called Thamas Kuli Kuli * with the Addition of Khan, which fignifies Lord.

Thamas Kuli Khan, (for fo we shall call him until he is elected King) having refreshed his Troops at Damgoun, marched towards The Afgbans, at his Approach, Isfahan. quitted several of their Garrisons, and sled towards the Capital, and in fome Places the Perhans cut them off, declaring openly for Shah Thamas, and fending to Kuli Khan what Supplies of Men and Money they could furnish; so that, by the Time he arrived at Cashan, which is four Days Journey from Isfaban, his Army confisted of 40000 Horse and Foot. The Afghans laid in great Stores of Provisions, and seem'd determined to defend themselves to the last Extremity; but their Leader Albruff chose to try the Event of another Battle before he suffered himself to be befieged. Having brought together all the Forces he could muster, which amounted to no more than 30000, confisting of Afghans, Darguzzis, Hazarris, Persians, &c.

he

^{*} Thamas Kuli, fignifies Thamas's Slave. The greatest Honour a Persian King can confer on any Subject, is giving him Liberty to make use of his own Name, altho' it is only to signify, he is his Slave.

he marched out to a Place called Mourcha Khor, which is about thirty English Miles from the City, and encamped there, waiting Kuli Khan's Arrival, which not being so soon as he expected, he had sufficient Time to exercise his Cruelty on the Persians in and about Isfaban: At first, he ordered all the principal Men to be cut off, and afterwards all they could find in the Streets; fo that, for the Space of twenty Days, there was not a Persian to be seen abroad, none appearing but Women, who came out to buy the common Necessaries of Life. At last, Kuli Khan arrived at Mourcha Khor, where, engaging the Afghans, he obtained a compleat Victory. Ashruff, having lost 7000 Men, retired to Isfahan, where, calling a Council, it was resolved, that all the Inhabitants should be flaughtered, and the Palace and other Houses set on Fire; which being done, they were to march off with all the Effects they could carry with them. Just as they were on the Point of executing this barbarous Refolution, those whom Ashruff had appointed to watch the Motions of Kuli Khan, fent to acquaint him, that the Persian Army was in full March towards the City. Upon which, Albruff

Ashruff ordered his Men to come to the Palace and load their Beafts with Money (of which there was a great Quantity) and then follow him, as they could only fave themfelves by Flight. This Order was executed with so much Dispatch, that before two o' Clock in the Afternoon there was scarce an Afghan to be seen in the City. The Perfians, who before lay concealed, came out, and began to plunder all Houses without Distinction; even the Peasants from the Outparts flocked in in great Numbers to have their Share of the Booty; but on the Arrival of 1 500 of Thamas Kuli Khan's Troops, all the Rabble disappeared, and the Officers took Possession of the Palace, and placed Guards at the City Gates. The next Day being

November, 1730, he entered Isfahan with his whole Army, and continued there, cloathing his Men, and dividing among them the Plunder recovered from the Inhabitants. It was a Matter of Surprize to most People that he did not pursue the Afghans; but in a few Days afterwards it appeared he had some private Reasons for it: For, on Shah Thamas's Arrival (which was three Weeks afterwards) he declared that unless his Majesty would give him the Power of levying Mon ney in all Parts for the Payment of the Army, he would decline the Command thereof, and return to his own Country, well affured that the Persons who should be ordered to supply him would be negligent, and by that Means frustrate all his De-The King was averse to this Proposal, and had Thoughts of removing him, but could fix on no other who was fit to fupply his Place; having founded fome of the principal Officers, he found them of Opinion, that it was better to comply with Kuli Khan's Humour for the present, and shew a proper Resentment of his Insolence when there was less Occasion for his Service; adding, that the Soldiers, at this Juncture, would be unwilling to ferve under any other General. At last, His Majesty consented, but with the greatest Reluctancy: For, in giving that Power, he (in Effect) parted with his Crown. He did not even stop here, but heaped more Honours upon him, appointing him Generalissimo and Beglerbeg of Khorasan, and giving him his Aunt in Marriage. ter obtaining these Favours he seemed perfectly zealous for his Master's Service; and, in order to convince the World of his Sincerity, would fet out with an Army in the Middle of Winter against the Afghans, who, finding the Persians did not pursue them, when they quitted Isfahan, had taken up their Winter Quarters at Shiraz, and plundered and ravaged that Part of the Country in a barbarous Manner.

Kuli Khan, thro' the Severity of the Sea-Ion, had lost upwards of 3000 Men; but, as his March was to the Southward, the Weather grew daily more favourable. Havving arrived near Shiraz, Ashruff and his Afghans marched out with a Resolution once more to try their Fortune in Battle; they fought desperately for some Hours, but at last were put to Flight, having left a great. Part of their Treasure, and most of their Women and Children behind them. A strong Detachment of the Persians were sent in Pursuit of them, who made several of them Prisoners.

Ashruff, with about 1500 of his Men, marched directly towards Kandahar. In the Way most of them deserted him, having only 100 when he was surprized and set upon by a Body of the Balluches; with these sew he made a desperate and brave Desence, but being greatly overpowered, he and most of his Party were cut to Pieces.

102 The History of

Thamas Kuli Khan, having staid about a Month in Shiraz, set out for Hamadan, in order to recover it, with other Places formerly belonging to the Perhans, which the Turks had seized on during the late Troubles. On his Arrival there, Abdallah Baska came against him with all his Forces, who, being worsted sled towards Carmanshab: Thamas Kuli purfued him thither, and defeated him a fecond Time. Having staid a few Days at Carmanshab, and fixed a Garrison there, he set out for Tabriz. As foon as he recovered and fecured that important Place, he detached a strong Party to Ardebil, which the Enemy had quitted on their Approach. The Turks being thus unfuccessful demanded a Truce, which Thamas Kuli granted the more readily, as the Abdollees at Herat rebelled a second and had a powerful Army in the Time. Field.

Having secured, and left sufficient Garrifons in those Places he had lately recovered, he set out for Herat. After deseating the Abdollees Army, he laid Siege to the City, which which being a Place of great Strength, held out until Famine obliged them to surrender. He put the Governor and all the principal Men to Death, and having peopled the Place with Persians, and left a Garrison of his own Men therein, he marched to Mussad.

During this Time, Shah Thamas, who was at Isfahan, finding the Turks were fending Forces from Constantinople and other Parts towards the Frontiers of Persia, he raised an Army of 20000 Men, and set out for Tabriz, where, joining the Troops left there by Thamas Kuli, he marched to Erivan, and defeating a Body of Turks, befieged the Castle, but not being able to supply his Army with Provisions there, he returned to Tabriz, and from thence intended to advance towards Carmanshah, but was prevented by Abmed Basha, who, coming against him with a superior Army, entirely defeated him. A few Days after this Battle, the Basha sent him Word, he was impowered by the Grand Signior to conclude a Peace with him. King came readily into the Basha's Proposals, which were, that each Party should remain in Possession of what they had then got.

When

When Thamas Kuli Khan was informed of this Peace he was greatly enraged, and wrote to the King and several of the Nobility, acquainting them, he would foon wait on His Majesty, and convince him of the Necessity there was to break this fcandalous Peace. Accordingly he fet out with all Speed from Muskad, and in August, 1732. arrived at Isfaban with his whole Army, which amounted to upwards of 60000, all choice Troops. He waited on the King, and told him, He ought first to make an Example of those who advised him to such dishonourable Meafures, and then carry on the War with Vigour against the Enemy. The King seeming unwilling to break the Peace he had concluded with the Turks, Thamas Kuli Khan told him, he had good Reafon to believe most of the Courtiers were his Enemies, and had been endeavouring to prevail with His Majesty to take away his Life. The King asfured him his Informations were not true. Upon which Kuli Khan prefented the King with a Bundle of Letters, telling him, these would convince his Majesty, that he had just Grounds for his Apprehensions. After which he took his Leave.

Thefe

These Letters had been wrote to him priwately by several of the Nobility at Court, in which they informed against each other, and acquainted him with their Designs against him. They also let him know what had passed in several Conversations with the King; at the same time reslecting on his Majesty's Incapacity, and assuring Kuli Khan how much they had his Interest at Heart.

The King was aftonished when he perused these Letters, and sinding the Treason too general to be taken any notice of, unless he resolved to cut off the greatest Part of the Nobility, he destroyed the Letters, being determined to wait for a more convenient Opportunity of resenting their Villainy.

Ibamas Kuli Khan, who with his Army lay encamped without the City, waited to know what Effect these Letters would have on the King; but finding he took no Notice of them, he consulted with the Chiefs of his Army, and acquainted them with the Steps he had taken. They agreed with him in Opinion, that the King's Intention was to destroy him and his Friends, and dishand the Army; and that the late shameful Peace concluded with the Turks was chiefly with a P

View of having more Leisure and Opportunity to accomplish his Designs. Kuli Khan told them, the only Expedient to save them and himself, would be to depose the King, and set up his Son in his Stead; by which Means they should have a fair Pretence of making a Rupture with the Ottoman Porte: His Officers came readily into this Scheme, which was executed in the following manner:

Kuli Khan invited the King to a Review of the Army; he accordingly went, and was exceedingly delighted with the fine Appearance they made, and the Performance of their Exercise, the Merit of which he publickly attributed to the General. As the King was riding thro' the Ranks, some of the Under-officers and Soldiers faid aloud, " If your " Majesty has any Commands, we are ready "to execute them." This at first surprised Kuli Khan, but on recovering himself, he. with his usual Presence of Mind, addressed the King, defiring him to tell them they were to obey their General Thamas Kuli Khan, to whom he had given the fole Command of the Army; which his Majesty complied with, and then went to a Banquet which had been prepared for him in the General's neral's Tent. The King having indulged too freely in drinking Wine, (which 'tis supposed was mixed with some intoxicating Drug) he fell asleep on his Sofa. The General ordered his own People to carry him to a Seraglio in the Garden of Hazar Jersb. His Majesty's Servants who were then in Waiting, seeming to dispute Kuli Khan's Orders, by telling him, they would take Care of the King, were commanded to withdraw at their Peril; upon which they endeavoured to make their Escape, but were seized by the Guards, and confined.

After Kuli Khan had secured the King, and placed Guards over him, he returned to his Tent, where most of the General Officers, who had been present at this Scene, were attending. He asked them, what was to be done further with the King? They replied, Nothing more than what is already done: But he soon persuaded them it would be necessary to keep him confined in some remote Part of the Empire: and accordingly three Days asterwards he was sent to Mazandran, attended by a Guard of booo Men, among whom were very sew Persan Troops, being P 2 chiefly Afghans, and others of the Sanni Res

After seizing the King, he sent a strong Derachment to the City, to take Bussessen of the Palace, and place Guards at the City Gates, and in some of the principal Streets. Early next Morning it was produinted by Beat of Deum, that no Persons, on Pain of Death, should stir out of their Houses: At Noon sinding every thing was quiet and easy, a second Proclamation was made, ordering all People to carry on their Business and several Occupations, and go abroad, as usual.

The Persons made secretly great Lamentations, imagining their King was killed; but being informed he was alive; they statemed themselves with Hopes that the Army would rise in his Desence.

Next Day after the King was fent away, Kuli Khan went to the Palace in guar Pump, attended by all the Officers hoth Civil and Military. He ordered the King's Sou to be brought out of the Secaglio, who being them in his Cradle, was placed on the Throne; the Royal Diadem was put at the Head, and the Sword and Target fixed to the Side thereof; after after which, with the proper Ceremony, he was declared King, by the Name of Soul Abus the Thirt. Kuli Khan first fwore Fidelity to him on the Keran, and the rest followed his Emmple.

This Mock Commony being over, he comtimed in the Phlace until he had appointed proper Officers in the City, and removed those Governors of diffirm Provinces whom he did not care to confide in: Afterwards he for our with his Porces against the Turks, and emeeting Ahmed Bufter as the Pleast of a numerous Army, within a few Days Journey of Baghilad he entirely defeated him, and marched towards the City, which he laid close Singe to. The Garrison being very numereus, defended is a long time, but a terrible Famine raging among them, they were on the Point of furrendring, when Topal-Othmun, Bafka: Strafkier, and several other Baffins came with an Army, which, including Servants, We. was upwards of 200000 Men. Having: advanced niche Haghtlind, they obliged Thunan Radi Rhan to miner bu Siege, and give eas Basile. The Perfem Army, which there confifted of 120000 Men, charged to furiously, anti feconded their Atmaks with formuch Vigour, that the Turks were just on the Point of giving Way, when Kuli Khan's Horse was shot under him. Having sought some time on Foot, before he could get re-mounted, his Standard-bearer concluded he was killed, and rode off with the Colours. This alarm'd the whole Army, who instantly faced about and sled: Kuli Khan endeavoured to rally them, but to no Purpose; the Turks pursuing with great Fury, made a terrible Slaughter of them: The Persians lost in this Action upwards of 60000 Men, and the Turks nigh as many.

This Defeat would have discouraged any but Kuli Khan, who had a Soul superior to all Misfortunes. He stopped at Hamadon. where in a few Days most of the Troops who were dispersed joined him. He told them he had certain Intelligence the Turks had given; over Pursuit, and had divided their vast Army into leffer Parties, for the Convenience of forraging and getting Provisions, of which they were in great Want: That he was determin'd to go and attack 'em, one Party after another, and either conquer or die, fince after what had been already done they could expect no. Mercy from their Country, to which they must must never return but in Triumph: And should they give the Turks any Time to refresh and unite their Troops, they would certainly be an Over-match for them. His Officers being entirely of the same Opinion, he marched back with great Expedition, and fell upon the first Party of the Turks, who, imagining him to be at a great Distance, were not prepared to receive him. Having successively beat three considerable Bodies of them, he at last encounter'd Topal Othman Basha, at the Head of 60000 Men, who being shot in the beginning of the Action, his whole Army was soon routed, and put to Flight.

Since this Battle the Turks have not appeared in the Field against him, but suffered him for two Years successively to take one Place after another, some by Storm, and others by Capitulation, till he had recovered all the Territories they had seized during the late Troubles.

This unexpected Success had greatly raised his Reputation, and Volunteers came from all Quarters to offer him their Service. Having compleated a choice Army, he marched a second Time to besiege Baghdad.

When

112 The Mistory of

When the beige was pretty far advanced, he sectived News, that Mahammed Khan Balluthe, one of his Generals, had rebolled, and proclaimed Shab Thamas King; that he had taken the City of Shirez, and had an Army of 30000 Men, which increased daily: Whereupon Kuli Khou immediately raifed the Siore, and marching with all Expedition against the Rebels, was upon them when they least expected him. Upon the first Report of his Troops being near, they marched out to attack them, imagining it was only a Small Detachment under the Command of one of his Officers, but they had not advanced above 20 Miles, before they met him at the Head of his Van-Grand, which confished of 12000 Men. Mahammid Khan Balluche being overjoy'd to find him attended by so few, told his Officers, that Fortune had delivered Thamas Kuli Khan into their Hands; that they might easily defeat him, before he could have any Succours, as his main Army was a Days Journey behind: But when they approached each other, and heard Kuli Khan thundering out his Orders, they were firuck with such a Panick. that they fled, without furthining his first Attack.

Attack. Mahommed Khan Balluche, who was personally brave, having togled out Kuli Khan, rode full Speed towards him: being repulsed, he fought his Way back again, and intended to make his Escape, by croffing the Gulf of Perha in an Arab Vesfel; but those treacherous People seized him. and, in hopes of a Reward, carried him to Thamas Kuli Khan, who sent him to Prison, in order to force him into a Confession of his Accomplices, and what Treasure and Effects he had. In this he was disappointed, for the Moment Mahommed Khan Balluche was left alone, he hanged himself. They could find no Papers that gave any Account of the Perfons he corresponded with, or where his Effects (which were very confiderable) had been desofited. Thus ended this brave Man, who was deservedly esteemed for several good Qualities; he was as great (tho' not so fortunate) a Soldier, as any in the East, and judged to be the best Horseman in Persia.

Thamas Kuli Khan staid a few Days in Shiraz, being employed in putting to Death some of the principal Persons concerned in the Rebellion, and seizing their Essects. He afterwards returned to Isfahan, where settling some Affairs, he set out for Georgia, and took the Capital Teffs by Storm, upon which the whole Country submitted to him; from thence he marched to Erivan, the Capital of Armenia, which having recovered, he afterwards took Shamakbi by Capitulation, and Ganjan by Storm. In the mean Time, he fent a Messenger to the Russians to relinquish. Gilan and the Silk Countries, according to their Promise, otherwise he should be obliged to pay them a Visit; as they had no Inclination to enter into a War with him, they evacuated all the Places on this Side the Caspian Sea, except Derbend and Bachu, which he had given up to them. Upon this he concluded a firm Peace with them, and not long after made a Peace with the Turks.

114 The History of

Having thus fettled Affairs in Regard to those two Powers, he sent a general Edict to all the Rulers of Provinces, Chiefs of Tribes, and Governors of Cities and Towns, commanding them to meet him on a certain Day, in the Plains of Chuli Magham, on Pain of high Displeasure. At the Time appointed they appeared, to the Number of 6000 and upwards, at the said Place, where they found him encamp'd with an Army of 150000 Men.

Thamas Kuli Khan ordering them to appear before him, he told them, the Reason of calling them together was to acquaint them that he had now subdued all the Enemies of the Perhan Empire, except the Kandahar Afghans, whom he was determined to march against very soon; that, after he had reduced them to Obedience, he intended to retire, and end the Remainder of his Days in Peace and Tranquility, unless his Country should again require his Service; that he had made Peace with the Turks and Muscovites, and chastisfed the Tartars, and other Enemies on the Frontiers, in fuch a Manner, that (in all Probability) they would remain quiet for a long Time, so that it only remained with them to elect a King, either Shah Thamas their late Sovereign, or any other whom they judged the most capable; adding, that he expected their Answer in three Days. After this he retired to his Tent, and gave Orders that the faid Affembly should be entertained at the public Expence, during their Stay in the Camp. In the mean Time, Kuli Khan's Creatures took Care to intimate to the principal Persons, that they ought to compliment their Regent and General with an Offer Q 2 of

of the Crown, tho', at the same Time, there were certain he would not accept of it, When the Time was expired, they waited on him with an Address; in which, after setting forth the fignal Service he had done to his Country, they begg'd he would accept of the Crown, and take the Charge of the Empire upon him, and that they (as faithful Subjects) would affift him on all Occasions with their Lives and Fortunes. Thamas Kuli Khan told them, that he thank'd them for the Honour they had done him, which was contrary to his Intention in calling them together, yet as he looked upon the Voice of the People to be the Voice of God, he must fubmit to the Cares of a Crown, and facrifice his own Ease to the public Good, not doubting but (by the Bleffing of the Almighty, and their unanimous Concurrence) he should raise the Persian Nation to as great a Pitch of Glory as any of their former Kings had done. And, in order to fet out right, and have a perfect Understanding with them, he should require three Things to be solemnly confirmed by them:

Ÿ.

I. That they should make the Crown Hereditary to his Heirs for ever.

II. That

Confication of Effects, should presume to take up Arms in Favour of the late Royal Family, or any Branch therof, on any Pretence whatever, nor so much as mention any Thing tending to Rebellion.

III. That, as great Disturbances and Mischiefs had always arose between them and their Neighbours, the Turks, Indians, and Tartars, on Account of the Difference of Religion, he desired a Number of the Religious of both Sects might assemble to confider of, and resolve upon, an Uniformity; adding, that as the Points in which the Sunnis and Schias* differed were not very essentiated.

* The Sunnis are those Mahommedans, who acknowledge as lawful the Succession of Abubuckr, Aumar, Othman, and Ali, and receive the Koran and Mahommed's Traditions in the Sense they are expounded by their four great Doctors, Abul Hanifa, Malek, Shafi, and Hanbal.

The Schias are they who dispute the Lawfulness of the Succession of Abubuckr, Aumar, and Othman, and maintain that Mortisa Ali (according to the Prophet's Will) ought immediately to succeed him. They pay no Regard to the Opinions of the abovementioned Doctors, but are entirely guided by their own Imâms.

tial,

tial, he was of Opinion an Accommodation might be easily effected.

The Grandees came readily into the two. first Articles, but as to the two last they defired he would first hear what the Mullab Bashi (or High-Priest) had to offer on that Head before they should subscribe to it. Accordingly the High-Priest addressed him, and faid, 'As to Matters of Religion we have the Law of God, and the Traditions of his Pros phet Mahommed to direct us, it is not for Princes to make Innovations therein, and therefore I humbly hope your Majesty will. 'not begin your Reign with attempting to overthrow the established Religion, as a Step of that Nature must be attended with dangerous Consequences.' Then Kuli Khan immediately ordered him to be strangled, to prevent the People from attempting to second his Discourse, which they would certainly have done, if this fudden Execution had not detered them from it. He then asked the People whether they would subscribe, and take Oaths to what he had proposed; which they tamely and readily submitted to. The next Day, being March 1735-6. he was proclaimed Emperor of Persia, by the Name of Nadir dir Shah, on which Occasion Coins, with a pompous Inscription + were struck in his Name.

Having

† On Nadir Shah's being proclaimed King, Coins were struck in his Name with the following Inscription.

سکه بر زم کرد نام سلطنت در جهان تادر بهان نهمیی و خسرو کېتي ستان

Sicca bir Zir Curd nam é Sultanit dir Jehan Nadir é Irân Zemmi v' Khofro é Geti Setan.

Which fignifies,

Coins on Money have proclaimed through the Earth, the Reign of Nadit of Persiant Soil, and the King who conquers the World.

On the Reverse in a Cypher, الخبر نبما يقع Al Kber fi ma vackeh.

Which fignifies, 19 hat has bappened is beft.

The Numerical Letters of the faid Motto, make up 1148. the Year he usurped the Crown.

And on the same Side is, المجالة كرمان ١١٤٨ فرب في كرمان ١١٤٨ عنوب المجالة Struck at Kirmân (or Carmania) in 1148.

Dr. Mead has one of these, with two other different Coins, which have been struck in Nadir Shab's Name. One

126 The History of

Having entertained the Assembly in a grand Manner, for the Space of three Days, he dismissed them with Presents, and treated them all with great Civility, excepting the Priests, who he found were commenced his

One of which has السلطان نادر Al Sultan Nadir. The Sultan Nadir, on one Side; and on the Reverse, علد الله ملكة ضرب في قندهار Khould Allah Mu-luck hi. Zirb fi Kandahar. May God perpetuate his Reign. Struck at Kandahar.

The other, which was struck in India, after his Victory at Karnal, has on one Side.

هست سلطان بر سلاطبی جهان شاهٔ اشاهان نادر صاحب قران

Hist Sultan, bir Salatin Jehan' Shah é Shahan Nadir Saheb é Kéran.

Which is to lay,

Nadir, the Master of Fortune, and King of Kings, is the most powerful of the Princes of the Earth.

On the Reverse,:

الله ملك الله ملك ضويب في إحمدالاد ١١٥٢ Kbould Allah Muluck bi. Zirb fi Abmedabad, 1152.

Which fignifies,

May God perpetuate bis Reign. Struck at Ahmedaabad in 1152.

bitter

bitter Enemies, for cutting off the Mullah. Balbi, and for the Alteration they found he was determined to make in Religion; but, in order to prevent their being able to do him any Injury, he fent for the Chiefs of them, and asked in what Manner they employed the vast Revenues they had. They told him that they apply'd them to the religious Purpoles for which they were intended, such as Salaries for Priefts, the Maintenance of Colleges, and a great Number of Mosques in which Prayers were daily and hourly offered up for Success to the Arms of their Prince and Prosperity to the Empire of Perha. told them, that by Experience it was evident their Prayers had not been heard, fince for fifty Years past the Nation had been on the Decline, and at last almost ruined by Invasions and Rebellions, until God's victorious Instruments (meaning his Army) had come to its Relief, who were now ready to facrifice their Lives for the Defence and Glory thereof; that these poor Priests (pointing to his Soldiers) were in Want, and must be supply'd by some Means or other; that therefore it washis Royal Pleasure, that the greatest Part of the Church Lands and Revenues should R be be confiscated and appropriated towards paying the Army; which was accordingly done, and by an exact Computation found to amount to near 1,000,000 Tomans, which is about 3,000,000 l. per Annum. The Priests were highly enraged at this Treatment, and did all they could to stir up the Army and People against him; the former, being above half Surmis, only laughed at them, and the latter, when they confidered that by this they were to be eased of a Part of the Taxes, were not diffatisfy'd with it. After this Kuli Khan fent for the Chiefs of the People, and, acquainting them with what he had done, told them, if they wanted Priests, they must provide them at their own Expence; that, for his Part, having little Occasion for any, he would be at no Charge about them. He then published an Edict (of which the following is a literal Translation) ordering all his Subjects to conform to the Sumi Religion, on Pain of his Royal Displeasure.

A Translation + of Nadir Shah's Edict for an Uniformity of Religion between the Schias and Sunnis.

"A LL in high Stations, the Stdr *
"A of great Power, the Governor,

Ministers of the Law, and learned Men of the Royal Refidence of Isfaban, being ex-

" alted thro' the Kings Favour, KNOW,

"That while the abode of our Enfigns (on whom Victory attends) was at Sebrai

" Mogham. ‡ It was agreed at several Meet« ings, that from henceforth, according to

4 ancient Custom (being fix'd and establish-

+ This Edict is translated from a Copy in the Original Parsic, which Dr. Mead was pleased to savour me with.

* The Sedr is a Perfon of great Authority in the Empire, who has the absolute Management of Church Lands, and what Revenues are appropriated towards the maintaining of public Schools, Salaries to Learned Men, and other pious Uses.

‡ The same as Chuli Mogham.

" ed

124 The History of

"ded in the Religion of Hanifa | and Jaffer, §
"as transmitted to us by our Predecessors,
"we do acknowledge the directing Kbalifs
"(in all whom the high God is pleas'd) as
"the Successors of the Chief of Messengers*;
"and whenever they present themselves,
"inention the Names of each of the Four
"with great Respect. Moreover, in some "Places of these Kingdoms, at the Time
"of calling to Prayers, and standing up at "Prayer, they mention these Words, At
"the Friend of God, I according to the Hanifa, one of the four great Doctors, in famous for expounding the Mahemmedan Law.

§ Jaffer, one of the Imams, whose Opinion in several Points the Sunnis themselves pay the greatest Regard to.

thatis, by which are always meant Abubucker, Aumar, Othman, and Ali.

* By the Chief of Messengers is meant Mahommed.

‡ 281 29 & Ali vulli Allab, or Ali the Friend of Gad, is always annexed by the Schias to their Kalmah in this Manner,

لا اله الالله محمد رسول الله وعلى ولي الله

La Ilah il Allah, Mahommed Rasoul Allah v' Ali Vulli Allah. Which is literally, There is no God but God, and Mahommed the Prophet of God, and Ali the Friend of God.

" ufual

" usual Method of the Schias, and contrary " to those who are Orthodox. This is repug-" name to Religion, and contrary to the " Agreement and Covenant enter'd into. " Besides it is evident to the World, that " as the Prince of the Faithful, the Lyon " of God. the Victorious#, is elect, prais'd " and acceptable to the Lord of Glory, his " Rank and Interest at the Court of Unity," " will not be increas'd by vulgar Testimony, " nor the full Moon of his Power be dimi-" nished by omitting these Words. The " ill Consequence of this Form is, that both 56 Sects 6, who equally acknowledge the " Chief and Prophet + of both Worlds, will by this Difference be provoked to Animo-" fities, which are difagreeable both to the " Prophet and to the Prince of the Faithful*.

امير المومنين اسد الله الغالب المراجع المراجع المراجع المبر المومنين اسد الله الغالب المراجع المراجع

"Wherefore, as foon as the Purport of this

[§] The Sunnis and Schias.

⁺ Mahommed.

^{*} Mortisa Ali.

" high Edict is known, let it be fignified to " all Mussulmen, High and Low, Great and Small, the Callers to Prayer in the City. " its Dependencies, and the adjacent Coun-"tries, That from this Day henceforth, "these Words, as differing from the Ortho-"dox Custom, be not mentioned. It is " also usual with the Governors in their " Assemblies, after Fattaba and Tokbir t. to " say, May the King from whom all our " Fortune flows, live for ever. As a Tokbîr " for perpetuating a mortal Man is vain, and " of no Effect, I expresly order that every " Khan who is Master of a Tabal || and En-" fign, say it in this Manner, Thanks to " the true King for all Benefits. " henceforward all Persons must observe, " these settled Regulations and written Or-" ders: For, whosoever deviates therefrom, " will incur the Displeasure of the King [†] Fattaba is a prefatory Prayer, which is generally the first Soura or Chapter of the Koran. Tokbir is repeating three times these Words, which is to say, God is Greatest, before the Kelmab abovementioned.

[|] Tabal is a small Drum, which General Officers have fixed to their Saddles.

NADIR SHAH. 127 " of Kings. Written in the Month " Safer, 1149 *."

This Edict was received with great Joy by Numbers of his Subjects, as many being fecretly of that Perswasion, as of the Schia established Religion; it was particularly agreeable to his Soldiers, who being chiefly Sunnis, became thereby the more attach'd to him. However impolitic these Steps might have seem'd at first, yet it was the only Method he could have thought of in order to establish himself and his Heirs on the Throne of Persia; besides the Advantages it already has and may still give him in his suture Designs on his Neighbours, who are of the same Religion which he has now established in Persia.

Shortly after he was elected and proclaimed King, he went to the City of Kazvin (or Kasbin) where the Ceremony of Inauguration of the Persian Monarchs is performed. Having girt on the Royal Scymitar, and put the Imperial Crown on his Head, he took the usual Oath, which is, To govern the People according to the Laws of God, as rewealed by bis Prophet Mahommed, and protest and defend them against all their Enemies.

^{*} June 1736.

After this, he marched with his Army to Isfaban, where he continued some Time, making Preparations for his Expedition to Kandabar. During his Stay there, he received the Compliments of the neighbouring Powers: The Grand Signior and Moghol acknowledged him as Emperor of Persia, and at the same congratulated him on having established the true Onthodox Religion in his Empire, and discouraged the former Herefy.

In December, 1736, Nadir Shah set out from Isfahan, with an Army of upwards of 80000, chiefly Horse, and marched towards Kandahar, by the Way of Communia, and was shortly after follow'd by Thomas Khan Vakeel with about 40000 more.

What happened after this, the Gentleman who favoured me with the above Memoirs is a Stranger to; excepting that on his Departure from Portia to India, which was in February, 1736-7, he heard Nadir Shah had befieged Kandahar. His Transactions since that Time, I shall continue as translated from some Persie Manuscripts, Manuscripts, which I have mentioned in the Preface.

The same Gentleman bas also favoured me with a personal Description and Character of this great Heroe, which I shall reserve for the Conclusion of these Sheets.

Nadir Shab, having securely established himself, and settled his Affairs in Persia, he lest his Son Reza Kuli Mirza to command there, and set out with his Army towards Kandabar. Hossein Kban, the Governor thereof, having laid up great Stores of Provisions and Ammunition, held out for 18 Months; at last, being reduced to Straits, he sallied out with his Men, most of whom died bravely sighting. Hossein Kban and his Son being taken Prisoners, the Persians entered the Castle, and took Possession thereof.

While Nadir Shah was bufy in securing and fortifying Kandahar, and bringing over to him the Zemidars of those Parts, Letters came from Nizam al Muhuek and Saadit Khan, inviting him to march towards Hindostan. In Answer to which, he objected the Difficulties of getting thro' the Defiles, passing the great Rivers, and the many Encounters he must expect to have with the Afghans, and the warlike Nations of those Parts, the Opposition he must expect from Nagir Khan, Soubahdar of Cabul, and Zekaria Khan, Ruler of Labor; and, last of all (should his Fortune furmount all these) his Fate will depend on his Success against a powerful Imperial Army. They foon fatisfied him how unnecessary his Fears were, and that, before he cross'd the Attok*, he should have a Proof how able they were, and how much inclined to facilitate his Passage. Being encouraged by those Representations, he set out with an Army of 125,000 Horse, Kuzzlebash, Georgians, Turks, Khorasanis, Balkhis, &c. all inured to Fatigues and Hardships; they were well provided for this Expedition, and greatly encouraged thereto by the Hopes he gave them, of not only enriching themselves, but bringing Wealth and Glory to their impoverished Country, by the Plunder of India. In ^{*} Attok is the Name of a River, that separates the Province of Labor from Peishor. There is but one Place where an Army can conveniently be transported, the Stream being so rapid in most Parts. There is a Castle commanding that Passage, called the Castle of Attok.

the mean Time, Nazam al Muluck and Saadit Kban used all their Endeavours secretly to promote his Interest, and wrote to Sherzih Khan +, Governor of the Castle of Cabul, and Naçir Khan, Soubahdar of that Province (who was a Creature of Khandoran's) as also to Zekaria Khan, Ruler of the Province of Lahor, to this Purport: 'Nadir Shah, being thoroughly informed of the State of 'Affairs in India, and that his Imperial Mae jesty and favourite Courtiers employ their * Time in Wine and Women, has come to a Resolution to strike a Blow at this Em-'pire. You well know that none of the great Ones here are fit to take the Field. ' much less to resist a Man who is conducted by Fortune. As this is the Cafe, you can have little Hopes of Assistance from 'hence; the best you can do will be to behave discreetly, and save yourselves.' These Letters cooled them pretty much, and had † 'Tis customary in India to have two Governors, one to command the City, and another to command the Castle. The Latter is generally for Life, and he must never stir out of the Castle, unless he is turned out by the Mogbol. The Governor of the City is called Haken, and he who commands the Castle is called stated Kullehdar.

132 The History of

the defired Effect with Nagir Khan and Zekaria Khan.

- Nadir Shab, having subdued Gherbund and Ghoznovi, and garrison'd them with his own' People, came to Cabul and belieged it. Nagir Khan (before his Arrival) had left it, and marched to Peifher; but Sherzih Khan defended both the City and Castle for 6 Weeks with the utmost Bravery, and wrote repeatedly to Navir Khan, and to Court for As. fistance; but none coming, both City and Castle were at last taken by Storm, and he and his Son were put to Death. Nadir Shah found Treasure, Jewels, Arms, &c. to a great Value, which, fince the Great Magbal Babr's Time, had been that up in Vaulta When the Taking of Cabul was known at Court, the Emperor gave Orders to get his Troops in Readiness, and provide all Things necessary for taking the Field. As Rajah Teffing was more attached to Khandoran than to any of the other Omras, he repeatedly wrote to him to this Purport: 'Nadir Shab's 'Coming is a concerted Thing. You must

was a train of the

.

be watchful over the Mogbel Oneres; who seem to be united in order to compass some treacherous Design. Naçir Khan and Sherzib Khan have always been supported by the Court; one has sacrificed his Life to its Interest, and the other (afraid of his Life) has sted to Peisher. If Zekaria Khan, Ruler of Laher, makes any Opposition, it will give the Emperor's Army Time to advance pretty sar, in order to check this Invader; as for us Rajpauts we are ready to join the Royal Ensigns.

Khandoran knowing him to be well-affected, represented this to the Emperor, and told him, it would be very imprudent in him to leave the Capital, and take the Field: However, it was at last agreed, that the Army should march to Labor, that the Emperor should accompany it so far, and that from thence it should proceed towards Cabul, under the Command of Nizam al Muluck, and the other two Omras; for which Purpose,

[†] By the Meghel Omras, he means these of Tartar and Person Pamilies, whom the Indians, without Distinction, call Meghels.

134 The History of the Peishkhana * was ordered out to the Gardens of Shalimar; but after it was fent this ther, to every Body's Surprize, Khandoran came back to the Palace, and delayed the March, whereas Nizam seemed to be for hastening it all in his Power. The Emperor's Servants, who knew Khandoran to be attached to their Master, contrived all the Impediments they could think of, so that Nadir Shab had not only Time to secure Cabul, but was far advanced in his March to Peisbor +. where the Afghans and Mountaineers very much incommoded him, and kept him in Play for Seven Weeks; in which Time he had a great many Men wounded and killed. Seeing there was no forcing the Passes, without much Bloodshed, and that the Afghans had fortified themselves on the Tops of the Hills; he fent them Offers of Accommodation, to which they came into the more readily, as the Soubabdars had fent no Affistance; and that they had been four or five Years without ^{*} Psifikbana fignifies the Tents; &c. that are fentbefore to the Place where the Prince, or General Officer, defigns to halt, or encamp.

⁺ Peissor is 202 measured Coss from Debli, 97 from Laber, and 35 from Attok.

receiving any of their usual Allowance I from Court: Upon Nadir Shah's paying them a certain Sum of Money, they not only let him pass unmolested, but several of them listed in his Army; the other Aghans hearing of this, followed their Example. So, leaving the main Army behind, with 10000 chosen Horse of Kuzzlebash ||, in seven Days Naçir Khan, who with he got to Peishor. 7000 Horse had incamped without the City. not imagining he could get through the Passes so soon, upon hearing of his Approach with so large a Body of Horse, was greatly perplexed; feveral of his Auxiliaries left him, and few besides the King's Men stood by him. who, after a brave Resistance were defeated, $\preceq$ As the Revenues of those mountainous Parts and the Passes, are not sufficient to maintain a requisite Number of Troops for the Desence thereof, there was a certain Sum appointed to be yearly remitted thither, which of late had been neglected.

الماشي Kuzzlebash, are an Order of Soldiers a-mong the Persians, as the Janizaries (or more properly Ingecherris) among the Turks. It signifies, in the Turkish Language, Red Heads, so called from the Red Caps they wore when first instituted by Shekh Heydr, the Father of Shah Ismael first King of the Seffi Family.

and Nacir Khan taken Prifoner. Some Afghans who, waiting the Event, were posted on the Hills, feeing Nadir Shab prevail. come and offered him their Service. this Victory, he entered Peiffor and took Possession thereof. When the News of this Defeat came to Court, Nizam of Muluck. Khanderan, Ksummir o'din Khan, and the other Omras, according to the King's Order, on the second of January, 1738-9, marched out with a numerous Army, a large Train of Artillery, and other warlike Necessaries, in order to oppose this Conqueror; and halted at the Gardens of Shelimer. Nizam, who was the Contriver of this Storm, endeavoured all he could to prepossess the Minds of the Soldiers with a Terror of Nadir Shab's Forces. and how vain it was to relift him; and, at the same Time, amused them to divert their going too far forward: But the King issued out Orders, that Ninam and the other Onras should advance with all Expedition, he himself intending to follow soon after them. Nizam al Muluck, and the rest, according to these Orders, marched on, and encamped in the Plains of Karnel, which is Fifty-Five Cost Coss* distant from Deblic The Emperor wish fet out the 18 of January, 173849, and on the 4th of February joined them.

Nadir Shah having fecured Peiskor, and erossed the Attok, marched directly towards Lahor; Zekaria Khan, Soubabdar thereof, had (to Appearance) fortified the Place in the best Manner possible, and having entrenched himself without, seemed eager to engage the Enemy, but as foon as Nadir Shab's Troops came within Sight of the Intrenchments thaving had his Lesson from Nizam al Muluck) at a Signal given, he and all his Forces retreated to the Castle, from whence they cannonaded the Persians three Days, after which, having capitulated, one of the Conditions being that the City should be spared, a Thousand Kuzzlebash took Possession of the Castle, and Nadir Shah having staid one Week in the Gardens called Shalimar + of that City, he with his whole Army, by continued Marches, arrived at the Village Tillauvri, which is near Karnal ...

^{*} The Cos mentioned here are short computed ones, this Place being no more than 26 measured Coss from Debli.

[†] There are Gardens at Lahor also called Shalimar, as well as at Dehli.

Before I begin with the Journal of Nadir Shah's Transactions, after his Arrival at Karnal, I shall trouble the Reader with Translations of some genuine Letters, which having been wrote before the Persian Army crossed the Attok, I thought this the properest Place for inserting them.

- A Translation of a Letter from Nadir Shah to Mahommed Shah, received the Begining of Jumadi al avul 1151, which is about the Middle of August.
- BE it clear to the enlightened Mind of your high Majesty, that my coming to
- ' Cabul, and possessing myself thereof, was purely out of Zeal for Islâm *, and Friend.
- 's ship for you. I never could have imagin-
- sed that the Wretches + of Deccan should
- impose a Tribute on the Dominions of the
- King of Mussulmen. My Stay on this Side
- · the Attok is with a View, that, when these
- * By Islâm (which literally fignifies Safety) is meant the Mahammedan Religion.
 - & The Maharattas or Ganims.

' Infidels

Infidels move towards Hindostan ‡, I may

- fend an Army of the victorious Kuzzlebash
- to drive them to the Abyss of Hell. Hi-
- flory | is full of the Friendship that has
- fubfisted between our Kings, and your
- ' Majesty's Predecessors. By Ali Mortisa, I
- ' fwear, that (excepting Friendship, and a
- ' Concern for Religion) I neither had, nor
- -have any other Views; if you suspect the
- * contrary you may; I always was, and will
- be a Friend to your illustrious House.'

About the latter End of August, an Embassador came with another Letter, demanding four Crores of Rupees (5,000,000), and four Soubabs or Provinces.

† The Province of Debli, in particular, is called by this Name; but it is generally used to fignify the whole Empire.

Vide Tarikh Alum Arai by Secander Beg in the Life of Shah Thamas, and the first Volume of Akhar Nama in the Life of Hemaiûn.

T 2 A Tran-

n is more an overly mobile of the color

A Translation of some Paragraphs of a Letter wrote by a Kuzzlebash in Nadir Shah's Camp, at Jillalabad, to a Friend of his at Dehli, concerning Nadir Shah.

In E has 36,000 Horsemen with himfelf; Kassum Beg Khan is Nazem Munazem, Mothir al Muluck, and Attimad al Dowlat*; the Son of Maurli, is Aritive Begit. Questions and Answers are entirely managed by these two, and besides them, none have the Power of preferring Petitions, or representing any Thing to him; of the above Army 1000 Horse are Hajee Bashi's, called also Niquibs; and 1000 are Shamkhi , and 1000 are Chaux , who go before, crying out, Victory to the King of Kings; 1000 Horse his special Guards, and

- * Nazem Munazem, the Orderer of what is to be ranged or put in Order; Mother al Muluck, Trust-worthy of the Kingdom; Aitmand al Dowlat, the Security of Fortune; these are the Titles of Kassum Beg Khan, who was Vizir.
- + Arrizbegi is the Person who presents all Petitions, either written, or by Word of Mouth.
 - ‡ Niquibs are much the fame as Corporals.
 - So called from the Place they come from.
 - § Chaux are a Kind of Guards,

- ' 1000 Horse his Jeloudar*, who alight and
- march on Foot close by his Person, but
- in Fight none of them attend him. Who-
- 'ever runs away; or turns his Back is or-
- ' dered to be cut off.
 - ' 5000 Horse are detached with Hajee
- Beg Khan, a Courd+, who is General. At
- s present, we are arrived at Peisbor to fight
- Naveb | Naçir Khan; 1000 Horsemen of
- his own People are along with Juan Kuli
- Beg Baski, and 2000 Ousbeg Horsmen from
- Gunjh, 2000 Horse Rijee, 2000 Horse of
- the Turcomans, and 1000 Horse Kuzzle-
- balk, are under the Command of Sirdar
- Beg Afshar; 4000 Afghan Horse with
- Sef Khan and Shahin Khan, the Officers of
- ' Hossein Khan Governor of Kandahar, and
- 12000 Horse are lately arrived with Nadir
 - 4 Kuli's Son from Balkb, of which 1500 are
 - fent back, and the rest kept. There are † Courd, a Native of Courdistan.

4000

^{*} Jeloudar fignifies, belonging to his Train or Equi-

[†] Navob is a Title frequently given to the Omras in India, derived from the Word Naib, Deputy, fignifying that they are the King's Vicegerents. In Persia 'tis given, among their other Titles, to the Wives, Sons, and Daughters of the Royal Family.

4000 Shop-keepers, Musfulmen, who Trade with the Shah's* Money, he standing to the Loss, if any happens.

'After Morning Prayers, he fits on a

Throne, the Canopy of which is in the Form of a Dome, and of Gold: 1000

'Young Men with Royal Standards of Red-

Silk, and the Lance Tops and Taffels of Silver, are disposed regularly, and at a proper Distance; 500 beautiful Slaves from

"12 to 20 Years old, stand one half on his right Hand, and the other on his left; all' the great Men stand fronting him, and the ' Arrizbegi stands between in a Readiness to represent whatever he is desired, and every Body has his Cause decided at once; Bribery is not so much as known here. He has s particular Information given him of every 'Thing that passes; all Criminals, Great'

and Small, Rich and Poor, meet with immediate Death. He fits till Noon, after which he dines, and then reposes a little;

when Afternoon-Prayers are over, he fits till the Evening Prayers, and when they are Nadir Shah.

over, he shoots five Arrows into the Khake Towda*, and then goes into the Womens Apartments.

- A Translation of a Letter wrote by Sirbullind Khan's Secretary at Dehli, to Mirza Moghol, Son to Ali Mahommed Khan, at Ahmedabad, dated the 15th of Shaval, 1151‡, and received the 6th of Zeecadih, 1151‡. It is a true Account of the State of Affairs at Dehli, and the Reports that were Current there before Nadir Shah's Arrival.
- ADIR SHAH's coming has been talked off these eight Months past, He came to Khandabar, and from thence
- * Khak Towda is a Heap of fine Mold, well fifted, and beat strongly in betwixt two Stone Walls. 'Tis five Foot high, three Foot thick, and from three to four Foot broad. The Front of it very smooth and even, beat hard with a heavy Trowel. One who is well skilled, can shoot his Arrow into it quite to the Head; whereas one that shoots ill (be he never so strong) can't put a third Part in. The Arrows for this Exercise have the Iron Part quite round, about four Fingers long, of the Size of the Reed, until near the Point, where they are somewhat thicker, from which Part they taper gradually to a sharp Point. The Length from the thickest Part to the Point is from $\frac{1}{2}$ to I Inch.

† 15 January 1738-9. ‡ 5 February 1738-9,

to Cabul, which is the Limits of Hind* of which he took Possession; from thence he fent an Ambassador to Mabommed Shah. When we heard here of the Ambassador's coming, and Cabul being taken Possession cf, which was in the Month + Ribby al ' avul. The Emperor's Peishkanna was fen, out for an Expedition against Nadir Shab; which, on Account of the Disharmony of * the Omras, was kept in Suspence. of forty Lacks 4 by Bills at different Times were remitted to Navob Naçir Khan, Sou-' babdar of Peishor, that he, joining with the ' Afghans of that Quarter, might make Head ' against Nadir Shab; the said Navob enlisted 'Men, and prepared to fight, expecting to * be supported by an Army from Shahjebanabad; notwithstanding which, until Rijub; nothing was put in Execution. Nadir Shah at Cabul cultivated a Friendship with the ' Zemidars of that Quarter, and brought over to his Side the Tribe of the Safis, who are famous in those Parts. There were feveral Messages passed and repassed between ' him and Naçir Khan, to whom no Affist-

^{*} Hind, the same as Hindostan.
† June 1738. + 500,000 l. † October 1738.
ance

- ance came from Court; nevertheless he
- fought one good Battle, in which Nadir
- Shab was victorious. The Safis conducted
- him through unufual and short Ways to the
- * City of Peishor, which he took Possession
- of in the Month of Shaban *. Navob Na-
- ' çir Khan, who had run away, was taken
- by the Afgbans, and delivered up to Nadir
- Shab, who kept him confined for some
- Days; but, at last, made him one of his
- Vizirs.
 - 'When this News arrived at Court, on
- * the 1st of Ramazan +, the Emperor sent
- 5 Khandoran, Nizam, and Kummir o'din Khan
- against Nadir Shab; and, besides their own
- " Jaguirs, advanced them one Crore | of
- Rupees out of the Treasury to enlist Men,
- and gave them 700 Carriage-Guns, and
- 4 3000 Harquebusses, and ordered the chief
- 6 Omras to attend them; for which Purpose
- they marched out this Day, and pitched
- All is There is a Discount of the sale City
- their Tents in a Place close by the City, and
- began to enlift Men. Saadit Khan, being
- fent for from his Province to join them, had

* November 1738. † December 3, 1738.

U

already

146 The History of

already crossed the Ganges in his Way to * Court, but was ordered to go buck again, which he did. The Owres have been divided in Opinion and Interest a long Time; for which Reason several unbecoming Mesfages now passed between them. ' Emperor, who consulted Khandwan's Enfe and Pleafure, ordered Wizem at Makek and the Visir to leave him at Court, and they to go on with the Expedition, but they excused themselves. In the mean Time, News was brought, that Nadir Shab (by * Namer Khan's Advice) had put on the Indian Dress, and sat on the Throne in the . Manner of the Indian Emperors, and that his Forces had croffed the Attok, and were on their March to Labor. On this News the Emperor was quite confounded, and, • fending for the Superintendant of the Boats, asked him how many Days it would take to go by Water to Patna or Kaffi Benuris ||, • It being told the Vizir and Nisam al Mu-* het, that the Emperor had fuch a Delign, they petition'd him, that thele Slaves (meaning themselves) might not go upon the Ex-

A City in Bengal, famous for the Indian Worship, and their Colleges there.

• pedition pedition without his fortunate Presence, and that he would refolve to put himfelf at their. Head. Some Days passed in this Debate; at last, it was agreed to fend for Saudit Khan. from his Province to take Care of His Maighty in Shabjehanahad, and that the other Omras should march on towards Laber. Accordingly, on the 20th of Ramazan* one Moured Khan was dispatched to Saudit Khan; in the Road to the Province of Au-* ab some Rebels robb'd him; however, after much Trouble, he got to Saudit Khan, who happened to be then so sick that he could not ftir; with which the Emperor being acquainted, he fent Physicians with Orders to cure him as foon as possible; in the mean while, a Petition arrived from Zekan ria Khon Bahade, Soubahder of Labor, to His 4 Imperial Majosty, and three Letters more to the Navobet, to this Purport: Nadir Shab's Army (which is a great one) is arrived near 5 this Place, and all the Zemidars bane joined bim; I with my little Army am ready to fight bim. You must, by all Means, be ex-

1000 10

^{*} December 22, 1738.

⁺ Nizam, Saadit Khan, and Khanderan.

' jeditious in succouring me, lest Things should be past Remedy.'

' Ieminabad, which is a confiderable Place. and supordinate to Labor, was under Kul-' linier Khan, one of Zekaria Khan's Officers. with a Body of 10000 Horse. Emir Khan, one of Nacir Khan's Dependants, who now had fubmitted to Nadir Shah, with his own People and several Kuzzlebash, made an Attack by Night on the faid Place, in which Kullinder Khan was killed, and Emir Khan posses'd himself of the Place-Nadir Shah's Munaddi t being beat about, and his Government acknowledged there: Upon hearing of this, Zekaria Khan, who had advanced 10 Coss from Labor, with an Army of 20,000 Horse, retired into the City: Upon which News here, on the oth of Shaval*, Khandoran Nizam al Mu-' luck, and Kummir o'din Khan, marched 5 on 10 Cos, and the next Day 10 Cos "more, and so on, that they are now at Sonput, and Nadir Shah is yet in Peishor. .

P. S. Corn prodigious dear, the People distracted.

+ A small Drum that is beat about to notify or proclaim any thing.

Fanuary 9, 1738-9.

A Tran-

made

A Translation of a second Letter from the same Person, dated the 20th of Shaval, received the 8th of Zeccadih, 1151.†

Wrote you the 15th, with an Account of Affairs at Shahjehanahad and Lahor to that Date, and of the Omras being marched as far as Sonput. On the 18th of this Month * arrived News, that Zekaria · Khan (being wrote to so to do by Naçir Khan, Soubabdar of Cabul, now Nadir Shab's Vizir) sent Kefaet Khan, one of his principal Officers, to Nadir Shab, who used him kindly, and presented him with Two Shauls; after some Conference, he sent his own 'Ambassador along with him to Zekaria Khan, who called the Ambassador into his General Divan, and to Appearance spoke very roughly to him, and at last confined him; after which, he marched out of the 'City to fight Nadir Shab's Army: When ' the Fight began, and one Discharge of the Cannon was made, as they were preparing a fecond, the Kuzzlebash and Georgians fell in among them with their Swords, and † . January 20; and February 7, 1738-9. * January 18, 1738-9...

made a great Slaughter. Zekaria Rhim, upon this, retired into the City, and Nadir Shah's Men pursued to fast, that they got in at the same Time. Zekaria Khan went to his own House, and Nadir Shah's Army to the Castle, who was immediately proclaimed there. On this News there was a fad Confusion here. The Emperor, on Thursday the 19th* in the Morning, fent for the young Prince " Sultan Ahmed, who came to wait on him in great Pomp and Splendor, fitting in a Poleki adorped with the richest Jewels; at 'Ten o' Clock he mounted and came out of the Castle with an Intent to go upon the Expedition against Nadir Shab, and made the Prince (whom he had dignified with Titles end nominal Employments) his Hard to and fent him before to the Gardens of Sha-· limar: To-morrow they design to continue their March till they overtake the Omras, to whom they wrote not to advance any further until they join them: Saadit Khan is † Harol fignifies the Vanguard, or any Number of Forces that are fent before the Main Army. The Officer who commands fack a Body is also called Harol.

* Januery 19, 1738-9, on the Banks of the Ganges. Things are in a terrible Confusion here, Numbers of creditable People and Merchants going daily away to distant Places, and to the Rejabs strong Holds; So Knewlebes had their Bellies ript up at Cabel, for only being prefent when some of their own People forced one of the Countrywooden.

A Journal

A Journal of Nadir Shah's Transactions in India, translated from the Original Copy, wrote at Dehli, by Mirza Zuman, Secretary to SirbuHind Khan.

Royal Camp*, in Circuit about feven Coss, was pitched in the Fields of Karnal; it was surrounded with Mourchas +, on which were mounted near 5000 Carriage Guns, belonging to the Emperor and the Omras. In the Centre was the Emperor himself, and fronting him were Nizam al Muluck's and Saad o'din Khan's Mourchas, on which were mounted the Emperor's own Ordnance, attended by the Train belonging thereto: on the Right Hand were Khandoran, Mazusfer Khan, Ali Hamed Khan, Mir Gullou, Shebdad Khan, [§] February 11, 1738-9.

^{*} The Great Moghol's Camp.

[†] Mourcha fignifies Barricadoes, but generally the Intrenchments and Breast-works about a Camp, or any other Post.

and Kban Zurman Kban: on the Left. Kummir a'din Khan, Azim Allab Khan. Fani Khan, and Seyd Neaz Khan; behind the Emperor was posted, Sirbullind Khan, and in the Rear of all was Mahommed Khan Bungush; behind Khandoran was Kirpa Ram. with the Faats 1, and behind the Vizir, was Hernind Annul Kowtpoutli; on the Right, glose by the Nakar-Khanna S, were the Men of Babroz Khan, Ishak Khan, and Asslib All Khan; behind them was the Station of the Ahiers | ; each of these Omras had his own proper Army, and the whole Number encamped amounted to 200,000 Horse and Foot. This same Day News was brought, that Hajee Khan, Nadir Shah's Kurrol*, had advanted as far as the Village Tillauvri (which is five Cols from hence) with a Party of 6000 Horse, all Courds: On the in the right the site it.

The Jaats are a Tribe of Rajpouts.

§ The Place where all the Drums and Warlike Mufick are kept.

The Abeers are another Tribe of the Rajpouts.

* Kurrol fignifies the advanced Guard that goes before the Main Army; also the Officer that commands such a Body. It is the same as Harol already explained.

13th+, fome Kuzzlebash Horsemen appeared at different Quarters of the Camp, and killed and took Prisoners several People, who were coming from the Out-Parts thereto; four of the Kuzzlebash were likewise taken and brought to Nizam al Muluck. On the 14th 1, Nadir Shab having left one Boungab || at Shahabad (which is one Stage from Serbind) and a fecond at Tanifeer, he advanced with 40,000 Horse, partly Lancemen, Archers and Musqueteers, to the Village Tillauvri, each Horseman having two and some three Attendants, Grooms, and Camel-drivers, all robust young Men, compleatly armed and mounted, fome on Camels some on Mules, and others on Yabous §, not one in his whole Army being on Foot, even those who followed the Camp, and trafficked for Necessaries to the Men, were compleatly armed and mounted, the Number of all amounting to near 160,000. In the Time of Action the Master could not be distinguished from the Servant, nor the Tradesmen and Trassickers belonging to the Camp, from the common Soldiers, all in general being bold and resolute, and well qualified to execute the most desperate Attempt they could be employed in: There were also about 6 or 7000 Women, who had been taken Captives from the Turks and in Kandabar, who on a March could not be distinguished from the Soldiers, having a Baranni * over their own Cloaths, girt round with a Girdle, their Faces veiled with a fine Cloth, a Shaul folded round their Heads in Form of a Turban, and booted and armed as the Men.

6 Yabous are a Sort of small Horses, which are very hardy and serviceable.

⁺ February 12, 1738-9. ‡ February 13, 1738-9. # Boungab fignifies the Baggage, and all the Furniture appertaining to a Camp.

This Day several Messengers came to Nizam al Muluek with Offers of an Accommodation, all which he rejected, and would hear of nothing but War.

On the 15th , Nadir Shab, being necessitated for Water, marched from Tillauvri, and encamped in a Place flanking Khandoran's Rear, at a Distance of four Coss. This Morning Saadit Khan arrived in the Camp, and went to wait on the Emperor. About ^{*} Barranni fignifies a Cloak to cover one from the Rain, being derived from Barran, Rain,

100

February 14, 1738-9.

nine o' Clock News was brought that his Attendants + and Baggage (some of whom were at a Distance behind, and others had pitched. their Tents without the Mourchas, between Nadir Shah's Camp, and Khandoran's Rear). had been attacked, and several of them killed, and plundered by the Perfuns Van. Saadit Khan, upon hearing this, left the Dirbar 1, and (with all Expedition) marched to his People's Affistance. Khandoran beingnigh, he, with his two Sons, and the rest of his Troops, joined him; as did also Mazuffer Khan, Seyd Hossan Khan, Khan Zuman Khan, Mîr Gullou, Shehdad Khan, Afflih ali Khan, &c. in all Twenty-two Omras and General Officers, each with a Body of his own Men. Nadir Shab, who had just then arrived

Nadir Shab, who had just then arrived from Tillauvri, being apprized of this Affair, advanced towards that Quarter, and de-[†] Mahommed Reza Khan, Saadit Khan's Bukhshi, or Paymaster and General, was the Person first attacked by sour or sive hundred Kuzulehash; several of his Men were killed, and was taken Prisoner.

[†] Dirbar fignifies literally, the Door of Admittance, being a Word composed of Dir, Door, and J. Bar, Admittance. 'Tis the common Name for the King's or a Governor's Palace.

mehod 1000 Coards, 1000 Kajirs | , 1000 Bakbtiaris, and 1000 Harquebusers, in all 4000 Horse, 3000 of whom he planted in three different Places in Ambush, 500 Harquebulers he fent towards Saadit Khan, and the other 500 towards Khandoran to draw them into the Field; in which having succeeded, the Horsemen who lay in Ambush poured in upon them in three different Places. and engaged them in a most obstinate Manner. Besides these 4000 none else of Nadir Shab's Men joined in that Action, excepting that he himself, attended by 1000 Affhar Horse, rode to and from all Quarters to encourage and direct these Men: The Rest of the Army (according to his Order) stood drawn up at a Distance, each Nation separate, ready at a Signal to come to his Affistance; but, as it happened, there was no Occasion for them: these 4 or 5000 having fought obstinately until near the Evening, when the Emperor's Forces gave Ground, Saadit Khan, Sheerjing, and Khandoran's youngest Son, were taken Prisoners; Khandoran, having received feveral mortal

 Kajirs are a Tribe of Tarcomans, and the Backhtiaris, or Bastrians, are so called from Bakhtir, or Bastria, the Place they come from.

Wounds,

Wounds, was carried back to his Quarters, Mazuffer Khan, with several other Officers, were killed; and some mortally wounded returned to their Camp, Seyd Hosfan Khan, being wounded, marched towards Debli; and great Numbers lay dead in the Field of Battle *.

When those who fled from the Engagement returned back, there was a great Tu-

* In a Letter that was wrote from Mahammed Shab's, Camp, a Day after the Engagement, it is faid, that Nadir Shah fought with 50,000 Horse: And when Khandoran and Mazuffer Khan came with their Forces. he divided his Men into Three Bodies, and at last routed the Moghol's Army. Saadit Khan's and Sherjing's Elephants getting foul of each other, the Kuzzlebash surrounded and took them Prisoners. Khanderan received a Bullet in his Arm, and another in his Side. - Mazuffer Khan was killed, jumping from his Elephant. - Mir Gullou, Shehdad Khan, Akhlass Khan, Eadgar Khan, and Khandoran's eldeft Son, were killed. Akul beg-Khan Kumlpoish, with his Son, and Abdal Rizak Khan, and Jaffer Khan, with his Son and Brothers; and Sirdâr Muluck were wounded. Mirza Khoudabunda. Grandson to the Great Mobabit Khan, was killed .- Khan. Zuman Khan was wounded by a Bullet in his Throat,— Ghazi beg Khan was also wounded .- On Nadir Shah's Side, Seven principal Officers, and 2500 Men were killed, and about 5000 wounded with Swords, Cuttarri's, and Bullets.

mult

must and Noise in the Camp, and most of the Tents and Effects of Khandoran, Mazuffer Khan, Saadit Khan, &c. were plundered by their own People.

Amidst this Confusion the Emperor went towards Nizam al Muluck's Mourcha, who was in the Front, and in Conjunction with the Vizir and other Omras, went without the Mourchas, and drew up their Men in a Line of Battle, with a Design to put a Stop to the Enemies advancing any farther; but, had not the Night come on, these Precautions would have served them in little Stead, and that Day would have put an End to the whole Affair. About an Hour after Sun-set the Emperor returned back to his Tent.

Several of those who escaped out of the Field, as also those who attended the Baggage and Carriages, sled towards Debli; a great many of whom were killed and plundered in the Way.

The Camp in some Places was very thin of Men, insomuch that when at Midnight, the Emperor sent for Nizam al Muluck, the Space from his Mourcha to the Emperor's Tent (which is about three Quarters of a Coss) was found entirely empty.

Nizam

159

Nivam al Muhuck, Sirbulind Khan, Kummir o'din Khan, and all the other Omnas ahat were left, staid with the Emperor in deep Confultation until pear the Morning, when each returned to his own Quanters.

On the 16th , finding the Camp to thin, and being apprehensive of the Kuzzlebasis attacking them, they contracted the Circuit thereof, and their Mourchas into the Compass acquisite to contain the Number of Troops they had lest, which was the Space between the Emperor's Tent and Mizzon's Mourcha, and there they stood under Arms the whole Day, every Minute expessing the Enemy's Approach. Towards the Evening a final Tent was pitched for the Emperor, and all the Troops were disposed of to their respective Posts, where they continued under Arms the whole Night, and their Horses saddled, without either Hay or Corn.

The 17th ||, also passed in Fear and Anxiety. This Day, according to an Order from Nadir Shab, Saaist Khan sent for his own Men and Baggage; some of them who were scattered up and down the Camp, went to him carrying along with them all that escaped being plundered of his Horses and other Effects. Nadir Shab had ordered a Tent to be pitched not far from his own Quarters, for Saadit Khan, Shering, and Khandoran's Son; their Baggage and Attendants he gave a Place to, without his Camp; none durst so much as come to see them, nor were they allowed to make use of any of their own Necessaries.

The 15th of February. | The 16th Ditto.

On the 18th +, Nizam al Muluck* and Azim Alla Khan went to accommodate Matters to Kadir Shab's Camp; after a Stay of fix Hours, they returned back; what they might have done there, was kept a Secret. Towards the Close of the Evening, Khandoran died of the Wounds he had received.

† February 17, 1738-9.

^{*} Nizam al Muluck, with Azim Allah Khan, and feveral Horsemen, went out, and pitched a small Tent betwixt the two Camps, to which Nadir Shah's Aitmaud al Dowlat, or Vizir (Kassum Beg Khan) came, and from thence conducted him to his Master, who embraced him sitting, and made him stand honourably, close by himself; he gave him a Cup of Sherbat, and made him eat at the Vizir's House; after which it was agreed, that Mahommed Shah should come and see Nadir Shah.

The 19th + also past in Deliberation, and at Night, Nizam al Muluck received a Khalaet ‡, on being appointed Mir Bakhshi || and Emir al Omra.

On the 20th * in the Morning the Corps of Khandoran was carried out of the Camp to the Village Karnal, and the Emperor fitting in a Royal Litter §, with a Canopy and an Umbrella, one led Horse and a Drum, attended by Ghazi o'din Khan, Azim Allah Khan, the Vizir's Son, and several Eunucks, with about 200 Horse, marched out of the Camp, and when he had gone a little Way, by a Sign he forbad the Horsemen to accompany him any farther; then with his Eunuchs and the abovesaid Omras (each of whom had not above two or three Seriants to attend him) he went on to Nadir Shab's Camp;

when

⁺ The 18th of February.

[†] Khalaet, a Present of a rich Vest, Arms, &c.

Mir Bukhshi, or Chief Bukhshi, fignifies Paymaster General, who commonly commands all the Forces. Emir al Omra, signifies Prince of Princes, a Title given to the Favourite Minister, who thereby becomes Head Omra.

^{*} The 19th of February.

[§] The Word in the Original is Color Takht Revan, or a moving Throne.

when he was about half Way, Thamas Khan Vakeel+came to meet him, and did him the usual Honours. Afterwards, Nesr Allab Mirza, Nadir Shah's Son, who came in a Royal Litter, having alighted, paid his Respecies, according to the Form ‡ of his Country. The Emperor ordering his own Litter to be set down, embraced Nesr Allah Mirza, after which, they both marched on until they came as far as the Train of Ordnance; here all the Attendants were obliged to stay behind, only the Emperor with two or three Eunuchs and the Omras abovementioned, were allowed to pass; when they came to the Door of the Royal Tent, and the Emperor was alighted, Nadir Shab came forth to receive him, having embraced him, he feated him close by himself, on the same Mushidd; after the accustomary Forms of Salutation, and the Enquiry after each other's ⁺ Vakeel signifies Agent, also Factor.

[†] Not in so submissive a Manner as is done at the Moghol's Court.

^{*} Mufuidd is a particular Place in the Divan, commonly higher than any other, and large enough for two or three People to fit thereon. It is spread with a better and softer Carpet than any other Part, and is covered over with fine Linnen.

' led in your Dominions.

Health were over, Nadir Shab address'd him thus:

'It is strange that you should be so unconcerned and regardless of your own Affairs, that notwithstanding I wrote you several Letters, sent an Ambassador, and testified a Friendship for you, your Ministers should not think proper to send me a satisfactory Answer; and by Reason of your Want of Command and Discipline over your own People, one of my Ambassadors so contrary to all Laws, has been kil-

'Even when I entered your Empire, you 'feemed under no Concern for your Affairs, 'nor so much as fent to ask who I was, or 'what was my Design. When I advanced 'as far as Labor, none of your People came 'with a Message or Salutation, nay not with 'an Answer to my Salutation to you: Afterwards, when your Omras were awaked 'out of their Lethargy and Indolence, they 'prevented all Means of a Reconciliation; 'and coming tumultuously with an Intent to stop my farther Progress, they brought them-

The Ambassador was killed on the Peisbor Side of the Attok, by some rebellious Rajpouts.

themselves into one general Snare, without having the Fore-fight to leave any behind, who upon an Emergency could make Head, and retrieve their Affairs. Besides this, you s have foolishly cooped yourselves up in your Meurchas, not confidering that if your Enemy was stronger, you could not remain within these Barricadoes without either Water or Grain; and if he was weaker. 'twas both unnecessary and disgraceful to fuffer yourselves to be besieged by him; befides, if you thought lightly of him, and 'imagined him a rash inconsiderate Man, without exposing your own Person and Res putation fo much, you ought to have detached a faithful and experienced Officer, who, in a little Time might have found Means to distress and cut him off; but if you dreaded his Experience and Conduct, you had still the less Reason (after provoking him thus far) to venture your All at one Blow. Even, when you had thus entangled yourself, I sent you Offers of an Accommodation, but you was so puffed up with your own childish Conceits, and foolish Resolutions, that you would not give Ear to any honourable Overtures, or confult

166 The History of

fult your own Interest; until at last, but the Affiltance of the Creator of the World, and the Strength of the Arms of the vidtorious Warriors, you have from what has han-'pened. Moreover, your Predeceffors were wont to take the Yexish * from the Infi-'dels, and you in your Reign have given it. to them, having, in these twenty Years, fuffered the Empire to be overrun by them. ' But as hitherto the Race of Temur have 'not injured or milbehaved towards the " Seffi Family, and the People of Perfia; F chall not take the Empire from you, only as your Indolence and Pride have obliged one to march for far, and that I have been one to an extraordinary Expense, and my 'Men, on Account of the long Marches, are much fatigued, and in Want of Necessaries; 'I must go to Debli, and there continue some Days, until the Army is restreshed, and the ' Peifhoush, that Naxam al Muluck has agreed to, is made good to me; after that, I shall Leave you to look after your own Affairs. Mahommed Shah gave no Answer during the whole Speech, but was fixed in a Silence, ^{*} Jeziah is a Poll-Tax levied on all who were not Mahommedans, especially the Hindu's.

which

167

which testified a good deal of Confusion and Shame.

To this Discourse, there was none present but Yavead Khan, Bebroz Khan, and Ghazi a'din Khan; towards Evening the Amperor returned back to his own Camp, and feveral of his Officers having represented to him, that the Banians made the Grain very dear. he ordered their Shops to be plundered, which, instead of mending the Matter, very much increased the Dearth of Provisions. On the 21st*, in the Morning, Nixam al Muluck, the Vizir, Asim Allah Khan, and Ghazi o'din Khan, went to Nadir Shah: On their taking Leave to return, Nizam was honoured with a prefent of a Coat, Vest, and a Horse; the Visir, Assim Allah Khan, and Ghazi o'din Khan, each with a Coat and Vest: at nine o' Clock at Night, they waited on Mabonmed Shab, and communicated to him what had passed in their Conference, which was not made publick: That fame Day the Emperor ordered 500 Beldars to bury the Corps of those who fell in the Field of Battle, the Number of whom were found to be 17000, all of the Hindoftan Army, and the

The aoth of Reheusty.

Bodies lay spread over the Space of seven Colsy the said Beldars having strewed a little Earth on some of the Carcasses, returned back. It was reported that 400 of Nadir Shab's People sell in Battle, and that 700 were wounded, but of those that were killed not one was to be seen in the Field, they having buried them that same Night. Of the Hindostan Army, several were wounded in such a Manner, that they were not able to stir, nor had any the Compassion to bring them off the Field of Battle to be cured, so that in a little Time they expired among the rest of the dead Bodies; three Elephants were also killed.

On this Day (which is the 21st*) there: was no Grain to be had without great Trouble, and that at the Rate of 1 and 1½ Seers ‡ of Wheat, per Rupee, and 2 to 4 Rupees: per Seer of Ghee +; the Reason of which was, that since the Day of Battle, the Camp

* February 20, 1738-9.

1 A fingle Seer, which they call Seer Cacha, is 14. Ounces, 15 3 Drams; but the Seer mentioned here is a Seer Pucca of 1 lb. 13 Ounces, 15 1 Drams.

⁺ Ghee is only Butter well boil'd and skimm'd, which is preferved in Jars, and keeps fweet a long Time, especially if a little Salt is put at the Bottom of the Jar.

was

was in a Manner befieged, and no Provisions allowed to come to them, nor durft any of the Soldiers go without their Mourchas. In Nadir Shah's Camp (as they went out a foraging for 30 or 40 Coss round) Wheat was sold at the Rate of 12 Seers for a Rupee.

The Numbers of those killed since the Battle, on the Roads and round about the Country, by Nadir Shah's Men, when they went out a Marranding, amounted to 14 or 15000 Men.

On the 22d Kassum Beg Khan came from Nadir Shah's Camp, and stayed with Nizam al Muluck until the Evening.

Mir Hossan Khan (who being wounded in the Battle, set out for Shah Jebanabad) being afraid of the Dangers upon the Road, returned back, and came to the Camp this Day.

On the 23d*, the Camp was removed to the Side of Karnal, opposite to Nadir Shab's. Army. In their March, the Kuzzlebash Horsemen carried off 27 Elephants, and 25 Camels, and in the Night Time, discharged a great many Guns.

The 21st of February. * The 22d Ditto.

On the 24 +, Nizam being fent for, went to Nadir Shab's Camp, where he with five or fix of his Attendants were kept.

Several of the Kuzzlebash being sent against Taniseer, having plundered the said Place, and slaughter'd the Inhabitants, returned with a great Booty.

In Mahommed Shah's Camp, what Grain was to be had, was fold from 2 to 3 Rupers per Seer, and whoever went to Nadir Shab's Camp, were allowed to buy as much as they confumed there, but not to carry any away. About 8 o' Clock at Night, the Vizir received a Firman (or Order) from Nadir Shab, to this Import, 'Kummir o'din Khan 'Vixir, Know, that To-morrow Mahommed Shah, Sirbulind Khan, Mahammed Khan Bungulb, and Azim Allah Khan, shall come into the Presence *, therefore look well after your People, that they be not dispersed or straggle abroad; when you ' have secured that Point, come you hitheralfo.' When the Emperor was appriz'd of this, he fent for Sirbullind Khan, and all the other Omras, with whom he held Council

* 'Tis common in the East, instead of Court, to use the Word غفور Hazour, the Presence; and likewise the Word حضرت Hazerit, Presence, to signify Majesty.

until

+ The 23d Ditto.

until Midnight; at last the Emperor declared that Affairs were now gone beyond his Power, and that he must do one of three Things; To-morrow to march out and make one desperate Push, to determine his Fortune at once; or put an End to all Thoughts and Misery by a Dose of Poison; or else submit peaceably, to what Terms may be imposed. The Emperor's Inclination (tho' he did not then declare it) was for the last of these.

On the 25th ‡, Sirbullind Khan, Mahommed Khan, &cc. were ready each with his own Men, that in Case the Emperor should. make a Push, they might not be unprepared, and if on submitting, he should go to Nadir Sbab, and bid them come, they should follow his Fate. But neither one nor the other of these Resolutions was fixed on that Day; Grain was not to be had on any Terms, and old carrion Beef, notwithstanding there was a great deal of it, was fold, 12 Seers, for a Rupee. At Night, arrived a Note from Nadir Shab to this Effect: 'Sirbullind Khan, be of good Chear, and perfectly composed, get yourself hither before Mahommed Shah fets out.

The 24th Ditto.

On the 26th ||, Sirbullind Khan, having obtained Leave, marched towards Nadir. Shah's Camp, and, according to an Order, leaving his Men and Baggage on the Righthand thereof, he, with Khan Zad Khan, three Horsemen and four or five Servants entered the Camp, and pitched a small Tent for himself near the Bargah*, close by Saadit Khan's Quarters.

About nine o' Clock that Morning, Mabommed Shah (according to an Order) being feated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy and . Umbrella, fet out for Nadir Shab's Camp. attended by Emir Khan, Ishak Khan, and fome Eunuchs. On his Arrival he alighted at a Tent, which had been pitched the Day before, by Nadir Shah's Order, for that Purpose, in the Front of the Camp, where he was allowed to have as many of his Domesticks of all Sorts as were necessary, and 1000 Kuzzlebalb Horsemen were detached as Guards around him. About 8 o' Clock in the Evening, Mahommed Shab, being called, went to wait on Nadir Shab; after Three Hours

[|] The 25th Ditto.

^{*} Bargah fignifies, the Place of Admittance, or the publick Divan, where Audience is generally given.

Hours Stay he returned to the Camp, and and there was an Order that none of the Omras should be allowed to go to see him.

On the 27th +, Sirbullind Khan, being called, went to Nadir Shah's Dirbar +, he was ordered to attend the Towpchi Bashi || and the Nissikhchi Bashi *, who had each 200 Horse, and that, with the Assistance of Saad o'din Khan, the Towpchi Bashi should seize all the King's and Omras Ordnance; and the Nissikhchi Bashi, with Kummir o'din Khan's Help, the Treasury, Jewels, Toishik-khanna +, and all the other Implements and Arms that belonged to the Emperor and the deceased Omras, and to send to Mahommed Shah, his Son Sultan Ahmed, and Malika al Zumani §, the Empres, and to give Orders to Kummir

⁺ The 26th of February.

[‡] Dirbar, fignifies the King's or Governor's Palace.

[|] Towpchi Bashi, the Master of the Ordnance.

^{*} Nissikhchi Bashi, literally, Head Regulator, or Manager, an Officer who is generally sent to regulate Disorders, and make Seizures.

⁺ Toishik-khanna, where all Arms, warlike Furniture, Implements, &c. are kept.

[§] Malika al Zumani, literally the Queen of the Times, Mahommed Shah's Empress.

174 The History of

o'din Khan and Saad o'din Khan, that all the Emperor's old Servants and Soldiers be continued in their Places, and brought along with them, but to let the Babeers || and new enlifted Men go where they please.

Accordingly they went and seized all these Things, and sent the Emperor's Son, with Malika ul Zumani, and the rest of the Mable (according to Nadir Shab's Orders) to Mabommed Shab.

This Day there were great Disorders and Confusion in Mahommed Shah's Boungab, infomuch that a great many Things were plundered and lost, and several out of Fear leaving their Tents and Effects, ran to and fro looking out for a Corner to secure their Lives, especially the Artisans and Servants.

On the 28 +, Mahommed Shah, with his Men and Baggage, leaving only the Ordnance behind, went towards Nadir Shah's Camp:

Baheers, People employed for carrying Baggage.

^{*} Mahl fignifies a Place, but particularly where the Women are kept. It is also called Harram, (i. e. prohlbited, or unlawful, in Regard to Men) and in Turkey 'tis called Serai, which fignifies the same as Mahl. The Women therein are also called Mahl, which is the Signification it bears here.

⁺ The 27th of February.

In the Way he discharged the Baheers and new listed Men, letting them go where they pleafed. The Omras and the Emperor's old Servants, according to an Order for that Purpose, took up their Quarters at one Side of the Camp, being separated by a small Rivulet. The Effects of Mahommed Shab and the Omras which were brought, were put into Nadir Shab's Poffession, and having picked out 200 Cannon with their Carriages out of Mahommed Shab's Ordnance, they fent them with some Treasure and other Effects then feized (accompanied by 1000 Horsemen, which belonged to the Emperor's Train of Artillery, and 2000 Kuzzlebash) to Cabul, to be from thence carried to Kandahar.

This Day Nadir Shah gave three Months pay as a Gratuity to every Man in his Army, Soldiers, Servants, Attendants, &c. just as he had done before at Kandahar, upon taking it.

On the 29th ‡, in the Morning, Thamas Khan Vakeel, was dispatched to Shahjehanabad, with 4000 Horse and Musqueteers to take Possession of the Castle; as was also Saadit Khan for the Sase-guard and Care of the City, and the Houses and Effects of the Omrail, and Azim Allah Khan, for the Superintentiency of the River, each with his own Men and Baggage, and several Nishkhchi Horsemen; they were strictly ordered to prevent any Harm or Damage being done to the Inhabitants of the City. Sirballind Khan, being ordered, went to his own Boungah.

¹ The 28th Ditto.

On the 1st of Zelbujb ||, Nadir Shab began to prepare for his March to Shabjehanabad, and at four next Morning he set out, attended by 20000 choice Horsemen; 4000 Harquebusers were detached as a Kouruck * for that separate Quarter, where the Mehl marched, betwixt which and the Army, there was a Distance of near one Coss, no Soul on Pain of Death, either of the Persians or Indians, being allowed to pass that Way; each Party marched at the Distance of one

| The Ist of March.

Arrow

^{*} Kouruck. When the King's Women in Perfia go out any where, a Number of Men go before-hand to those Places through which they are to pass, to signify the same, that no Body may appear there; the Women are guarded by armed Eunuchs, and sometimes by a Body of Soldiers at a Distance, who if they find any Man or Boy in the Way, will kill him, or, at least, drubb him very severely; and this is called the Kouruck.

Arrow shot from the other. Mahommed Shah with 40 or 50 of his principal People, and about 10000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen, and 2000 Harquebusers, followed Nadir Shab at a Distance of one Cos: On one Side was Sirbullind Khan, with his own Men and Baggage, next him the Men and Baggage of Mabonmed Shab; on another Side were the Men and Baggage of Nizam of Muluck, and Kummir o'din Khan, and next them Mahommed Khan Bungush with his Men and Baggage, each Party separated by a Distance of 1 and some 2 Cos, and between them marched Kuzzlebash Horsemen to prevent their joining, and make each Party march the Way that was appointed for them. The Compass of Ground they covered in their March was five Coss in Length and three in Breadth, and this Method was observed every Days March.

After five Days continual Marching they came to Sonput; there were several Villages in the Way which they not only plundered, but likewise killed a great many of the Inhabitants. Paniput and Sonput were also sack'd.

A a

Qn

On Tuesday the 6th of Zelbujh +, they marched from Sonput, and came to Nirela. In the Beginning of the Night, Sirbulkind Khan, having feign'd an Indisposition, had Leave to go before to the City, and on the Morning he arrived at his own House.

On Wednefday the 7th ‡, Nadir Shab arrived at the Gardens called Shallimar.

On Thursday the 8th ||, Makenemed Shab, by Nadir Shab's Order, being seated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy and Umbrella, two Standards, about 200 Horse and Foot of his own Servants, and 4000 Kuzukebash Horsemen, entered the Castle. After which they gave him a Place near Aeysh Mabl*. Nadir Shab, having heard, that the People of the City were of a seditious and turbulent Temper, did not care to enter in the Night Time. But this Morning, attended by 20,000 Horse, he marched with all the Caution imaginable to the Castle, seaving the rest of his Army encamped without the City:

After

[†] The 6th of March.

† The 7th Ditto.

^{*} Acyfe Mahl, fignifies the Place of Joy, one of the Apartments in the Castle. The Place they gave Mahommed Shah near it, was Suliman Bourge, or Solomon's Tower.

After he had alighted, Mahommed Shab came to congratulate him, and they breakfasted together. They were in Conversation until the Evening, during which Time Nadir Shah behaved with the greatest Complaisance and feeming Affection to him. He issued out Orders in the most peremptory Manner to prevent the Soldiers wronging or infulting any of the Inhabitants, and enjoined the Ni/fikhthis, who have the Inspection of these Things, to spare no Punishments, such as cutting off Ears and Nofes, and bambooing to Death, whoever molested the Indians; for which Reason none of the Kuzzlebash, either high or low, durst injure any of the Natives; but most of the People were so frighten'd at the terrible Aspect of these Men, and the barbarous Figure † they made, that they avoided (as much as possible) having any Dealings or Conversation with them.

On the 9th ‡ at Night, Nadir Shab, having called Saadit Khan before him, spoke

† The Persians, however polite and luxurious, in Regard to the more Western Nations, are but rude and hardy, as to their Apparel, Diet, and Living, in Comparison with the delicate India Mogbals, and the Persians, who have lived some Time in that Empire.

† The 9th of March.

Aa a with

with a great deal of Warmth and Passion in Regard to the collecting the Peisbeush | Money, and used some hard Words to him. At four o' Clock next Morning, Saadit Khan, who had been for some Time weak and indisposed, departed this Life. Some imagine he died thro' Anger for the Usage he met with, and others are of Opinion Jealousy provoked him to take Poison.

On Saturday, which was the 10th * of the Moon, and the Eid Zoba (or Feast of Sacrifice) after five Gburris, and thirty Pulb +, the Sun entered Aries. This Morning Sirbullind Khan (being called) went to the Castle, where with Thamas Khan Vakeel, Mustapha Khan Arrizbegi, Nizam al Muluck, and Kummir o'din Khan, he staid the whole Day, deliberating on Means for collecting the Peisbcush Money. This Day at Noon, Thamas Khan had sent nine Nissikbebi Horsemen towards Pahr Gunjh ‡, to order the opening of the Granaries, and settle the

[|] This was a Present of a Crore of Rupees, which Nizam had agreed should be paid to Nadir Shab.

^{*} The 10th of March.

⁺ Two Hours, and twelve Minutes after Sun-rife...

¹ Pahr Gunjb, the Place where Corn is fold.

Price of the Corn: Being arrived there, they cansed them to be opened, and Wheat was fold ten Seers for a Rupee: As this Price did not turn to the Proprietors Account, towards Evening they affembled the Mob ||, and a great many disaffected People joining them. they killed the abovefaid Nishkbcbis with feveral Kuzzkbafb, who had come over to buy Corn. After Sun-set they spread a Report that Nadir Shab was taken Prisoner. and some said he was poisoned, on which the Mob and Turnult exceeded all Bounds, all the idle Vagabond and disaffected People joining from all Quarters, with what Arms they could most readily find, poured like a Torrent towards the Castle. Of those of Nadir Shah's Troops, who were posted without at the Foot thereof, some retired within, and others went towards the Reti*. (which is the Place 'twixt the Castle and River) and several of them were cut off-Those of the Kuzzlebasb who had taken up their Quarters in Kbandoran's Palace and other great Houses, kept a strict and careful Guard the whole Night; several Cannon, Harquebuses and Musquets were discharged from the Castle and the said Houses, to keep the Mob at a Distance; all this Time they were increasing, and became more and more surious: Seyd Neau Khan, Son-in-Law to Kunwir edin Khan, had shut up in a Room several Nishbebis (whom he had taken before, as a Sase-guard to his House) and now set Fire to it.

[|] The Promoters of the Mob were Seyd Neaz Khan, Sheh Soar Khan, the Son or Relation of Kourrib Khan, and Raiban Nazr.

^{*} Reti fignifies Sand, in the Indoftan Language.

On Sunday the 11th $\psi$, about eight o' Clock in the Morning, when the Turnule was in its Height, Nadir Shab being highly provoked, walked out of the Castle, and mounting his Horse, went from thence towards Chandni Clock $\psi$, to quell the Mob, who were committing great Disorders in that Quarter, and in the Way perceiving a great many of the Bodies of his own People, who had been killed in the Night, he sent a strong Party to endeavour to suppress them, and in-Case Threatning and fair Means were in-effectual, he licensed them to cut them off, but on no Account to injure others who were

⁺ The 11th of March.

I The Name of a Square Bazar.

At first, they proceeded not concerned. gently, which instead of appearing the Mob. made them more bold and infolent, and without the least Aw, they began to discharge Fire-Arms, and Arrows, at them, Nadir Shab went into the Missid | of Roisbin, al Dowlat, which is near the Cutual's & Chabeutre *; the Inhabitants near that Missi iid got upon their Terrasses, and began to throw Stones, and either from one of these Terrasses, or a Window thereabouts, a Mulquet was defignedly that at Nadir Shab, which miffing him, killed one of his Officers who stood next him: This made him give Way to his Passion, and order a general Slaughter to be commenced from that very Place; the Soldiers in an Instant getting upon the Walls and Terraffes, began to plunder and kill. This bloody Scene extended from

.

Misjid is what is vulgarly called a Mosque.

[§] The Cutual is a Magistrate who, in all Cities, has the Care of punishing those who drink or sell intoxicating Liquors, and keep disorderly Houses; with several other Affairs, which are not of Consequence enough to be brought before the Governor.

[·] Chaboutra signifies a Tribunal.

184 The History of

the Serafa Ardui +, which is before the Castle. to the old Eidgab 1, which is three Coss Distance, and on one Side as far as Jittli Tomb. and on the other as far as the Tobacco Mandavi and Poul Meetai ||. The whole Streets of the Bazar, and the Allies and Wards on all Sides, the Khanum's Bazar, and round about the Yamib Misjidd*, and the Cotton and Tewellers Bazars, were all plundered, several Places they fet on Fire, and whomfoever they found in the Wards and Houses, Streets, Allies and Shops, Great and Small, Men and Women, they put to the Sword, even the Brute Creatures did not escape their Fury; several Women were made Prisoners. Ali Khan, the Officer who was appointed to flaughter and plunder towards the Square of Saad Allah Khan and Debli Gate, when he came as far as Sirbullind Khan's House, he in a great Surprize and Fright, came out to meet

the

⁺ Serafa Ardui, where all the Bankers and Money-Changers, belonging to the King and his Army, have their Shops.

[†] Eidgab, the Place where all the People affemble to Prayers, on the Two great annual Eids or Festivals.

[|] Poul Meetai, a Bridge so called, because there are a great many Consectioners Shops thereon.

Jamib Misjid, the Cathedral, or great Mosque.

the said Officer, and representing to him, that the People of that Quarter were not to blame, he made him desist and stop his Men, on promising they should pay a Sum of Money. But in other Places the Slaughter, Plundering and Burning went on in a most barbarous. Manner

Madir Shah, after he had given the Orders, returned back to the Castle; about two of Clock Mahommed Shah and Nizam al Muluck waited on him, who having made great Intercession for the City, the Soldiers were ordered to desist, and it was proclaimed by Beat of Drum, that none of the Inhabitants should be any longer molested.

The Slaughter continued from eight in the Morning till three in the Afternoon; above 400 Kuzzlebash were killed, and of the Citizens (great and small) 120,000 were slaughtered, others computed them 150,000. What Treasure and Effects were plundered, some Nadir Shab had, and a great deal was destroyed by the Fire. In several of the Hindu Houses, where one of a Family survived, he used to pile thirty or forty Carcases a-top of one another, and burn them; and so they did in the Streets; notwithstanding which B b there still remained so many, that, for a confiderable Time, there was no fuch Thing as passing any of those Ways. When the Slaughter began, those who raised the Commotion disappeared in an Instant, and left the innocent Shopkeepers, Bazaris, and many honest Families, to be butchered by the inraged Kuzzlebash; several, jealous of their Honour, not only killed their Women, but laid also violent Hands upon themselves; one of these unfortunate Wretches, in particular, when the Soldiers came near his House, burnt about twenty Women of his Family. and was in Expectation of their entering every Minute and killing him; by Chance they missed that House; but he was so infatuated. that, finding himself disappointed, he went out, and, bringing some of them back, shewed them the Way to his own House, telling them there was a good deal of Money and After they had plundered Effects therein. his House, they went their Way without killing him, which so enraged him, that he dispatched himself. There were great Numbers of People, especially Women and Children, burnt in their Houses.

and the second second

On Monday the 12th+, the Prisoners, especially the Women s, according to Nadir Shah's Order, were all conducted back to their own Houses, but with Eyes sull of Tears, and in Circumstances not to be defcribed or uttered.

On Tuesday the 13th ‡, a Party, who had been formerly detached by Nadir Shah to fieze the Cannon at the Serai of Rouh Allah Khan, having been cut off by the People there, in Conjunction with those of the Mogbol Poura, who were chiefly Tartar Mogbols, a strong Body was sent over thither, who slaughtered between 5 and 6000 of these People, and brought bound with them about 300 of those belonging to the Ordnance, also the Hazarris || and Head Officers. This Day, Seidy Folad Khan, received a Kalaet on being confirmed Cutual of the City. Proclamation was made by Beat of Drum,

[†] The 12th of March, 1738-9.

[§] About 10,000 Women threw themselves into Wells, some of whom were taken out alive, after being there two or three Days. The Number of Prisoners released, Men and Women, were 50,000.

The 13th of March, 1738-9.

Hazarri signifies, Captain of a Thousand.

ordering every Body to betake themselves to their feveral Employments, and to be under no Apprehension of the Soldiers any more. A Body of Men was fent to the Granaries at Pahr Gunib, which they sealed up and put Guards on; Saadit Khan's Effects were seized, and Nizam al Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan made a Peisbcush of some Money and Effects which they had given in an Account of, and was registered in the List; the Effects of Khandoran and Mazuffer Khan were likewise feized; the Jewels, Treasure and Goods of the former (not reckoning what he had in the Camp) was computed at no more than one Crore of Rupees; but Mazuffer Khan's amounted to very nigh four Crore. This Day, according to the Shab's Order, Parties of Soldiers were planted as Guards all around the City to the Banks of the River, and in the Retee opposite to the Castle, to prevent any Persons going out without License, but to hinder none from coming in; All those who were brought bound from the Serai of Roub Alla Khan, had their Heads out off, and were thrown into the Retee.

On Wednesday the 14th *, a Number of Fakirs, wanting to go out of the City, with a Design to travel and beg abroad, the Out-Guards cut of their Noses and Ears, and made them return back again.

On Thursday the 15th +, as the great Number of dead Bodies that lay about the Castle, and in the Bazars, and other Places, caused a very offensive Steach, they pressed most of the People they met with in the Streets, and employed them in removing the Bodies. Some by tying Cords to the Feet, they dragged without the City, some they threw into the River, and those whom they imagined to be Hindu's, they piled forty or fifty of their Bodies a-top of each other, and burnt them with the Timber of the demolished Buildings.

On Friday the 16th ‡, a Firmân, exemptthe Dominions of Perfia from Taxes for three Years, was drawn up and dispatched by a Choppar ||: At the fame Time the Ar-

^{*} The 14th of March, 1738-9.

^{} Fakirs are Beggam, or poor People.

⁺ The 15th of March, 1738-9.

¹ The 16th of March, 1738-9.

Choppar, an express Messenger.

rears*formerly due to the Soldiers, as also ong Years Pay before Hand, and six Months Pay as a Gratuity, was given to all his People, even to the Servants, and those who trafficked for Necessaries in the Camp (each of these having a settled Pay from Nadir Shab.). Nicar Mahommed Shab was sent with 1000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen, to bring Saadit Khan's Treasure from Pourib.

On Saturday the 17th ‡, Sirbullind Khan, according to an Order, went to the Dirbar, where he stayed until the Even. Nadir Shab let him know, he was pretty well assured, that under a Pretence of old Age and Infirmity, he did not care to stir about in collecting the Peisbcush Money and Beavra from the People in Offices, Merchants, &c. However, his Advice to him was, to behave with more Activity in that Affair, and make an End of it very soon.

The Year's Arrears due to Nadir Shah's Men. was 4 Crores 88 Lacks, or 6,100,000 l.

⁺ Saadis Khan's Treasure, sent from Luknowsi by Munsour Ali Khan, arrived the 25th of Mobierima, or 23d of April; being 80 Lacks of Rupees, which is 1,000,000 l.

[†] The 17th of March, 1738-9.

Beaura fignifies a forced Contribution,

On Sunday the 18th *, the faid Sirbullind Khan went likewise to the Dirbar, where were present Nizam al Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan, and he stayed there until Noon; Thamas Khan and Mustapha Khan pressing them concerning the Money, Sirbullind Khan told Nizam al Muluck as follows: " I have " a long Time ago foreseen this Disgrace. " and frequently represented to the Emperor. " that before Things were past Remedy, he "ought to take some Measure, and not thro" too much Security, reckon any Accident "unworthy his Care and Prevention; I de-" fired him to employ fome experienced and " faithful Person, and to give him full Power, "that with a Sum of Money and other va-" luable Things, as a Peisbcush, he might we make up Matters, prevent the impending " Calamity, and live, as formerly, with the * Sbab in an amicable Manner.

"Every Body imagined I couch'd some Designs and Self-Views under this Advice; they themselves would contrive no Extropedient, nor would they rely on the Contrivance of another, until, at last, Affairs are come to this calamitous and disgraceful

^{*} The 18th of March, 1738-9.

[&]quot; Iffue."

" Iffue." To this, Nizam al Muluck made: Then Thamas Khan addressing no Answer. himself to Kummir o'din Khan, repeated to him the Substance of what Nadir Shab, at first Meeting, reproached Madommed Shab with: Afterwards he told him, "What is past shall not be remembered. Now my " Shah wants the MONEY, use all Means " you can to raise it, and bring not yourselves " into any further Difgrace, by being di-" latory." Sirbullind Khan answered, " Unat doubtedly we will raise it, wherever it is " to be found." Thamas Khan asked him, if he had not Money himself. Sirbullind Khan faid to him, " If I had had Money, ^{ce} I would have fent it to you to Khandahar, and prevented you the Trouble of coming " hither." In short, by what passed at this Meeting, it was known, that Nadir Shab, after his Victory, and having established his Power, had demanded of Nizam al Muluck, twenty Crore + of Rupees, (exclusive of the Tewels, Gold Plate fet with precious Stones, and other fine Goods, feized of the Kings and other Omras) to be collected in the best Manner he could, out of the King's Treasury, † Twenty Grores are 25 Millions Sterling.

his own Effects, and all the other Omnas, wealthy People and Inhabitants. Such a Sum was not to be raised out of the King's Treasury, or the Omnas Effects; for, in the King's, the Gold and Silver Coins did not excited three Grore §: But, in the inward Vaults (which had been shut up and sealed for many Years; no Body knowing by whom they were sealed, or what they contained) there was found of Gold and Silver to a much larger Amount than the Money in the Treasury. Nixam al Muluck contributed a Peisscush of 1. Crore || in Jewels, Treasure, and Goods, as did also Kummir o'din Khan, to the same Amount.

Saadet Khan had formerly agreed to pay one Crore * of Rupees, and made good thirty Lacks + thereof, which was all that had efcaped being plundered; he promised to send for the Remainder from his Soubab.

Sirbullind Khan, on Account of his Poverty, was excused from any Share, and three Crore to f Rupees were appointed to be levied on some Mansubdars, Muttesiddys, Officers, and the rich Inhabitants, each in Proportion to his Circumstances. Formerly Saadit Khan was ordered to collect this Money: After his Death, and the Slaughter and Plunder of the City, this Business was recommended to the Care of Sirbullind Khan, and the other Omras, which Thamas Khan, at his Meeting, pressed them about: Accordingly it was now agreed that Azim Allah Khan, Chuckl Keishvir, Vakeel of the Soubabdar of Bengall, Seeta Ram, and all the Mansubdars and Officers of the Chaboutra, &c. should meet at Sirbullind Khan's House, and make an End of this Affair. All Officers, Inhaibitants, &c. who were suspected to be rich. were ordered to give in a List of what Money or Effects they were Masters of to be laid before the Sbab, that what he liked he might take, and what he forgave them they might keep; and whoever pleaded Poverty, fuch Person should declare the same by a Writing under his Hand and Seal, that in Case it should be afterwards proved that he had given in a false Account, he might be punished.

That Day the People beforementioned came to Sirbullind Khan's House, and having staid until the Evening, and enroll'd some Names, returned to their own Houses.

On Monday the 19th ‡, they all met there again, and were taken up all that Day in the enrolling of Names, and preparing the Lift. This Day Seyd Nedz Khan (who, the Night before the Slaughter, had shut up several of the Kuzzlebash in a Room and burnt them) was, by Nadir Shah's Order, strangled with a Shaul, and Sheb Soar Khan and Raiban, who in that Night were the Promoters of Mischief, were punished likewise. The first had his Head cut off, and the second his Belly ripped up.

on Tuesday the 20th ||, Sirbullind Khan, being sent for, went to the Dirbar, where he received a Khalaet of a rich Vest, from whence he returned Home to assist Axim Allab Khan, and the rest in the Business they were about.

On Wednesday the 21st*, Rehim Beg A-min Bashi, with 200 Horsemen and Musqueteers, were appointed to be under the Command of Sirbullind Khan, that he might

105

The 19th of March, 1738-9.

[.] The 20th of March, 1738-9.

The 21st of March, 1738-9.

fend them to the Manfablers, &cc. to philige them to produce all their Elephants, Horses and Camels, with Orders that what should be judged proper for the Shab's Stables, should be immediately seized.

On Thursday + also they were employed as the Day before.

On Friday the 23d Sirbullind Klian, Azist Allah Khan, &c. according to an Order, met at the Castle, where was held a Council for ascertaining the Money of the Peisheuse.

There was an Order made, that Murid Khan's Horse, with fifty of Sirbullind Khan's Horse, men, should carry a Sirrapab and Firman to Sujaat Khan, Soubahdar of Bengal, and to take from him the three Years Treasure and a Peifscust: Accordingly 1000 Rupees were given out of the Shab's Treasure to Murid Khan for his Expences, and 3020 Rupees to the fifty Horsemen for their Changes.

[†] The 22d of March, 1738-9.

¹ The 23d of March, 1738-9.

Murid Khan (alias Mahommed Hadi) was sent in .
Company with Mir Tuckee Kuli beg.

¹²⁵ l. § 402 l. 19 s.

Saturday, Sunday, and Manday I were employed in the Peifhcufb Affair. During this Time they were buly in preparing Illuminations on the Banks of the River, and Fireworks, for the Wedding of Nefe Allah Miran, Nadir Shah's Son, who was to be married to the Daughter of kelden Bukhfb the Son of Kam Bukhfb and Grandson of Auringzehe.

On Trueslay Night | the Marriage was conforminated. Mahanned Shab made the young Princess a present of Jawels to the Value of 50,000 Rupees*, and in ready Money 5000000 more. Some Days after the Marriage, Nadir Shab sent her Jewels to the Value of five Lack of Papees .

The Council for afcertaining the Prishcush was continually held in the Gastle, near the Divan of Justice, at which affished Thamas Khan, Mustapha Khan, and Mahammed Shab's Omras, until the tenth of Mobirran & at Moon, and during that Time every Body was present at the said Place from Sun-rise to Sun-

[†] The 24th, 25th, and 26th of March, 1738 9.

^{$ 6250 !. + 6250 !. # 62,500 !.} $ The 8th of April, 1739.

fet. All the Vakeels and Agents of the Manfubdars, and other Officers, gave constant: Attendance, and at Night each returned to his own House without having a Centry or Guard over them. In those Days, and also afterwards, several People, finding Affairs go: hard with them, left their Effects and Familia lies behind, and made their Escape out of the City in the best Manner they could, be-: ing glad at any Rate to fave their Lives: feveral of Mahommed Shah's Omras were obliged to stay the whole Day in the Castle, in a mean Manner and perpetual Fear, with but one Horse and a few Servants to attend them, and: at Night they returned to their own Houses. ...

In these Days of Mobirrim, no Person, either of Hindoftan or the Kuzzlebash, durst fo much as mention the Words, Tazia * or .

Matim.

^{*} Tazia fignifies Mourning, and Mâtim fignifies Death. It is customary with the Schias, to make great Lamentations annually for Mortifa Ali's two Sons, Imâm Hossan and Imâm Hossain, on the first Ten Days of Mobirrim. The former was poison'd by his Wife Joada, at Medina, in the Khalifship of Mauvia, on Thursday the 7th of Safer, in the 50th Year of the Hegira. The latter was killed in the Defart of Kirbela, by Shimr, a Soldier belonging to Iexid, the Son of Mauvia, Khalif of Syria, on Friday the 10th Mobirring, in the 61st Year of the Higira.

Matim, Some of Nadir Shab's Soldiers, who were incamped without the City, having one of these Nights, made a Noise of Mourning and beating their Breasts, were severely punished by him. During this Time, a great many People were very hard preffed for their Quota's of the Peisbcush, insomuch that several, to save their Credit and Reputation, killed themselves. Amongst the rest, Alim Allah, the adopted Son of Scidy Folad Khan: and his Naib, who acted entirely in all Things belonging to the Cutual's Office. having been ill used, and publickly disgraced, on the fifth of Mobirrim+, cut open his own Bowels with his Cuttari +, and died foon after.

On the 6th ||, Mijilis Rai, Kummir o'din Khan's Duan, was sent for by Thamas Khan, who ordered one of his Ears to be cut off in his Master's Presence. Kummir o'din Khan was going to intercede for him, which Thamas Khan perceiving, he told him in an angry Tone, "It will be your Turn by and by," which presently silenced him, and Mijilis

[†] The 3d of April, 1739.

¹ A Sort of Dagger wore by the Indians.

The 4th of April, 1739.

200 The History of

Rai taking the above Usage to Heart, killed himself afterwards, on the 12th . Several of the King's Mustesiddys were so beat with Sticks, in Thamas Rhan's Presence, that the Blood slowed out about their Faces and other Parts.

Sitá Ram, and Chucki Keistroir +, were violently beat on the Back and Sides. When the List of Names was ready, Nadir Shah appointed Nizam al Muluck, Sirbullind Khant,

* The 10th of April, 1739.

† Chuckl Keisbvir, the Bengal Vackees, being ordered to fend for Seven Crores of Rupees, said, So much would make a String of Waggons from Bengal to Debli; for which being roughly used, he went home, and murdered himself and Family.

† Sirbullind Khan pressing very hard upon the People, Kamiab Khan, Relation to Kummir o' din Khan, with Arrib Khan, and others, killed themselves, after paying in several Lacks; and the Complaints thereof coming to Nadir Shab, Twenty Lacks of Rupees were remitted to great Men, who were found indigent. Sherif Kuli Khan, Son to Khadr al Nissa Begum, and several Eunuchs, complained to Mahonimed Shab of Sirbullind Khan's ruining People, and his Exactions, and that he wanted Three Lacks from him; Mahonimed Shab sent for Abdal Basi Khan, one of Nadir Shab's Vizirs, who manages betwirt them Two, and bid him acquaint his Master therewith, who sent for Sirbullind Khan, whom he found innocent of what was laid to his Charge.

Kummir

Kummir o'dîn Khan, Azîm Allah Khan, and Mortifa Khan, the Brother of Murid Khan. to collect the Money; he told them, he expected they would collect the faid three Crore | and pay it in Ten Days Time: They divided the Sum and Names into five Parts. and had a 1000 Kuzzlebash Horsemen, 200 each, that in Case any on their List made Delays in paying their Quota, they might oblige them thereto by Blows: So that on the 10th * at Noon, the faid Omras with the appointed Horsemen, set about collecting the Money: The People, in Respect to their Circumstances, were very unequally taxed, for some who were Masters of ten Lacks +, were only fet down 5000 # and others who could not muster 10,000 §, were set down 12,000 4. This was not owing either to the Favour or Ill-Will of the Managers, but to their own good or bad Luck; and when the Sums were once ascertained, there was no Redress to be had. Many of them, durring the collecting of the Money, were

^{3,750,000} l. * April 8, 1739.

^{† 125,000} l. † 625 l. § 1250 l.

^{# 15000%}

by bad Usage, forced to dispatch themselves. and Numbers died of the Blows they received; those who came best off, had either a Leg or an Arm lamed; from Morning to Night, nothing was done or thought of, but gathering in this Money, in which no. Barbarities were left unpractifed. This fo dispirited the Inhabitants, that if one Kuzzlebalb Horseman came among 10000 of them. he might fafely use them with all the Severities he pleased. This Work went on until the Day Nadir Shah left the City, when near four Crore +, were collected from the People. Three Crore 1, and thirty Lacks of Rupees, were paid into Nadir Shab's Treafury, and seventy Locks | were made away with among his Omras, and some expended among the 1000 Horsemen; a great deal was funk in the undervaluing of Goods, for a Horse worth 500 Rupees*, was only rated at 5 Tomans +, which is 100 Rupees, and Shauls of 50 Rupees & taken at one Taman, or twenty Rupees ||, and Jewels and other Goods, in the same Proportion: What the Shab took was valued in this Manner, and received for fo much in the Contribution Account; but what he had no Occasion for was fold, and the Produce brought to Account, which was no Advantage to the Owners of the Goods, as there were no Buyers but the Kuzzlebash.

Since the Day of the general Slaughter, wherever any Granaries were, the Kuzzlebalh feized them; this and the Roads being stopt to all Quarters made Wheat 2 Seers a Rupee, Rice 1 Seer, and Ghee 1 Seer: Things were at that Rate for about twenty Days; at last, Sirbullind Khan and Azim Allah Khan, having obtained a Pass and Licence, sent several Waggons to fetch Corn from Feridabad. Whoever had any Carriages, fent them, feveral of the poor People and Banians going along with them.

In a little Time Wheat was fold feven Seers for a Rupee, but no more Rice than 2. Seers, and Ghee 2 of a Seer; during this Time the Kuzzlebash Horsemen were wont to go round about Feridabad, and other Places, marrauding twenty and thirty Coss each Way, spoiling all the Fields, and plundering all the Villages as they went, and killing the Inhabitants that made any Refistance. They gave their Horses, Camels, &c. Barley and Wheat-Straw instead of Grass, and the People of the City could have neither at any Rate, so that most of their Cattle died.

Dd 2

The latter End of Mobirrim *, Danishmund Khan (whose Brother Mullah Ali Akbar, was the Shah's Mullah Bashi) was, by Nadir Shab's Recommendation, raised to the Mansub of 7000, with its full Jaguir, befides the Post of Mahommed Shah's Khan Saman &; but a few Days after Nadir Shah's Departure he fell fick, and on the 14th of Ribby al Avul + departed this Life. Excepting him, Nadir Shab recommended none else to the Emperor.

On Tuesday the 3d Safer ‡, all the Omras were ordered by Nadir Shab to be present at Mahommed Shah's by five o' Clock in the Morning, where they put on forty-two Khalaets, sent thither by Nadir Shah for them, The Khalaets for Nizam al Muluck, Sirbullind Khan, Kummir o' din Khan, and Maz bommed Khan Bungush, were:

A rich

^{*} The latter End of April.

[&]amp; Khan Saman, Steward of the Houshold.

f The 10th of June, 1739.

¹ The 1st of May, 1739.

A rich Atlass Vest.

A Hunting Coat, of a rich Stuff wove with Gold.

Four Yards of Tiffue:

A rich Mandil or Turban.

A Perfian Sabre mounted with Gold.

A Knife with a Sheath of enamell'd Gold.

The rest of the Kbalaets were different, some had sive Pieces, some sour, three and two, and some had only one Piece of Gold, or one Piece of Silver Stuff, according to the Rank they bore.

About eight in the Morning, Mahommed Shah, seated in a Royal Litter, with a Canopy, Umbrella, and one led Litter, with several of the Omras, went towards the General Divan, the Omras being mounted at a small Distance behind him; when they came near the General Divan, the Emperor ordered Saad o' din Khan to let none but the Head Omras, and a few of the Chief Manfubdars to go further. At the Door of the General Divan all the Omras alighted, and followed on Foot to the Door of the private Divan, where Nadir Shah was; there the Emperor came off his Royal Litter, and went in; after they had mutually embraced, they breakfasted together, and the Omras likewise had Breakfast given them. A little after, the following Things were brought in for Mahommed Shah:

A Crown fet with Jewels.

A Sirpeach | - - - Ditto.

A Bazoubund * - - Ditto.

A Girdle - - Ditto.

A Sword, the Handle fet with Jewels,

A Sword with a straight Blade, such as most of the Deccanners use, called Dhoup.

An enamelled Cuttarri.

The Crown, Nadir Shab put on with his own Hands, making him an Apology at the fame Time. After giving him some Advice, he took Leave of him. The Substance of the Advice was as follows: 'In the first 'Place, you must feize all the Omra's Ja'guirs, and pay each of them according to their Mansubs and Rank, with ready Money, out of the Treasury. You are to allow none to keep any Forces of his own, Sirpeach is a Band or Fillet richly wove, and sometimes set with Jewels, which is wore round the Turban.

^{*} Bazoubund is a Bracelet.

^{&#}x27; but

but you yourself are constantly to keep 60000 chosen Horsemen, at sixty Rupees per Month, one with another: Every ten Men to have one Debbashi +, every ten Debbafbi's one Sudival; and every ten Sudivals one Hazarri ||. You ought to be well acquainted with the Merits of each, their Name, their Family and Nation, not allowing any of them, Officers, Soldiers, or others, to be idle or inactive. When an Occasion may require, detach a sufficient Number, under the Command of one, whom you can trust for Conduct, Courage, and Fidelity, and when that Business is over, recall them immediately, onot letting any Person stay too long in Command, for Fear of bad Confequences. You are more particularly to beware of Nizam " al Muluck, whom, by his Conduct, I find to be full of Cunning, and Self-interested, and more ambitious than becomes a Subject.' Mahommed Shah knowing these Advices proceeded from Good-will, was very thankful, and defired him, as his Empire depended on [†] Debbashi, an Officer over Ten Men.

t Sudival, an Officer over a Hundred.

[#] Hazarri, a Captain of a Thousand,

208 - The History of

him, that he would appoint those whom he thought most deserving of the principal Posts. Nadir Shab said, 'That will not be at all for your Interest; such Officers will have little Deserence for you in my Absence; when I am gone, dispose of every Post to those whom you think most worthy, and should they or any of them rebel, upon the first Advice, I'll send a Person to chastise them; if it be necessary, I'll send Forces; or, on Occasion, I can be with you myself, in forty Days, from Kandabar; But upon all Events don't reckon me far off.

After this, Mahommed Shah taking Leave, returned back to Aeysh Mehl, from whence, he gave the Omras leave to go Home.

On Wednesday the 4th *, Nadir Shab, sent for Nizam al Muluck, Sirbullind Khan, and the other Omras, and having enjoined them Obedience to Mahommed Shab, and threatned them in Case of their rebelling, took his Leave.

It was reported that Nadir Shah declared before some of his Omras, such as Thamas Khan, Loutf Ali Khan, and others, that he

^{*} The 2d of May, 1739.

NADIR SHAH. 209 had acted indifferently in regard to two Things; one was his giving the Empire to Mahammed Shah, who being unequal to fo great a Talk, the Affairs of India would become worse than formerly; the other, his giving Quarter to Nizam al Muhack, who being so very subtle and crasty, it was more than probable he would raise Disturbances; but as according to the Decrees of Providence, and the Assistance of their own good Fortune, he had once passed his Word to them, he could not act contrary thereto.

On Friday the 6th +, the Shah's + Peishkhanno went to Shalimar. A Mamaddi went about to give Notice, that after the Troops should begin to march, none of the Kuzzlebash, or others belonging to the Army, should tarry in the City, and forbid any Person to entertain or conteal any such in their Houses, and that none belonging to the Army should earry along with them any Male or Female

⁺ The 4th of May, 1739.

[†] Nadir Shah's March was to have been the 27th Mobirrim, but was delayed, on Account of Fojdar Khan Balouche's running away with his Men towards the Rajahs, on being demanded more than one Lack of Rupees, which he was first taxed with.

Captives, excepting Slaves bought with ready Money with a Writing from the Seller attested by Witnesses declaring his Consent and Satisfaction, or Women lawfully married to them, and even those Slaves and Wives not to be carried away if in the least contrary to their own Inclinations; and that whoever should transgress any of these Orders should forseit both his Life and Estate.

Upon this almost all who were married in Debli sent back their Wives on finding them unwilling to leave their Native Country, only a few of the Chief Commanders and Officers, by the mildest Means and Intreaties, prevailed on some to seem contented to go; which Nadir Shah, after some Days March, being informed of, he ordered them all to be immediately sent back.

On Saturday the 7th §, Nadir Shah moved to Shalimar, and gave positive Orders, that all the Soldiers should quit the City that Day.

On Sunday *, before his March from these Gardens, he ordered his Army to be mustered; and it was reported to him, that [§] May 5, 1739.

^{*} May 6, 1739.

400 Soldiers and Servants had deferted. The Sbab ordered Scidy Folad Khan, the Cutual, to find out those People, and send them with a Guard to the Army, and commanded several of the Nissikhebis and Rikas likewise to assist. The Cutual, after great Search, found about sixty, and sent them away with a Party of his own Horse and some Nissikhebis; they reached the Army near Serbind, where the Sbab ordered all their Heads to be cut off.

In the mean Time, Scidy Folad Khan, having seized several more of those Deserters, he was going to send them also; but on hearing how the others were treated, he waited on the Emperor, and represented the Matter to him. Mahommed Shah said: 'He'll certainish kill these poor Wretches also, if they are sent; why should we be accessary to so much innocent Blood? Let them go where ever they please.'

Nadir Shah, by continual Marches, arrived near Lahor, and we are informed, that he plundered and killed the People of Tannifer, and several other Villages. The Occasion of which was thus: The Army constantly sending out Parties to forrage, and bring Corn and other Necessaries; the E e 2 Country

Country People, who used to watch these Opportunities, attacked the Straggless, and killed and plundered them of their Hosses; or what else they had; in the Night-time also they were very troublesome, and stake whatever they could come at, which very much inraged the Shab, having lost above a thousand Mules, Camels and Yahaus before he got as far as Labor. It was reported, that Nadir Shab, having called the Zemidar of Karnal (which is the Place where he got his Victory) gave him 5000 Rupees towards peopling a Village on the same Spot he incamped, and directed him to give it the Name of Fattebabad.

Some Days before he left Deld, he cont Part of his Army before to Labor; when they approached the Place, and Zekaria Khan was apprized thereof, he called together all the great Men, Merchants, Sensor, and wealthy People of the City. At their Meeting it was agreed, that the Khan and they should go out of the City, and lend a Message to the Commanding Officer, in these Words:

اباد ا Fatteb abad, signifies the Habitation of Victory.

^{*} Bankers and Money Changers.

Words: " If your Delign he to flaughter the Inhabitants, Lot we are here prefent; if 'Plunder be your Intent, the City is defertad, and our Fillets left there; or, if Mo-' ney be what you want, the Soubabdar and 'Citizens can easie no more than one Crore + . fo whatfoever your Intentions or Orders are. 'that exceute: This is a final City, and ' not able to withfland the Fury of an Army, s as Deldi is.' On Receipt of this Mellage, the Commanding Officer thought proper to sepacient the Affair to his Master, who ordered him to receive the Crore of Rasees, and to molest them no further. After the Payment of the Money, he dnew off, and isined the main Army upon their March.

Nadir Sheb, by continual and long Marches, palled by Labor, on one hide,

On Tuefday, the wesh t, birtuilind Khan, having placed Guards about the Castle, commanded as Chief Officer for that Day a Mext Day, he was ordered to come off, and to mount Guard only on Mondays. After going from the Castle, he want to be in Kummir al Muluck, who happening to be in Kummir o'din Khan's House, he had an Opportunity of visiting both, and then returned to his own House.

^{+ 1,250,000 %.}

[#] The 4th of May, 1739.

Until this Day, a great many of the Bodies killed on the Day of the general Massacre, lay putrified in some of the Streets and Bazars.

On Thursday, the 12th #, in the Morning, Azîm Allah Khan, and in the Afternoon, Kummir o'dîn Khan, went to visit Sirbullind Khan.

On Sunday, the 15th*, the Emperor came from Aeysh Mehl, to the General Divan, where he sat four Gurris &, during which Time, the Omras came to pay their Obeisance, making their Presents at the same Time. Nizam al Muluck, on returning from the Castle, went to Sirbullind Khan's House, for since Nizam al Muluck's coming from Deccan, until the 11th Instant, neither of them had been to visit each other.

On Friday, the 20th +, Emir Khan was honoured

¹ The 10th of May, 1739.

[•] The 13th of May, 1739.

[§] One Hour 36 Minutes.

[†] The 18th of May, 1739.

honoured with a Sirrapab, a Paleki, with Net-work, and the Office of third Bukbshit.

Ishak Khan, with a Sirrapab, a Paleki with Net Work, and the Office of Duan Khalesibli.

Azîm Allab Khan, with a Sirrapab, and the Office of Sedr.

Abtisham Khan, Khandoran's Son, with a Sirrapah, and the Office of Darogha Khass*.

On the 4th of Ribby al Avul +, Danish-mund Khan, who, by Nadir Shah's Recommendation, had got the Office of Khan Saman, departed this Life. So, on the 16th ‡, Saad o'din Khan, received a Sirrapah, and was promoted to that Office.

From the Day that Nadir Shab left Debli, until this, which is the 26th of Ribby at Avul ||, nothing was done or proposed, in Regard to the State of Affairs in the Empire. Even this Blow, which is sufficient to give an Idea of the Trumpet of the Day of Judg-

- The Third Paymaster.
- Duan Khalesih, the Accomptant General of the King's Revenues.
 - * Darogba Khass, Superintendant of the Houshold.
 - + The 10th of June, 1739.
 - † The 12th of June, 1739.
 - 1 The 22d of June, 1739.

ment,

ment, could not in the least swaken out of the heavy Sheep of Security, and Lechangy of Indolence, those People, who were so much intensented with the Wine of Pride, and Self-conceit. They all agreed in a general Ill-will to each other, and their whole Talk and Convertation was fulf of Entry and Detraction.

Of the Buildings that were in Part demolished, and damaged, in the Day of the general Madiane, formediat fuffered least, are inhishieed again, and the rest remain defart; which, if not begun to be repaired before the Rains set in, will be quite destroyet.

The Inhabitants, from the Terror of this Calantics, like People possessed, and in Pies, are quite stupished, and not yet come to themselves, and what is still more strange, (notwithstanding the Oppressions and Diagrace, the People of this Empire have met with, since Nadir Shab's Departure) the indecent Expressions, and beastly Actions of his Soldiers, are the constant Subjects of Discourse, in all Companies, related with a seeming Satisfaction and Pleasure, and by Way of Jest and Drollery; not being in the least affected with a Resection on their their past Disgrace and Misfortunes; but, 6h the contary, feemed forry for his going Qway; excepting Sirbullind Khan, who three Wears ago, foresaw this Calamity, and retired from public Business, dreading the Confedurence of Affairs being managed by such Gint as as then bore Sway: His being an Inftrument in collecting the Peishcush was in-Voluntary, and much contrary to his Incliflations, in which he help'd and favoured feveral People as much as lay in his Power, and that in so private a Manner, that they them-Relives knew not who affifted them: But hypocritical and ignorant Persons, who had heither Will or Power to affift those People, gave their Tongues too much Liberty in comblaining of him: However, I refer this innocent Man's Character to the following Arabic Verles:

They say for certain that God has a Son,

And say for certain the Prophet is a Magician;

Neither God nor his Prophet has escaped, 3. The Tongues of Slanderers, and how shall I?

F f When

When after the Battle, Nadir Shah hati fent for Mabonmed Shah and his Boungab to his Camp, one of his Omras represented to him, that in the Hindostan Camp there were 100,000 Horses and a great many Camels, and as those People had, by his Clemency, received Quarter, should he order what Camels and Horses were fit for the Royal Stables to be feized for his Use, it would not be so great a Hardship upon them. To which the Shab answered: 'I have given these Peo-' ple Quarter in all Respects; besides, the ' Bread of Soldiers depends on their Horses, ' most of them are in wretched and indigent ' Circumstances; should they lose their Horses,

- they and their Families would be reduced
- to Beggary and Starving. It would be far
- from Humanity to treat them ill, now they
- 'are at our Mercy; therefore don't molest
- or infult them on any Account.

Mahommed Khan Bungush had, for a long Time, been in Expectation of the Saubabdari of Alebabad, especially after Nadir Shab's Departure; but not finding he was likely to fucceed, on the 27th of Safer*, he made off, and went towards his own Zemidari. In his

^{*} The 25th of May, 1739.

Way he plundered feveral Villages, and meeting the Vanjarras +, who were carrying Corn to Shabjebanabad, carried them along with him.

After some Days, Ali Hamed Khan, Ali Amjid Khan, Ali Asgbur Khan, Khan Zuman Khan, Terab Ali Khan, Azem Khan, and others, in all twenty-two Omras and Mansubdars, who had run away out of the Field of Battle and Camp, as also Mahommed Khan Bungush, who (without Leave) had retired Home, were all discharged the Service.

Nizam al Muluck and Kummir o'din Khan wrote to Mahommed Khan, that if he came back, or fent his Son to attend at Court, it was probable his Mansub and Jaguir should still be continued to him, if not, he must expect no Favour. Mahommed Khan returned for Answer: 'If my Request is complied 'with, I will come, if not, I will go on to 'my own Zemidari.

Since the Battle of Karnal, until Nadir Shab's Departure from Shabjebanabad, the Loss sustained by the Emperor and the People

† People who go a Trading in great Droves, and carry their Goods on Oxen.

Ff 2

within

within and without the City, in Jewels, Treafure, Goods, Effects, and destroying of Fields, setting aside the Loss of the Buildings, amounted to very near one Arrib ‡ of Rupees, out of which Nadir Shah carried away to the Value of 70 Crores || in Jewels and other Effects; and his Officers and Soldiers 10 Crores*. The Charges of his Army, while he continued there, the Arrears, Pay and Gratuity advanced them, with what Goods were destroyed by Fire, and Fields laid waste, made near 20 Crores † more.

The Particulars of what Nadir Shab carried away with him:

Utenfils and Handles of Weapons fet with Jewels, with the Peacock Throne, and nine others fet with precious Stones	me.
Utenfils and Handles of Weapons fet with Jewels, with the Peacock Throne, and nine others fet with precious Stones	• with Jewels, with the Peacock Throne, and nine others fet with precious Stones	25
and nine others fet with precious Stones	_
and nine others fet with precious Stones
	·9
Money Coined in Gold and Silver Rupees	25
Gold and Silver Plate which he melted down and coin'd	5
•	64
‡ 125,000,000 l. # 87,500,000 l.	•
* 12,500,000 l. † 25,000,000 l. F	ine

	NAD	IR SF	IAH.	22 I
	•		Carried ove	er 64
Fine	Cloths a	nd rich St	tuffs of a	11
Kinds	•	-	-	2
Houf	hold Furr	niture, and	l oth er va	l-
tuable C	ommoditie	. 5	-	3
Warli	ike We apo	ns, Canno	m, &c .	. 1
	_
				70

Elephants 1000, Horses 7000, Camels 10,000, Eunuchs 100, Writers 130, Smiths 200, Masons or Builders 300, Stone-Cutters 100, Carpenters 200.

Nadir Shah had the Draught of the Castle and City of Shahjebanabadtaken, and gave to the abovementioned Artificers, Horses, and what other Carriages were necessary for their Journey, allowing them a sufficient Pay. The Terms he entered into with them were, to follow their several Occupations for three Years in Kandabar; at the Expiration of which, they were to have Liberty, either to return Home, or continue there. But in their Way to Labor, several of them made their Escape, and returned hither.

Since Nadir Shah's entering this Country, until his getting to Labor in his March back,

200,000

200,000 of the Inhabitants of this Empire, were destroyed, as follows:

From Labor to Karnal were killed on the Roads and in the Villages 8000. Killed in the Battle of Karnal. 17,000.

Those killed during the Space of three Days after the Battle, in the Highways and round about the Camp, were

Those killed on their March to the City, in Sonput, Paniput, and other Villages that were plundered

Those killed in the general Masfacre, by the exactest Computation

After the general Massacre were killed in Roub Allah Khan's Serai, and the Villages and Fields round about where they went a marrauding, which is about thirty Coss each Way

On their March back, in Tanifeer and other Villages

Those who had laid violent Hands upon themselves, the Women who drown'd and burnt them14,000

7000.

110,000

25,000.

12,000.

193,000 felves, Carried over 193,000

felves, as also those who died of Famine and other Hardships, amounted to about 7000.

200,000.

A Translation of the Cession made by Mahommed Shah to Nadir Shah of all the Territories to the Westward of the River Attok.

• Pormerly, the Ministers ‡ of his High Majesty (who is exalted like Saturn), fierce as Mars*, impetuous as the God of War, King of the Kings of the Earth,

Prince of the Princes of the Age, the Sha' dow of God and Refuge of Islâm, in Pomp

* like Alexander, the Heavens his Court, the Sultan who is merciful, and the Emperor who is august, Nadir Shab, may God per-

* petuate his Reign) had sent Ambassadors

‡ In the East it is not polite to say to a Prince, he stid or said such a Thing, but that his Minfsters and Servants did it.

| Saturn being the most remote from the Centre of the System.

1

ſ

* In the Original it is Beheram Solat, Merikh Suttuvit. Beheram, in the ancient Persic, signifies Mars, and Arabic, signifies the same.

to this Court, to treat of certain Affairs which I intended to comply with; afterwards Mahommed Khan Turcoman arrived from Kandahar, to remind me thereof. but my Ministers and Agents having delayed the Ambassadors, and postponed an An-- fwer to his High Majesty's Letter; raised fuch a Mifunderstanding between us, that his fuccessful Army having come to the ! Confines of Hindofton, both Parties encountered in the Fields of Karnal, where, after "a Royal Battle was fought, as Providence would have it, Victory to Appearance rose from the East of his undeclining Fortune. As his High Majesty, who is mighty as ' Jumpheid +, and the greatest of the Turseemans, is the Source of Goodness and 'Prowess; relying on his Honour, and structing to his Support, I liad the Satisfaction of an Interview, and enjoyed the Pleasure of being entertained in his Paradife-like Com-' pany. After which, we came together to * Shajehamabad, where I brought forth to his View, and with the proper Ceremony prefented to him, all the Treasure, lewels and precious Effects of the Hindestan Emperors; his Majesty, in Compliance with my Request, accepted of some: And out of the Greatness of his Soul, and abundant Humanity, in Regard to the illustrious Family of Gourgan, and the Honour of the Original Tree of Turkan, was graciously pleased to restore to me the Crown and Gem of Hindestan.

[†] One of the ancient Kings of Persia, remarkable for his Greatness and Power.

[°] and

In Confideration of this Favour, which ino Father shows to a Son, nor no Brother to a Brother. I make over to him all the 5 Countries to the West of the River Attok. * the Water of Seind, and Nala Sunkra which is a Branch of the Water of Seind: That is 3 to fay, Peiftor with its Territories, the Prin-'-cipality of Cabal, Ghoznavi, the mountaltious Residences of the Afghans, the Hazarijat and the Passes, with the Castle of Bucker, Sunker, and Khoudabad: The rest of the Territories, Passes, and Abodes of the Chokias, Balluches, &c. with the Pro-F vince of Tatta, the Castle of Ram, and the Village of Terbin, the Towns of Chun, Sumanoali and Ketra, &c. Places dependant on Tatta: All their Fields, Villages, Castles, Towns, and Ports from the first Gg Rife

'Rife of the River Attok, with all the Passes and Habitations, which the abovefaid Water and its feveral Branches comprehends and furrounds, as far as Nala Sunkra, where it 'empties itself into the Sea: In short, all ' Places Westward of the River Attok, and those Parts, and Westward of the River Scind, and Nala Sunkra, I have annexed to the Dominions of that powerful Sove-' reign, that from henceforth his Agents and ' Servants may enter upon and fet about the ' Management and the securing of the above-' faid Territories, taking the Government and Command of those several Places: 'Tribes and Inhabitants into their own Hands; my Officers, Servants, &c. evacuating the abovefaid Places, as being fevered from my Dominions, and entirely re-' nouncing all Right they have or might for-' merly have had to command, controul or collect any Revenues there; the Castle and Town of Lobry Bundar, with all the * Countries to the East of the River Attok. 'Water of Scind, and Nala Sunkra, shall, as ' formerly, belong to the Empire of Hin-' dostan. Dated at Shajehanabad, the 4th of * Mobirrim +, 1152. A Per-

The 2d of April, 1739.

A Personal Description and Character of Nadir Shah, which I had from the Gentleman who favoured me with the Account of his Exploits before his Expedition to India.

ADIR SHAH is about fifty-five Years, upwards of fix Foot high, well-proportion'd, of a very robust Make and Constitution, his Complexion fanguine and inclining to be fat, but the Fatigue he undergoes prevents it; he has fine large Black-eyes and Eye-brows; and, in short, is one of the most comely Men I ever beheld. The Injury the Sun and Weather have done to his Complexion only gives him a more manly Aspect. His Voice is so uncommonly loud and strong, that he frequently, and without straining it, gives Orders to. his People at above a hundred Yards Distance. He drinks Wine with Moderation, but is extremely addicted to Women, in which he affects great Variety, and yet never neglects his Business on their Account; his Gg 2 Hours

Hours of Retirement among the Ladies are but few, feldom entering their Apartments before Eleven or Twelve at Night, and is up and in Public by Five in the Morning. His Diet is simple, chiefly Pillaw and plain Dishes; and, if public Affairs require his Attendance, he neglects his Meals, and satisfies his Hunger with a few parched Peafe (of which he always carries fome in his Pockets) and a Draught of Water. In the Camp, or in the City, he is almost constantly in Pub. lic, and if not, he may be fent to, or spoke with by any Person. He musters, pays and cloaths his Army himself, and will not fuffer any Perquifites to be taken from the Soldiers by his Officers, on any Pretence whatever. He has Monthly Accounts transmitted to him of the State of Affairs in all Parts of his Dominions, and holds a Correfpondence with his several private Spies in every Place: Besides, in every Province and City there is a Person called Hum Calâm, appointed to inspect into the Governor's Actions, and keep a Register of them; no Affair of any Consequence can be transacted but in the Presence of that Officer, who, besides the Account the Governor is obliged to fend Monthly, Monthly, transmits his Journal by a separate Conveyance whenever he thinks proper, without permitting the Governor to peruse it; he has no settled Salary or Gratuity for his Trouble, but is rewarded or punished just as Nadir Shab finds he deserves. extraordinary Caution in a great Measure prevents the Governor's oppressing the People, or entering into any Conspiracies or Rebellions He is extremely generous, against him. particularly to his Soldiers, and bountifully rewards all in his Service, who behave well. He is, at the fame Time, very fevere and strict in his Discipline, punishing with Death those who commit a great Offence; and with the Loss of their Ears, those whose Transgressions are of a slighter Nature; he neyer pardons the Guilty of what Rank foever, and is highly displeased, if, after he has throughly examined the Affair, any Person prefumes to intercede in their Behalf, before which they may give their Sentiments with Freedom.

When on a March, or in the Field, he contents himself to eat, drink, and sleep like a common Soldier, and entires all his Officers to the same sovere Dicipline. He is of so hardy a Constitution, that he has been often known, of a frosty Night to repose himself upon the Ground in the open Air, wrapt up in his Cloak, with only a Saddle for his Pillow, especially when, upon an extraordinary Enterprize which required Expedition, he has been obliged to out-march his Baggage, by which Means he has fallen upon the Enemy when they least expected him. He is never happy but when in the Field, and laments the Time he is obliged to flay in a City to. refresh his Troops, in which (as in all Things else) he uses the utmost Dispatch. Meals are over in less than Half an Hour, after which he returns to Business; so that the Servants who attend him standing are chang-/ ed three or four Times a Day. He never indulges himself in any Kind of Pleasure in the Day-time, but constantly at Sun-set retires to a private Apartment; where, unbending himfelf at once from Business, he sups with three or four Favourites, and drinks a Quart, or. at most three Pints of Wine, behaving all the Time in the freest and most facetious Man-In this private Conversation no Person is allowed to mention any Thing relating to public Business; nor, at other Times, must they they presume, upon this Intimacy to behave with more Familiarity than their Equals. Two of his Evening-Companions happening to transgress in that Point, by taking the Liberty to advise him in Public, he immedately ordered them to be strangled, saying: Such Fools were not sit to live, who could not distinguish between Nadir Shab and Nadir Kuli. He has been very kind to those who please him in private Conversation, and behave with a becoming Decency and Deserence in Public, where they are taken no more Notice of, nor have they any more Instuence over him than othersof the sameRank.

His Mother, who was living in the Year 1737, (at the Request of some who were attached to the Royal Family) intreated Nadir Shah, some Time after he had seized the King, to restore him, not doubting but his Majesty would make him sufficient Amends, by creating him Generalissimo for Life. He ask'd her 'whether she really thought so?' She told him, 'She did,' Upon which he smil'd and said, 'If I was an old Woman, 'perhaps I might be inclined to think so too, and desired her to give herself no Trouble 'about State Affairs.'

He was married to Shab Thomas's Aunt the youngest Sister of Shab Sultan Huslein, by whom, I heard, he had one Daughter. He has feveral young Children by his Concubines, and two Sons by a Woman he married in his Obscurity. The Eldest, Reza Kuli Mirza is about twenty-five Years of Age. trained up from his Childhood in the Army, where from a Suboltern he has been gradually advanced to the Rank of a General, and appointed Vice-Roy of Perfia, during his Father's Expedition to India. The second Son Nefr Allah Mirza, who is about twenty-one Years of Age, is nominal Governor of Mufbad and the Province of Khorosan, having a Person to direct and manage for him.

His eldest Son, when he ranked as a Lieutenant, had only that Pay to subsist on, and in all other Stations had no more than his Commission entitled him to. His Father regarded him no more than he did the other Officers, and permitted him to associate with them, giving him to know, that if he was guilty of any Crime or Breach of Duty, he should be punished with as great Rigour as any of the rest. On his behaving well he not only promoted him, but increased his Paternal ternal Affection for him. They who knew the young Man (for I never faw him) judge he'll make full as great a Figure in the World as his Father; having given fignal Proofs of his Courage and Conduct in feveral Battles, and of his great Abilities in other Respects while Nadir Shah was in India. By my private Advices from thence I'm inform'd, that he govern'd the Empire with great Skill, and kept every Thing quiet and easy until his Father's Return.

Among Nadir Shab's extraordinary Faculties, his Memory is not the least to be admired, there being few Things of Moment that he ever said or did, but what he remembers; and can readily call all the principal Officers in his numerous Army by their Names. He knows most of the private Men who have served under him any Time, and can recollect when and for what he punished and rewarded any of them. He dictates to one or two Secretaries, and gives Orders about other Affairs at the same Time, with all the Regularity and Promptness imaginable.

In Time of Action, I'm told, he is equally furprifing, it being scarce credible how quick he is in discerning the Odds on either Side, and how active in succouring his Troops. If any of his General Officers give Ground without being greatly over-powered, he rides up and kills him with a Battle-ax (which he always carries in his Hand) and then gives the Command to the next in Rank. In all the Battles, Skirmishes, and Sieges he has been engaged in (altho' he generally charges at the Head of his Troops) he never received the least Wound or Scar, and yet several Horses have been shot under him, and Bullets have grazed on his Armour,

H h and

234 The HISTORY of

I could relate many other remarkable. Things that I have seen and heard of this great. Hero, whose Actions already are sufficient to convince the World, that sew Ages have produced his Equal. As he has performed such Wonders when he had hardly Money or Men, what may we not expect from him now he is posses'd of so immense a Treasure? 'Tis probable he may live thirty Years longer; and in that Space of Time, if his Designs are attended with the same Success he has hitherto met with, to what Pitch of Grandeur may not a Man of his unbounded Ambition and Courage arrive at?

AN IN-

AN

INDEX

Referring to the Page where the following Words are particularly Explain'd.

Page	Arrizbegi - 140
ABD - 71	Ashruff 94
Abdallab 71	Asof Jab - 64
Abdollees 92	Aitok 130
Abd o' Rahman - 71	Aumar 117
Abu Buckr — 117	Auringabad 30
Abul Fazl 11	Auringzebe — 28
Abul Mazuffer 47	Azem 38
Aeysh Mahl - 178	Azîm — 40
Afghans — 7	Azîm al Shan — 40
Afshars 72
Agra - 24, 31	B. .
Abeers —— 153	Bahadr Shah — 39
Abmedahad 29	Bahar Banu 23
Abmednagur — 35	Babeers 174
Aitmad al Dowlat 140	Bajeerau — 65
Akbar — 38	75 11
Akbarabad — 24	Bakhtir — 157
wa.	Bargah — 172
Alı — 117 Alumguir 29
Amead Bukbfb 28
A ~ ''~
	_ ,
Arjumund Banu 27 Arrib — 25	Bedar Bukht — 41
Arrib 25	Beglerbeg — 73 Begum
,	Derum

I N D E X.

Begum 19
Bbagnagur — 32	E.
Bijapore — 32	Ezabad — 31
Boungab - 154	Eaz o'din — 42
Bukbshi — 215	Eidgab — 184
Bullind Akhter 38	Eildirm 3
. 3	Emir 55,63
C ,	Emir al Mominin 125
Cabul — 36	Emir al Omra 43
Chaboutra — 183	Enam — 48
Chandni Chok 182	Eugene — 29
Chaux — 140	.,
Chîn Kuleejh Khan 44	F.
Choppar — 189	Fakirs — — 189
Chot 65	Farsang - 4
Coins of Nadir Shah 119	Fattaba 126
120	Fattebabad 212
Coss measured and com-	Fattebpour - 19
puted - 20	Firmân 45
Courd — 141	Fojbdar 45, 51
Crore 25	Furrukbsir — 42
Croris 45	· .
Cuttari — 199	G.
Cutual — 183	Ganîms 33
C	Ghazi o'din 44
D.	Gbee 168
Dam 26	Golconda 32
Dara Shekowh 28	Gouzrân 48
Darogha Khass 215	Gouzrbans 46
Davr Bukhsh 22	Gualiar — 32
Debbashi — 207	Gurris 2
Dehli — 3
Dirbar 156, 173	н.
Dowlat Afza 28	Hakem 131
Duan 49	Hanbal — 117
Duan Khalsib 215	Hanifa

INDEX.

Hanifa 117, 124	Kassi Benaris 146
Harrol 150	Kazzi 49
Hazarri 187, 207	Kbak Towda 143
Herat — 73	Khalaet 48
Hind 144	Kban 97
Hindostan 3, 139	Khan Saman 204
Hindu — 3	Khanum 19
Hur al Nissa 29	Khata 4
Hyder — 55	Khesrabad 31
Hyderabad 32	Khojista Akhter 40
Hyder Kuli 55	Kbor 72
3	Khorasan 71, 72
I.¹	Khofro 22
Jaats — 153	Kbotbab 4
Jaffer 124	Kobîr 38
Jaguir 45	Koteb 2, 39
Jaguirdar — 45	Koteb al dîn 39
Jamib Misjid 184	Koteb al Muluck 43
Iar ba Vafa 43	Kouruck 176
Feban Ara — 28	Kuli 55
Jehandar 23	Kuli Khan 97
Jehanguîr 19	Kullebdar 131
Jeban Shah 40	Kummir o'dîn 61
Jeloudar 141	Kurrol 153
Iesdan Bukbsb . 41	Kuzzlebash 135
Iesa Bukbsb 38	-55
Jeziah — 166	L.
Jilal o'dîn 10	Lack 25
Islâm — 138	Loutf Allab 28
Jumsbeid 224	Lunar Year 2
Jy. = -4
K.	M.
Kajirs 157	Maharajah 30
Kambukbsb 38	Mabarattas 33
Kandabar 62	Mabl 174
•	Mahommed

INDEX.

	• •	.	٠.
Mabommed	6	Nefr Allab	4t
Malek	117	Neffir o'din	.8
Malika al Zumani	173	Niquîbs	140
Mansub	45	Niffikbchi	173
Mansubdar	45	Nizam al Muluck	44
Manzel	2	Nour Jeban	20
Matim	198	Nour Mabl	20
Mauzm	3 8	Nour o'dîn	19
Mauz o'dîn	40	•
Mebd Alia	25	O. .
Mim Bashi	73	Omra	55
Mir Bukbsbi	58	Othman	117
Misjidd	183		•
Moghol Omras	133	P.
Moby o'din	29	Pabr Gunjb	180
Morad	18	Panjab	10.
Morad Bukbfb	28	Parhez banu	. 29
Mothir al Muluck	140	Parvez	23
Mourcha	152	Pattans	7.
Munaddi	148	Peisbcush	48
Mushadd	73	Peilhor	134
Musnidd	163	Peishkhanna	134
Muttefiddis	47	Poulmeetai .	184
	•	R.
N.		Raffeeib al Dirjat	43
Nadir 71,	119		43
Nadir Kuli	71	— Kadr	40
Naib	141	Sban	. 40
Nakar Khanna	153	Rahadars	46
Nasr jing	44	Rabman Buksh	41
Najr o'din	54	Rajab	22
Navob	141	Rajab Sabou	33
Nazem	49	Rajpouts	32
Nazem Munazem	140	Rani	22
Nazr	4 8	Reti .	181
		Roif	binra i

I · N D · E X.

Roishinrai	28	Sudival	207
	26, 50	Sujab	28
S.	, ,	Suliman Bourge	178
Sabou Rajab	33	Suliman Shekowb	32
Schi as	117	Sultana Nissa	22
Scind	10	Sultan Khourm	23
Sedr	123	Sunnis	117
Seer Cacha and	1 Pucca	Suria Banu	28
	168	Т.	•
Selim	18	Taage Mabl	25.
Seli ma	18	Tabal	126.
Selimgur.	54	Takbi Revan	162
Sepeb Sbekowb	38	Tazia	198
Sera, Serai, or	Seraglio	Temur	· 1
	67	Thamas Kuli	97 [']
Seraf	212	Toishik Khanna	173
Serafa ardui	184	Tokbîr	126
Şettara	33	Toman	202
Sbafi	117	Towpchi Bashi	173
Shab	35	Ý	, 5
Sbabab o'din	24	Vakeât Babri	6
Shah Alum	39	Vakeel	163
Shah Jehan	24	Vanjarras	219
Sbabjebanabad	. 3	Vijapore	32
Sbab zada	19	Vinga	52
Sbakr nis[a	13	W.	5-
Sbebria r	23	•
Sber Afkan	21	Wallah Jah	41
Sinnid	49	Υ.
Sirpeach	206	Y abous	154
Şirrapab	48	Z.
Solar Year	2	Zebîr o'din	6
Soubab	34	Zemi	46
Soubabdar	34	Zemidars	46
Stage	2	Zen al dîn	35
	FIN	I S.

ERRATA.

PAge 2 Not. Line 16 for Bramims read Brabmin's. P. 12 P. 12 l. 4 for Persian read Persic. P. 25 Not. l. 5 for 10%. read 101. P. 29 l. 1 and 2 dele the Commas after Mirxa and Ismael. P. 49 Not. l. 4 for go read pass. P. 50 Not. 1. 13 for Sakeb read Sicca. P. 50 Not. l. 20 for Blank read Blanks. P. 54 l. 9 for Brother read his Brother. P. 59 l. 6 for their read his. P. 64 l. 2 for is read was. P. 64. Not. 1. 2 for whom read who. P. 84 1. 18 for being not read not being. P. 86.1. 13 for Centries read Sentries. P. 97 1. 6. for at read on. P. 102 l. 8 dele on. P. 102 l. 11 a Comma after worsted. P. 114 l. 8 for to relinquish read to desire them to relinquish. P: 1161. 5 for Service read Services. P. 131 l. 1 for Nazam read Nizam. P. 134 l. 20 dele to. P. 146 Not. l. 1 for Bengal read the Province of Alehabad. P. 153 l. 1 for Zurman read Zuman. P. 156 Not. l. 4 for and was read and he was. P. 160. l. 21 dele the Comma. P. 161. 1. 13 for Alla read Allab, and 1. 14 for Kadir read Nadir. P. 180 Not. l. 1 for a Crore read 20 Crores. P. 181 Not. I. 2 dele the Comma after Sheb Soar Khan. P. 187. 1. 11 for of the Moghol read of Maghol, and 1. 18 for Seidy read Scidy, and for Kalaet read Khalaet. P. 190 l, 7 for Niçar Mahommed Shah read Niçar Mahommed Khan. P. 192 1. 16. for Khandabar read Kandabar, and 1. 24 for Kings read King's. P. 194 l. 6 for bis read this. P. 198 l. 4 for Centry read Sentry. P. 203 l. 12 for Ghee 11 Seer read Ghee 1 Seer. P. 205 l. 23 dele to. P. 207 l. 10 for inactive read unactive. P. 215 l. 9 for 4th read 14th. P. 216 l. 21 the Parenthesis to be closed after with.

CATALOGUE

O F

MANUSCRIPTS,

IN THE

Persic, Arabic, and Sanskerrit

LANGUAGES.

Collected in the East by $f \land M \land E \land S \land F \land R \land A \land S \land E \land R$.

LONDON:
Printed by W. STRAHAN, in the Year
M.DCC.XI.IL

. · -

Á

CATALOGUE

o f

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS.

HISTORY.

ARIKH Rozit al Suffa. By Mahommed ben Khoavind Shah ben Mahmud. Dedicated to Mir Ali Sheir. In Five Volumes, Folio.

Vol. I. Containing, An Introduction concerning the Usefulness of History, how necessary is for these who Commend and Go.

fary it is for those who Command and Govern, to be acquainted therewith; and what is requisite, in order to be able to compose a good HISTORY. After which, follows an Account of the Creation, Noab's Flood, and the Lives of the Patriarchs, Prophets, and Kings of Israel.

An Account of the Lives of the ancient Poets and Philosophers.

A History of the ancient Kings of Persia, from Kayomars, until the entire Conquest of that Empire, (in the Reign of Iesdegerde Shebriar) by the Saracens, in the Khalisship of Othman; in which is also comprehended the Life of Philip, and of Alexander the Great.

Vol. II. The Genealogy, Birth, Prophetic Miffion, and Actions of Mahommed, until his Death:

The

The Khalisships of Abubacker, Aumar, Othmon, and Ali; wherein is a particular and copious Account of the first Foundation of the Arab or Saracen Empire; all the Wars, Conquests, and Changes, that happened in their Khalisships.

Vol. III. The Lives of the Twelve Imams, and of all the Khalifs, from Mortisa Ali to Motezum B'illab; with an Account of their Wars, Conquests, &c. until the final Dissolution of their Empire by Holaku Khan.

Vol. IV. The History of all the Kings that reigned in Persia, from the Saracen Conquest, until it was subdued by Chinguéz Khan's Sons. The History of all the Princes that govern'd in the several Parts of Tartary, and the Confines of India, from the Time Mahommedanism was first propagated there, until the Conquest of these Countries by Chinguéz Khan's Sons.

Vol. VI. The History of the famous Temour, or Tamerlane, his Sons and Successors, until the Year 830.

TUARÎRH TEBRI. By Abu Jaffer Mahommed ben Herîr ben Iezîd al Tebri. Translated into Perfic; with a Continuation, at the Command of Abu Saleb ben Nob at Khorasan, by Abu Ali Mahommed ben Abdallah al Balaâmi. It contains the same as the first Four Volumes of Tarîkh Rozit al Suffa, but only to the Year 550. It is reckoned the most authentick History they have, and is much esteemed in the East. There is an Appendix to it, containing a Geographical Account of the Countries and Places mentioned in the History.

TUARÎKH è Padshaban Hînd. A History of all the Mahommedan Kings that reign'd in Debli, to the Time of the Great Moghol Jilal O'din Mahommed Akhar.

Rozit aul'albab fi tuarikh al akaber v'al infâh. By Abu Suliman Daud ben abi al fazl Mahommed Bena Geti, in the Time of Sultan Abufeyd, the Sixth in a lineal Descent from Chinguez Khan. Containing the Genealogy, &c. of the Patriarchs and Prophets, from Adam to the Death of Abraham.

The History of the ancient Kings of Persia, from Kayomars to Iesdeger de Shebriar, the last King, with an Account of the samous Men and Philosophers that sourished in their Times. The Genealogy, Birth, and Life of Mahommed. The History of the Four sirst Khalifs, or Successor, and the Twelve Imâms, with the rest of the Khalifs, to Motezum Billah, the last Khalif of Binni Ahass.

The History of the several Kings that govern'd in Persia, Tartary, &c. from the first Out-set of Iacub ben Leiss, to the latter Days of Khowr Sbab.

The History of the Jews, the Prophets and Kings of Ifrael, from Moses's Time, to their last King Mattina, call'd by Bukbtnissar, Sedkiab. The History of the Nazarens and Franks, with the Genealogy of the Virgin Mary, traced up to David. Also an Account of their Country, their Casars and Popes, from the Time of the Messiah, until the Year 717 of the Hegira.

An Account and History of India, and its Kings, from the Time of Passeav, to Ala è din. The History of Khatai, from the Time of Nékou Padshab, to Altan Khan, with whom Chinquez Khan, and his Successors, had Wars. The Time of their Government, according to their own Historians, is 42,875 Years.

The History of the Moghols, and Origin of Chinguez Khan, his conquering of Persia, &c. with an Account of his Sons and Successors, to the 25th Shuval, 717.

AKBAR NAMA. By the famous Abul Fazi ben Mobarek. Containing the Genealogy of the Tamerlane Race, from Adam to Akbar the Great Mogbol.

The particular History of each, from Tamerlane.

until the 38th Year of Akbar's Reign.

A List and Account of all the Poets, Physicians, Astronomers, and learned Men; with a Muster-Roll of the Standing Forces then in the Empire.

TEBCAT Akbar Shabi. By Nizam o' din Abmed ben Mahommed Mokim alroui. Containing the Hiftory and Actions of the first Invaders and Conquerors of Hindostan; from the Year 367 of the Hegira; to the Conquest thereof by Tamerlane, in 801; and from him, until the 38th Year of Akbar's Reign: With a List of all the famous Men that flourish'd in Akbar's Time, and a Muster-Roll of the Army in 1002.

The History of the Kings of Deccan, to the Year

1002.

Towards the latter End, it contains fundry Things relating to India.

PADSHAHNAMA. By Abdal Hamid Labori, in

3 Vols. Folio. Vol. I. A Review of the Mogbol's History, front Tamerlane to Shah Jehan.

The

The History of the first Ten Years Reign of Shah Jehan, to which is annexed his History before his Accession to the Throne.

A Muster-Roll of the Standing Army, and an Account of the Treasury, Revenues, Jewels, &c. as they then stood. With an Account of what Presents were made, the Money laid out on Publick Buildings, and Pensions settled on the Queens, Princes, and Princesses.

Vol. II. Containing the second Ten Years of Shab Jeban's Reign; with a Muster-Roll of the Standing Army, and an Account of the Trea-fury, Revenues, &c.

Vol. III. The third Ten Years of Shah Jehan's Reign, with a Muster-Roll, &c. &c. &c.

The whole interspersed with several curious Relations, regarding the different Provinces of India, and an Account of the most remarkable Buildings, Mosques, Tombs, &c.

Maçır Jebanguiry. By Kamgar Hosseini. Being a full and exact History of the Great Mogbol Jebanguir, from his Birth to his Death. Interspersed with a great many curious Relations. The Manner he was entirely managed by, and at last infulted on Account of, his beautiful Mistress Nour Jeban.

VACKEAT Babri. The Great Moghol Babr's Commentaries of himself, from the Time he sat on the Throne, which was at Twelve Years of Age, until one Year before his Death. Containing an Account of his several Relations; as also the Princes who then govern'd in several Parts of Tartary.

A full Account of his Battles in Tartary and India; a correct Description of India; the Soil, Climate, Manners of the People, Commodities produced therein; a List of the several Powers

A CATALOGUE of

R

Powers who then possess'd India. Also a Description of the Beasts, Birds, Fruits, Herbs, and Flowers, peculiar to that Country.

- VAREAT Jebanguary. The Great Moghol Jebanguar's Commentaries of himself, from his sitting on the Throne, until the 13th Year of his Reign; wherein is set down all the new Regulations and Experiments he made.
- ALUMGUIR NAMA. By Munfoi Mabommed Kazm bon Mabommed Amin Munfoi. Containing the History of India and Auring-zebe, from Sultan Dara Sbeckowb's first confining his Father Sbab Jeban, until the 13th Year of Auring-zebe's Reign wherein is a full Account of the Means he used to cut off his Brothers, and secure the Empire to himself.
- TARÍKH Cashmir. By Hossan ben Ali Cachmiri.
 Wrote at the Command of Jilal o'din mutuk Mabommed Nachi ebn Muluk Nousserit. Containing
 The History of Cashmir, from the earliest Times, until its being conquered by the Grant Cognol Jilal o'din Mahorumed Alber, being the Space of near 4000 Years, by their Account; with a short Appendix, giving a Description of the Country, and the remarkable Places therein.
- Mirat Secandri. By Secander Ebn Mahommed. Containing the History of Guzerat, from the earliest Times, until its Conquest by the Great Moghol Abbar.
- TARIKH alum arai Abass. In Three Vols. By Secander Beg, Secretary to Shah Abass the Great. Containing,

Vol. I. The Genealogy of the Perfian Kings of the last Race, or the Seffi Family, lineally from Mortisa Ali; with the particular Life of each, to Shah Ismael, who was the first King of that Race.

The Life and History of Shab Ismael.

The Life and History of Shah Thamas, his Son. An Account of the Learned Men, Poets, Physicians, Astronomers, Painters, Musicians, and fine Writers, that flourished in Persia, in Shah

Themas's Reign.

Vol. II. and III. Containing a full History of the Persian Kings, from Shah Thamas's Death, untill the Death of Shah Abass the Great; wherein is set down every remarkable Incident that happen'd in Persia during that Time, with many other curious Relations.

TARÎKH Shah Ismael. By Shirf dân Ali Iesdi, the Author of Habîh al seir. Containing

I. A furnmary Account of Shah Ismael's Predecessors, as high as Mortisa Ali; with a short Account of the several Kings of Persia, who were their Contemporaries.

II. A compleat History of Shah Ismael, from his Birth to his Death; giving a particular Account of the several Powers who bore Sway in Persia, and round about it, at the Time of his first setting out, and for some Time afterwards.

TARÎKH Mokbiffir. Containing, A short History of the Great Moghols, from Auring-zebe's Death, to the third Year of the present Emperor Mahommed Shah's Reign.

ATHAR al Belad v. akhbar al Ebad. By Zekaria ben Mahmud al Kazvini. Being a Geographical and Historical Account of most Places in the World, B Nature

10 · A CATALOGUE of

Nature of the People, Curiofities, &c. divided into seven Climates.

- TARÎKH Mobarek Shabi. By Iabya ben Abmed ben Abdallab al Serindi. Containing the History of the Sam Ghori Kings, from Sultan Mahommed Sam, in the Year 569 to 837.
- Mîrat al Mokhlucat. By Abd o' rabman Cheisti, which he says is an Explanation of a small Book, in the Brahmin's Language; composed, at first, in the Time of the Genii, which he, by great Chance, found; containing a Prediction in regard to the Creation of Adam and Eve, peopling the Earth with Mankind, and foretelling Mahommed's Mission.
- MAREGE al Nabouet fi Medarege al fattouet. By Mayîn al Meskin. In Four Vols. Containing Four Parts, and one Appendix.

I. Treats of the Creation, Paradife, &c. and all the Patriarchs and Prophets, to the Time of Mahommed.

II. From Mahommed's Birth, to his Mission.

III. From his Mission to his Flight.

IV. From his Flight to his Death.

Appendix. Giving an Account of all the Miracles that are recorded of him.

TARÎKH Jeban numai. Containing
The History of Chinquez Khan, and his Successions, from his first Appearance in the World, until the latter End of Holaku Khan's Reign.

Montekbeb Tuarîkh. Containing Part of Holaku Kban's History, the whole of Temour's, and until the Death of Shab Rokh Mirza, Temour's Son.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 11

It contains an Account of Three Chinese Embassies to Shahrokh Mirza, and Copies of Daimung Khan, Emperor of China, his Letters to him; with Copies of two Letters in Arabic and Persic, sent from Sharokh by Shekh Mahommed Bukhshi to him; wherein, among other Things, he endeavours to convert him to the Mahommedan Religion.

It contains his Correspondence with Khesr Khan, then Emperor of Hindostan, and an Appendix, giving a Description of Mawaralnahr (or Transoxane Tartary) its Cities, Rivers, &c.

Montekbeb al Tuarikh. Composed by Abdalcadr Muloukshab Bedauvni, in the Year 999, at the Command of the Great Mogbol Jilal o'din Mahommed Akbar.

It contains the History of all the Mahommedan Princes that invaded and bore Sway in India, to the Year 999. according to their feveral Dynasties.

TARÎKH Gozidib. By Mahommed ben Abibecr ben Ahmed ben Nasser Mustosi al Kazvini. Divided into a Preface, Six Parts, and an Appendix. Preface. Creation of the World.

Part I. Account of the Patriarchs, Prophets, and ancient Philosophers. In Two Sections.

II. Account of the Kings who ruled the Empire of Perfia before Mahommedanifm; fuch as the Peishdadians, Kaianians, Samanians, and Safanians. In Four Sections.

HI. Concerning Mahommed, his Successors, Khalifs, Imams, Followers, &c. In One Introduction, and Six Sections.

IV. Account and History of all the Kings who reigned in the several Parts, from the Beginning of Mahommedanism, until the B 2 Year

12 A CATALOGUE of

Year 730. In Eleven Sections. Containing the following Dynasties.

Binni Leiss,
Samanians,
Gboznavi, Kings.
Gbori, Ditto.
Dielman âl Boui, Ditto.
Siljowkian, Ditto.
Kbuarism, Ditto.
Atabakan, Ditto.
Ismaelian, Ditto.
Kara Kbatai, Sultans.
The Mogbol Kings.

V. Concerning the Imams, or Antiftes of the Mabommedan Religion; the Readers, Elders, and Learned Men, who, through their Piety and Exemplary Life, arrived to a State of Excellence: With some of their most remarkable Sayings.

VI. An Account of the City of Kazvin, its Situation, Buildings, Canals, Tombs, Misjidds, &c. with an Account of the feveral Families, and great Men that have fprung from that Place.

Appendix. The Genealogy of the Patriarchs, Prophets, Kings, Philosophers, &c. mentioned in this History, in a Tree, to the Year 730.

KELMAT TYBAT. All the remarkable Sayings of the Great Mogbol Auring-zebe; with Copies of all the Letters, Notes, &c. he wrote himself.

AYÎN AKBARI. Composed by a Society of Men assembled for that Purpose. By Jilal o'dîn Mabommed Akbar, the Great Mogkol. Containing, I. A particular Account of each Province, City, Town, and Village of the Mogkol's Empire.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 13

pire. The Extent of each Province in Coss's, and Measure of all the cultivated Fields belonging to them, in Vingas. Their Latitudes and Longitudes; the latter taken from Jezair Kbaldat, or the Canarie Islands. The Revenues and Income of each Place. The Quota of Men each Province and Government is obliged to furnish. The Kinds of Grain and Commodities each produces; with an Account of the Powers who formerly bore Sway in each Province, and the several Sorts of People who now inhabit those Places.

II. A full Account and List of the Great Moghol's Army. The Wages, Sallary, and Office of each particular Servant, or Officer about him. The Manner of training and feeding all his Elephants, Camels, Mules, Horses, Oxen, &c. with an Account of the Grooms, Servants, &c. who attend them. An Account of the Attendants, Sallaries, and daily Expences allowed for the Harram, or Seraglio. A List of all the Imperial Implements used in Peace and War; fuch as Scepters, Standards, Drums, Tabbals, Battle-Axes, &c. and all the Weapons used in Hindostan, with their different Prices. Account of all the different Sorts of Weights, Coins, and Measures used in the Empire; with the Charges and Method of Refining and Coining Gold and Silver in the Royal Mint; with the feveral Infcriptions, Weight, and Value of each Coin. The Receipts of several Sorts of Dishes ferved up to the Mogbol's Table. Receipts of the different Sorts of Perfumes used at his Account of all the different Flowers, fweet Woods and Gums, with their Prices, and Places of their Produce. Ditto of all the Herbs. Fruits, &c. at the different Seasons of the Year. Account of the Mogbol's manner of Hunting, Exercise. Exercise, fighting Elephants, and other Diversions. The Ceremonies and Manner of Marrying in the Royal Family; their Rejoicings, Feastings, &c. The Names and Description of the different Sorts of Apparel, Ornaments, and Jewels used by the Men and Women at Court. The Mogbol's Manner of holding a Divan, and receiving People, and the Obeisance and Honours they do him. His Method of employing his Time.

III. A full Account of the Brabmin's Religion; their Books, and the Subject of them; the feveral different Sects, and what Points they differ in; with the whole Particulars of their Eating, Drinking, Marrying, Purifications, Worship, and burning when Dead. After which, follows an Account of the principal Mabommedan Saints; the Places they are buried in, and the Days that their Tombs are chiefly visited. To the whole is added the remarkable Sayings of the Great Mogbol Akbar, on fundry Subjects and Occasions; and a short Account of Abul Fazl, and his Family, by himself.

POETRY, &c.

SHAHNAMA. I Vol. Fol. containing 60,000 Couplets of Verses. Composed by the Prince of Poets, Molana Hossan Firdows, Native of Tous, who, in Majesty of Stile, and Harmony of Numbers, has surpassed all who wrote in that Language.

The Subject is, The History and Wars of the ancient Kings of Persia, until the Conquest of their Empire by the Arabs, in the Reign of Jesdegerde Sbebriår.

There

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 15

There is a Lexicon prefixed to it, explaining all the difficult and ancient Words to be met with in the Book.

KULIAT KHACANI, or the whole Works of tha famous Poet, Afzal o'din Ibrabim Khacani ebn Al al nijar al Shirwani. It contains several Books on various Subjects.

Sbirreb DUAN KHACANI. Being a Comment on one of Kbacani's Books, call'd his Duan; explaining what feems mysterious and obscure. By Mabommed Daud Alui Shadiahadi.

Kuliat Aibli. The whole Poetical Works of Molana Aibli Sbirazi. He is very much admired for a certain Sweetness and Smoothness peculiar to his Poems. It contains the following Books on various Subjects.

Sebr Halal.

Shama v Purwana.

Ketab Kussayd.

Ketab Ghuzliât.

Kussayd Muzoub.

Kuliat Jami. The Works of the famous Mullab Abdo Rabman Jami. Containing Twenty One Books, viz.

Selselit al Zabab, 1st Tome.

Selselit al Zabab, 2d Ditto.

Selselit al Zabab, 3d Ditto.

Keffib Salman v Absal.

Tobsit al Aberar.

Sejit al Abrar.

Isof Zulikba.

Leli Mujnoun.

Kherad nama Secander.

16 A CATALOGUE of

Duan Avul.
Duan Sani.
Duan Saliç.
Rissalib Maimai Kobir.
Rissalib Maimai Mottevisst.
Rissalib Maimai Sagbir.
Rissalib Maimai Asgbur.
Rissalib Mrouz.
Rissalib Kasia.
Babaristan.
Munsbiat.
Mousica.

DUAN KHOSRO. In Four Vols. A Book greatly esteemed in the East. It is on the Subjects of Divinity and Love; wrote in a Spiritual Strain, and is generally sung to Musick.

TOHFIT al Irakain; which is also one of the Books of Kuliât Kbacani. It is a beautiful Poetic Description of several Rivers and Places, in Persia, Diarbecr, (or Mesopotamia) and Arabia.

Isof Zulikba, or the Loves of Joseph and Potiphar's Wise. It is also comprehended in the Twenty One Books of Kuliat Jami.

Delfowz nama.

Are both Poems on the Subject of Love.

Duan Hafez. The Poems of Mahommed Shums o'din Hafez al Shirazi. They are wrote in a sublime Stile, and a little mysterious. They are used in the East, as the Sortes Virgilianse in Europe, and much credited on that Score.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 17

SECANDER NAMA. The History and Actions of Alexander the Great. Composed by Nizami, in Verse.

SECANDER MAMA BEHRI. Ditto, more compendious, by another Hand.

METHNOVI Mantoi Molaroi. By Mahommed ben Mahommed ben al Hossein al Balkbi, afterwards al Roumi. This Book, which is in great Esteem among the Mahommedans, is entirely on the Subject of Religion and Moral Duties.

KHOSRO SHIRIN. By Nizami. A Poem; celebrating the Loves of Khofro King of Persia, and his beautiful Mistress Shirin.

Niteejin al Tabbeb.

SAKI NAMA Zibouri.

Kblafib Bost An. An Extract of Sadi's Bostan.

DUAN Anvirri. Being the Works of the famous Poet Anvirri.

DUAN Perzada.

BIRZOU NAMA.

Kussayd Kelîm.

TEMOUR NAMA. The History and Actions of Temour, in Verse. Dedicated to Shah Thamas.

KUDDRIT AL AÇAR Ghazali Mufbaddi.

Nukush Biddeeih. Ditto, Ditto.

BEHR

18 A CATALOGUE of 16.

BEHR AL ABRAR. By Hastoni Tatari.

HIDÎKA Hakîm Sinai.

Nozhit al Ariwab. With an Explanation, by Abdal Wabed Ibrahim.

· (1)

ETHICS, POLITICS, Novels, &c.

UVAMEH al Albrack fi Mokarem al Akblack. By Jani Mahommed ebn Assaad Duani, and dedicated to Sultan Hossan Beg, Bahadr Khan. It is a Treatise of Moral Philosophy, containing Rules and Directions for tempering the Passions and Appetites; each Moral Duty, and vicious Habit, being fully treated of under their distinct Heads.

This Book is divided into Three Sections. The First of which considers Man in Regard to his own Person singly, as a Member of Society, and what Duties are incumbent on him. the Second, he is considered as the Head of a Family, and Rules laid down for his Management, in Regard to each of those whom he has under his immediate Care. In the Third, he is confidered as Head or Ruler of a Society or Kingdom, and Directions laid down for his Government in that State. Towards the latter End are annex'd. Plato's Instructions to Ariflotle; containing fundry excellent Advices: As also a Translation of the Secret of Secrets, or Aristotle's Instructions to Alexander the Great. regarding his Conduct in Perfia, which, by Order of the Khalif Maimun, was translated from the Original Greek into Arabic.

AKHLACK Nafri. A Treatife on the fame Subject, and disposed in the same Order, by Nafr

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 19 o'din Mahommed ben Mahommed ben Hossan al

Touffi.

DESTOUR al Vizra. The whole Duty of a Vizir, with proper Rules and Directions for his Management, in Regard to all Ranks of People, from his King to the meanest Subject. It is dedicated to Emir Fakher o' din ben Hossan, AKHLACK al Mohossinin. By Moula Hossan ben Ali al Kashi, and dedicated to Sultan Hossein.

A Treatife of Ethics; much esteem'd in the East. Divided into Forty Chapters, each treating of a different Head. The whole interspersed with pleasant and improving Narratives, adapted to the Subject.

AYAR Danish. The History of which Book is thus. The ancient Brabmins of India, after a great deal of Time and Labour, compiled a Treatife, (which they called Kurtuk Dumnik) in which were inferted the choicest Treasures of Wisdom, and the perfectest Rules for governing a People. Book they presented to their Rajabs, who kept it with the greatest Secrely and Care. About the Time of Mahommed's Birth, or the latter End of the VIth Century, Noisbervan the Just, who then reign'd in Persia, discovered a great Inclination to see that Book: For which Purpose, one Burzuvia, a Physician, who had a surprising Talent in learning several Languages, particularly the Sanskerrit, was introduced to him, as the properest Person to be employed to get a Copy thereof. He went to India; where, after some Years Stay, and great Trouble, he procured it. It was translated into the Pebluvi Language by him, and Buzrjumehr the Vizir. Noishervan ever after, and all his Successors the Persian Kings, had this Book in high Esteem, and took the greatest Care to keep it secret. At last, Abu Jasser Munsur Zu Nikky, who was the Second Khalis of the Abasse Race, by great Search, got a Copy thereof in the Pebluvi Language, and ordered Imam Hossan Abdal Mokassa, who was the most Loarned of that Age, to translate it into Arabic. This Prince, ever after, made it his Guide, not only in Assairs relating to the Government, but in private Life also.

In the Year 380 of the Hegira, Sultan Mahmud Ghazi put it into Verse. And afterwards, in the Year 515, by Order of Bhenam Shah ben Massaud, that which Abdal Mohassa had translated, was re-translated into Perse, by Abul Mala Nasser allah Mustosi; and this is that Kulia Dunna, which is now extant. As this latter had too many Arabic Verses, and obsolete Phrases in it; Molane Ali ben Hussen. Kasz, at the Request of Emir Sobèli, Keeper of the Seals to Sultan Hossen Mirns, pure in into a more modern Stile, and gave it the Title of Annar Sobeli.

In the Year 1002, the Great Maghol Jilal o'din Mahammad Akhar ordered his own Secretary and Vizir, the Learned Ahul Faul, to illustrate the obscure Passages, abridge the long Dignessions, and put it into such a Stile as would be most familiar to all Capacities; which he accordingly did, and gave it the Name of Apar Danish, or the Criterion of Wisslam.

ANUAR Sobeli. An Edition of the fame Book, wrote in Sultan Hossein's Times

Kulla, Dumna. The Edition wrote in 515, by Rheram Shab's Order.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS, 21

- ACAR Assemble, or the Vestiges of Chastiery. A Novel. In which the Author has given the Character of a virtuous chaste Woman.
- TOUTINAMA. By the famous Naligibili. In this Book, the whole Difcourse is seigned to have passed betwixt a Parrot and her Mistress, whose Husband had gone a distant Voyage. In which the artful Tricks and Ingratitude of Women is laid open by a Relation of several curious and surprising Intrigues, which the Parrot relates every Night, in order to divert the Time, and bring on the Morning, to prevent her going to her Gallant, until her Husband's Return.
- Dowed v Kazzi, or the Thief and the Judge. Being a Dispute betwirt the Kazzi of Baghdad, and a Thief, who had laid Hold of him as he was going out to his Country Garden, about an Hour before Day-light. The Thief happens to prove too hard for the Kazzi; for he cites more Passages from the Kazzi; for he cites more Passages from the Kazzi can well answer.
- MANAVERAT. Rules and Directions for behaving in Company; with a Relation of feveral famous Repartees, withy Answers, and inoffensive Jests; with a Collections of Proverbs, and the best Pallages one of the most eminent Poets, on the feveral different Subjects that can happen in Conversation.
- NEGARISTAN. By Mayin Jonini, in the Time of Sultan Abanfeyd Bubade Khan. Dedicated to his Vizir Mahommed Rifebid. It is wrote in a heautiful Stile. It commins form Hundreds of very pleasure and improving Relations, which are true true in Fact, and regarding each of the following Heads, viz.

22 A CATALOGUE of

I. A virtuous Disposition.

II. Abstinence, and Self-Denial.

III. Humanity towards our Fellow-Creatures.

IV. Love and Friendship.

V. Counsel and Advice.

VI. Greatness of Soul, and Mercy.

VII. The many Advantages arising from the Knowledge of Arts and Sciences, Kessih Kamroup. A fine Novel. Wrote by Hemit Khan ben Islam Khan Alumguiri.

Tokvim al AKHLACK. A Treatise of Ethics; digested into a very regular Method.

Pund NAMA. A Treatife, containing several good Instructions: By Sbekb Ferd otar.

ARTS, SCIENCES, &c.

DANISH NAMA & Jeban. A Treatise of Phyfics. By Ghyath o' din Ali ebn Ali Emiran al Hosseini, al Isfahani. It is divided into Ten Sections, Twenty Divisions, and an Appendix; which treat of the following Subjects.

The Universal Intelligent, and Universal Soul.
The Heavenly Bodies; their Order, the Time and Manner of their Revolutions.

Concerning the Elements.

Concerning a Body.

Of a Simple and Compound Body.

That there is no Vacuum.

The Theory of Vapours, Exhalations, Wind, Clouds, Rain, Snow, Hail, Dew, Thunder, Light.

Lightning, falling Stars, Redness of the Sky about the Horizon, feveral Suns appearing at once, Rain-bows, Halo's, Earthquakes; Sounds, Wind, and Fire, coming out of the Bowels of the Earth; Springs, Fountains, Hills, &c. Produce of all Sorts of Minerals, Stones, &c. Reason of their different Weights, Colours, Tastes, and what Planets govern each.

Vegetables; their Theory, Production.

Account of the Vegetable Soul, and its Faculties.

Production of Brute Animals: Account of their Soul, and its Faculties.

Creation of Man: Account of his Intellectual Soul, Faculties, and his Form.

Account of the Continuance of Production.

The Production of Animals by Generation, the Manner and several Degrees of the Formation of a Fætus, its Position in the Womb, its Birth, and the Causes of Male and Female,

Account of the outward and inward Senses: where they differ in Man and Beast; how Objects strike the Senses and Mind.

Of the Immortality of the rational Soul.

Of Misery and Happiness.

Of Predestination and Providence.

That it is possible a Man may be inform'd of hidden Things, and what is not to be perceived by the Senses, both in Sleep and awake, and the Manner thereof. In Seven Discourses.

Of Dreams, and the several Sorts of them.

Of Inspiration, Prophecy, and the Degrees of Prophets, Miracles, Sorcery, Magick, an Evil Eye, &r. and living by little or no Food.

Of Opticks; the Theory of Sight, Light, and Colours.

Proving the Earth and Water to be of a Spherical Form.

Geogra-

24 A CATALOGUE of

Geographical Definitions and Paradouts.

Abu Ali Sine's Advice.

A Treatise of Anatomy; with the Use and Functions of the several Parts.

Mijmoub Terv' Gberib. By Ifof ben Mahommed ben Ifof al Tabib. Dedicated to the Great Mog-bol Neffir o' din Mahommed Hemaiun. Containing,

Hefz Sebt, or Rules for the Preservation of Health, in Regard to Eating, Drinking, Exercise, Rest, &c.

Names of Medicines, in the Indian Language. Jameb al Forest, or an Account of all Difeases incident to the several Parts of the Body, from the Head downwards, with Remedics for each. Cures for venemous Bites.

Receipts and Remedies for several Diseases. In Verse.

- Dir Anasır v' bavaffba. Concerning the Four Elements, and Five Senses.
- RISSALIA found al Sabian; or Instruction to Youth.
- MIJMOUH al Fazael dir elum Najum v Abkam. A Treatife of Astronomy and Astrology; chiefly according to the Indian Method. By Mahommed Fazel ebn Molana Abdal Shushour. Dedicated to Shab Jehan. Divided into 159 Chapters.
- RISSALIH dir Marefet Afrolab. Concerning the Use of the Astrolabe.

RISSALIH Heyit. A Treatise of Geometry.

RISSALIH Hissab. Of Arithmetick.

HISS AB

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 25

HISS A'B aibl Tinjum. The Accounts used by Astronomers.

Dir Mussahit. Mensuration of Superficies's, Solids, &c.

TAKHLIS al Moftab. In Arabic.

Arouz. The Method of composing Verses of all Kinds.

REML, or Geomancy.

These Eight Treatises by Abdalwabid Gilani.

KHAFIAH Aflatoun fi elum adad. In Arabic. By Shekb Malek Mogbrebi.

ELUM Munazerib, the Art of Disputing and Pleading.

ELUM Hissab, of Arithmetick, &c.

AL GEBR v Mokabla, of Algebra,

ELUM Duvavin, the Method of writing the best Stile; with Quotations from the most approved Authors, on several Subjects.

ELUM Bideeib, the Art of Composing and Ranging the several Parts of a Discourse in the best Manner, ELUM Mithal.

ESTIARIH ou Elum Bayan. By Molana Asam o'din.

ELUM Ziraet. A Compleat Treatife of Husbandry and Gardening; wherein is set down the proper Season and Manner of managing all Kinds of D Grain.

Grain, Fruit-Trees, Greens, Gr. The Prognoflicks of the Weather; with an Account of the Physical Uses of the different Fruits and Herbs; how to destroy or drive away all kinds of Vermin, or hurtful Reptiles; with the Method of making Wine.

MIZAN.

AJINASS FEAL.

Panjh Gunjh.

NEHV Zeriri.

MESBAH.

Shirren Moulo Jami.

These Six Books are the Rudiments, Grammars, &c. that are necessary, in order to read, write, and pronounce the Arabic Language.

Seb Rissalih é Tirandazi. Three different Treatifes on the Art of shooting with Bows and Arrows; with the Method of making Bows, and all Kinds of Arrows. The Art of Shooting on Horseback, at full Speed, either forwards or backwards.

ZEECH Ulogh Beg. By Mahommed Mirra Ulogh Beg, Grandson to Temour. It contains the different Era's, and Manner of counting Time, in all Places. The Festivals and remarkable Days, as all the different Nations hold them. The Chinese Computation of Time, and their Era; with a Treatise of Astronomy and Astrology.

Dir Khavass Chowb Chini, Cha, v Koava. A Treatise on China Root, Tea, and Coffee, explaining the Natures and Physical Uses of them; with the Method.

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 27 Method of preparing each, especially the Chine-Root, when used as a Diet-Drink in the East.

Rissalin Munich. A Treatise of Logick.

RISEALISI Hepit. Of Geometry, and the Doctrine of the Sphere.

RISSALIH Arouz. Another Treatife on the Art of making Verfes.

Dir Exum Khutt. The Rules for writing the Perfian Characters.

FARS NAMA. Wrote by Nezam o'din Abmed, at the Command of Shah Abasi the IId. It is a Treatise on Horses; the Method of Riding and Managing them; the Marks by which they are known; with Receipts for all the Diseases incident to them.

Anis al Albakain. The Method of reading and understanding the Parsian Poets, and discovering the Beauties in them.

JUVANR NAMA. A Treatise on all precious and valuable Stones, from the Diamond to an Aggat; the Places they are found in; with the Method of understanding them, and the Prices of each.

Tokvim farfi. A Perfian Almanack.

Destroy a d and. Containing an Account of the Great Mogbol's Revenues from each Province in general, and each Town and Village in particular, throughout the Empire; with a Lift of all the Ports, Offices, &c. therein.

28 A CATALOGUE of

MAIMA, namba v Tarikba.

ELUM Khourd as bindi.

HEELHA Ismaeli (or, Al alat alroubaniat) A Book of Machinery, containing about 300 Figures. It was composed by Aboulézz Ismael al Gezeri, and is divided into Six Parts.

Part I. Of strange Clocks and Clepsydras.

II. Vessels of a strange Structure.

III. Musical Instruments.

IV. Hydraulick Engines and Machines for raifing weighty Things from deep Places.

V. Vases for Drinking, Plates, &c.

VI. Several Sorts of Machines. wrote in Arabic, and dedicated to Kara Erstan al Ariki.

Dictionaries, Vocabularies, &c.

ARHANG Jebanguîri. By Mîr Jemal o'dîn Hofsein Anjou ebn fakbr o'din Hossan. Dedicated to the Great Mogbol Nour o'dîn Mahommed Jebanguir: 'Tis compiled from Forty Eight different Dictionaries, and contains all the Words modern or ancient, that properly belong to the Perfic Language, with their true Vowels, and their feveral Significations; each Signification authorized by a Quotation from some eminent Author. Introduction is divided into Twelve Sections, relating to the several Changes the Letters and Words have undergone, the Syllables and Words that are added for Ornament in Writing; with a Copious Grammatical Differtation, necessary to be perused, for the more perfect Knowledge of the Persic Language; with an Appendix, explaining Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 29 ing those Words of the Zend, which are not to be found in the Body of the Book.

LETAEF al Loghat. By Abdal Letif ben Abdallah Kobir. A Dictionary in great Esteem.

FARHANG adàt al Fazla. By Kazzi Khan Pedr Mahommed Dehlui; known by the Name of Bedbarwal. It contains chiefly, the ancient Perfic Words.

AKD al Juvahr. A Vocabulary.

LOGHAT Arabi, Farsi, v Turki, Ditto.

NISSAB Sabian, Ditto.

FARHANG Ifof.

ALFAZ Advia. By Nour o'din Mahommed Abdatlah Hakim Ain al Muluck Shirazi. Dedicated to the Great Moghol Shahah o'din Mahommed Shah Jehan. It explains, in an Alphabetical Order, all Drugs and Medicines; their Qualities, Virtues, Dofes, &c. with the Names of each, in the Arabic, Perfic, and Indian Languages. To which is added, an Appendix, fully treating of Bezoars, Mummy, China Root, Tea, Coffee, and Tobacco.

LETTERS, FORMS OF WRITING, &c.

INSHA, Abul Fazl. In Three Tomes. Being Copies of all the Letters wrote by the Learned Abul Fazl (Secretary and Vizir to the Great Mogbol filal o'din Mabommed Akbar) in his Master's Name, to the several Kings and Powers he corresponded responded with. They are reckuned the best writ of any Thing in that Language.

30 A CATALOGUE of

INSHA Iloft. Rules and Precedents for writing to all Degrees of People, from the King to the meanest Subject. Also Forms of all Kinds of Writs, Bonds, Receipts, Firmans, Conveyances, Petitions, &c.

INSH A Harkerrin v Burbemun. Containing the same as Insha Isofi.

JINAB Abuvi. Forms of Letters to Parents, Relations, &c.

Insha Kbot Nifkb.

SEHÎFA SHAHI. By Hoffein ben Ali al Vuez al Kaftfl. Dedicated to Sultan Hoffein.

It contains Rules and Precedents for writing to Princes, and all Ranks of People, in the most elegant Manner, and in so regular and welldisposed a Method, that Persons of an ordinary Capacity, with moderate Application, may soon artain to a very good Strie in that Language.

With several Copies of Perfix and Anabic Writings, by the most eminent Masters that have been in Perfia, India, or Tartary, for the Two last Centuries.

DIVINITY.

WO KORANS.

TAFSIR Bedavi. Bedavi's Comment on the Koran, in Arabic.

TAFSÎR

- TARSIR Hoffeini. Hoffein Vaez his Comment on the Koran in Perfe.
- Tarsin Kafhani. A large Comment on the Koran, according to the Schia's Doctrine. By Fatteb Allab ebn Shuckr Allab al Kafhani. In Two large Folio Volumes. The Two first Comments are according to the Sunnis.
- Muser. A Book containing all the authentic Traditions of Mahammed, in Regard to Points of Faith, Worship, &c. and what is not determined in the Koran, whether by Inspiration, or as his own Opinion, which are called Abada, Koddissi v Nebvi.
 - SHIRREH Sourat al Zoho. Explanation of the Sourat al Zoho, (a Chapter of the Koran fo called)
 By Baho ben Mahmud, ben Ibrahim.
- On AD. Prayers for all the Set-Times of the Day and Night. By Shekh Mahammed ebn Ibrahim al Kadri.
- OR AD Montem. Mahommedan Prayers for the different Festivals, Fasts, Months, &c.
- Tornell el Iman v Tokviet al ichan. An Explanation of all the Articles of Faith in the Mahammedan Religion. By Abdalbuck ban Sef a din al Turk el Debluvi al Bekhari.
- At Mothet fil Mothed, or Acad Toreishi. Dedicated to Silgher Sultan Acades. It is divided into Three Parts, and each of these Parts into Ten Chapters.

Part I. Concerning a Belief and Faith in God.
II. Ditto

32 A CATALOGUE of

II. Ditto in the Angels, Reveal'd Religion, and the Prophets.

III. Ditto, other particular Points; fuch as are most consentaneous to the true Orthodox and primitive Faith.

RISSALIH Shok afza. A Spiritual Work, by Othman Birgi ben Albedad.

Kunz al fovaed v Shirreb al Akaed; of the same Nature as Tokmil al Imân in Verse.

AITKAD NAMA; upon the same Subject. By Molana Abd'orabman Jami.

KHAVASS Souratha. The Properties of each Sourat, or Chapter in the Koran, in Verse.

MIRAT al Akbra, concerning the Resurrection and last Judgment. Wrote in Arabic, by Shekb Abdorabman, and translated into Persic, by Mahommed Ghani ebn Shekh abdal Ghosqur.

JAMEH ABASSI. A Collection of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclefiastical Laws, according to the Schias. By Baha o'din Mahommed Aumli; dedicated to Shah Ahass. In Twenty Parts; and each of these Parts divided into many Sections and Chapters.

Part. I. Purifications of all Kinds.

II. Prayers; their Forms, Times; what are necessary and supererogatory.

III. Zikât, or what is fet aside of one's Effects for charitable and religious Uses.

IV. Fasts, Festivals, &c.

V. The whole Ceremony of a Pilgrimage to Mecca.

VI. Alms,

VI. Alms, appropriating to pious Uses, Charity, and freeing Slaves, fighting with the Infidels; its several Laws and Rules.

VII. The Visitation of Mahommed's, Mortisa Ali's, and the Imâms Tombs; with the Days of their Births and Deaths.

VIII. Concerning Promises, Vows, Oaths, and the Performance of them.

IX. Buying, Selling, Sureties, Pledges, and Partnership.

X. Hiring, Renting, Lending, Pawning, and appointing Agents.

XI. Marrying for ever, and for a limited Time, with all its Laws and Rules.

XII. Divorces, and Rules.

XIII. The Laws of Hunting, and all Sorts of Game.

XIV. Killing of Animals for Food; what are lawful and forbidden.

XV. Laws and Rules of Eating, Drinking, and Cloathing.

XVI. Law-Suits, Cases of Equity, and how they are to be decided.

XVII. Concerning Contracts and Last Wills.

XVIII. Sharing of Heritages, Legacies, &c.

XIX. The Punishments that are by Law inflicted on Thest, Adultery, Fornication, Sodomy, &c.

XX. The Price of Blood for Murder, maining, wounding, being bit by one's Dog, &r.

PERIH Mezhub buck Asima Masoumin. In Eighteen Parts, and each Part divided into many Chapters and Sections, on the above Subject, according to the Schias.

- MIJMOUH KHANI. A Book of the Malonmedon Civil and Ecclesiastical Law in all its Branches. By Kumal Krim. Dedicated to Beberam Khan. At the latter End is a Calculation of what Number of Letters of each Sort there is in the Koran.
- KHLASSIT AL FEKIH. A compleat Body of the Mahommedan Civil and Ecclesiastical Laws, according to the Sunnis, as regulated by Abul Hanifa; and wherever he differs from the other Three Malek, Shafi, and Hanbal, Notice is taken thereof. These Four last Books are what the Mustis and Kazzis are guided by, in whatever they decide or determine; and what directs all forts of People, as to their Purisications, Prayers, and all other Rites and Ceremonies of their Religion.
- KHOTBAH. A Form of the Harangue spoke by the Mullab on every Friday in the Mosques, wherein the Prince who governs is mention'd and pray'd for.
- Jeban Ara Begum, Sister to Auring-zebe, her History of the Ajmir Saints.
- LUVAVIH TOHÎD. By Molana Abdo' Rabman Jami. Being a Treatise of the Tusvuff Religion, or the Eastern Quietism. With Rules how to acquire a Habit thereof.
- Dir Mazhub Aramin. A Treatise wrote by an Armenian Priest, who turned Mahommedan in Shah Hossein King of Persia his Time, or 1123 of the Hegira; in which he endeavours to expose the Christian Religion, as practised by the Armenians and Roman Catholicks, by quoting several Parts of their Missal, and describing their Forms of Worship. It is dedicated to Shah Hossein.

The

Oriental MANUSCRIPTS. 35 The Zend of Zeratush, in the ancient Persic Character.

A TRANSLATION of all the Remains of Zeratusht, or Zoroaster, into Persic; with several other Pieces, as follows.

Liturgy of the antient Persians.

Concerning Women, Heaven and Hell.

Dialogue betwirt Minukberad and Ormisd.

Account of the antient Kings.

Account of the several Books of their Religion, before they were destroyed by Alexander, and what was the Subject of each.

Zeratulbt's Conference with Ormild.

Account of the first peopling of the Earth; with the several Excellencies peculiar to the Month Firvirdîn.

Concerning the Soul and Death.

Account of the Creation.

Ormisa and Aberman, the Two Principles.

The Guardian Angels.

Religion explain'd.

Explanation of some Terms used in their Religious Offices,

Concerning the Existence and Nature of a Deity.

Explanation of the 101 Names of Gop.

Of the Nature of Sin, necessary good Works, Works of Supererogation, Charity, Obedience,

State of the Blessed in Heaven, and Wicked in Hell.

Refurrection, and last Judgment.

Dastan Noisber- History of those and the prevan, eeding Times, intermix'd Furrukbnama, with Morality.

Daftan Mirghou Zin. Ardaverafnama.

Letters

Letters from the Gebers in Persia to those in Inlia.

Of the Good Angels Affistance, and the Evil's Resistance.

Account of Zeratulat's Conference with God, in Regard to the Soul; the feveral Kinds of Sin, Women, Worship, Religion, the Worship of the Fire; Gurstalp's Soul; State of the B'essed and Wicked. A Prediction.

Of Marriage; Purifications of Women; Offices to the Dead; Religious Duties; the Merits of each explain'd.

How particular Angels prefide over every Action.

The Ghahanbars and Festivals to be observed.

The Ceremony of the Kusti.

Continuance of the World; the Refurrection, its Manner, the Method of Judgment and Punishment; how the Soul is disposed of after Death.

Ketab sud dir; in Verse. In 100 Parts. Mar nama.

Mudit Dunia v ajaebba.

Explanation of a Confession of Sins.

Prayers, &c. to be used in setting out on a Journey, or commencing any Work.

The Purifications that are to be used on all Occalions.

Several Questions and Answers relating to Cases in Religion and Law.

Rules in Eating, Drinking, &c.

Worship of the Sun and Fire.

Another Conference of Zeratulot's with God. Abkam Hakim Jamasp, concerningseveral Things in the Time of Gurstasp.

Predictions concerning the latter Times.

Account of the ancient Kings,

Prayers

Prayers of fundry Sorts.

Poems on the Months, and their Guardian Angela

Form and Method of Bathing and Purification.

On DIVINITY, and other Subjects, in the Sanskerrit, or the Brahmin's ancient Language and Character; being all in loofe Leaves.

Asch Pouran. 601 Fol.

Bhagvit Pouran. 620 Fol.

Vissesbik Shafter. 105 Fol.

Muns Smirti Dirhm Shafter. 280 Fol.

Mitakna, Dirbm Shafter. 523 Fol.

Anintvitti, Diebm Shafter. 124 Ditto.

All these Powens and Shafters are Glosses and Comments on the Vedb. They contain every Porticular relating to the Bnabmin's Religion, and a great deal of ancient History.

Bhagvit Gita. A Translation of which into Perfic, is already mentioned.

Ramain, or the History of Rajab Ram, intermix'd with Divinity. In Three Parts. Containing 367 Folio's.

Krishn Kririt, or Krishin's History and Worship.

Provowd Chander endéh. Deeds of the ancient Rajah's.

Tim

38 A CATALOGUE of Till Nerimeb. The Duties of each Day. 35 Folio's.

Jallindrow Paxbsban. Jallindr Raja's Actions. 60 Ditto.

Rittin Koish. Concerning Jewels, Stones, &c. 70 Ditto.

Abbedan Maba. A Vocabulary of Sanskerrit Words. 66 Ditto.

Dwarka Matim. Concerning Dwarka. 117 Ditto.

Aneakrit Teluk. A Vocabulary. 46 Ditto.

Purvass Kund. The Excellencies of each particular Place of Worship in India. 54 Ditto.

Veakrin. The Sanskerrit Grammar. 150 Ditto.

Madbio Nidban. Of Physic. 96 Ditto.

Sbartr. Of Anatomy. 155 Ditto.

Teebsutt. The Method of knowing Distempers. 117 Ditto.

Vagvit. Of Physic. 253 Ditto.

Several Veakrin's, or Grammars. 300 Ditto.

Noratr Kutta. 3 Ditto.

C.O.A.

Raagbindi. A Treatise of the Indian Musick.

Anoubbidra. A Part of the Vedb; showing the Character, and the Manner it is writ in.

Kowk

Kewk Shafter.

"Sanskerrit Alphabet; with the Method of joining all their Letters.

The Banian Alphabet. Ditto.

Five Brahmin Almanacks, from the Year 1739, to Three Eclipses, as calculated and drawn out by Sbrinast Veaz, a Brabmin, at Cambay.

TIRJUMMA Jowg Visibt. A Translation of the Jowg Visibt, from the Original Sanskerrit, (the Brahmin's Language) into Persic. It treats of the Vanities of the World, and what Happiness attends a true Retirement from it.

TIRJUMMA Bhagvit Gita. A Translation into Perfic, of the Gita. This Book the Brahmins call, The Marrow of the Vedb. It gives a Light into the most mysterious Part of their Religion, and explains the Substance of the Vedb.

Mujmah al Babrain, (i.e. the uniting of both Seas.)
A Treatife wrote by Sultan Dara Shekowh, eldest Brother to Auring-zebe; in which he endeavours to reconcile the Brahmins Religion with the Mahommedan; citing Passages from the Koran, to prove the several Points. It was his writing this Book, and conversing so much with the Brahmins, that chiefly lost him the Empire; for Auring-zebe made a Pretence of that, and consequently had all the bigotted Mahommedans to join him.

The Gospel of Gerenimo Xavier. — In April 1582.
The Great Mogbol Jilal o'din Mahommed Akhar (who

(who was fix'd to no Religion) wrote a Letter to the King of Portugal, by Seyd Mazuffer, defiring to fend him a Translation of the Sctiptures into Arabic or Perfic; and at the same Time, one who was capable of explaining to him the Christian Religion.— One Geronimo Xavier, a Jesuit, and Relation to the samous St. Francis. Xavier, was appointed for that Purpose, who having learned the Perfic Language (as he says) in the Space of Eight Years; with the Assistance of Molana Abdal Sestar ben Kassum Labori, composed this Book, and presented it to the Mogbol in April 2602.

The Morbol's Letter, which is curious in its

The Morbol's Letter, which is curious in its Kind, is to be found in the first Volume of Inflow Abul Fazi. This Manuscript is the Original one that Manuscript to the Morbol.

FINIS.

